

MOTHER, ILL, KILLS SELF AND 3 CHILDREN

To-night's Weather—CLOUDY.

To-morrow's Weather—CLOUDY.

THE EVENING WORLD WALL STREET CLOSING TABLES.

The Evening

The Evening

The World.

WALL STREET THE EVENING WORLD FINAL EDITION

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

VOL. LXII. NO. 22,045—DAILY.

Copyright (New York World) by Press Publishing Company, 1922.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 1922.

Entered as Second-Class Matter Post Office, New York, N. Y.

PRICE THREE CENTS

Dr. L. Pierce Clark's Wife Dies Under Cocaine

ARREST 23 LABOR LEADERS AFTER BUILDINGS ARE BOMBED AND POLICE SLAIN IN CHICAGO

Every Important Official of Building Trades Council in Custody of Authorities, Chief of Police Fitzmorris Announces.

Issues Declaration of War Against "Hoodlums and Extremists" Committing Outrages—One Prisoner Identified as Bomber.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The police today raided the Building Trades Labor Headquarters and arrested three of Chicago's biggest labor leaders...

The dead are Terrance Lyons, thirty, Acting Lieutenant, and Patrolman Thomas Clarke, thirty.

Although the killings and bombings were in different parts of the city, police believe they were directed by a single band, desiring to express resentment at enforcement of a decision handed down by K. M. Landis, former Federal Judge, acting as arbiter in a long drawn out dispute between members of the Building Trades Council and contractors.

The buildings bombed were the garage of Tyler & Hirsch and the Homebrewery plant...

The World's Automobile Exchange Ads. Sell 14 Cars

GARLAND AUTOMOBILE COMPANY. 1885 Broadway, at 53d St. NEW YORK, May 3, 1922.

New York World, Pulitzer Building, New York City. Gentlemen: Please insert in The World Sunday, May 14th, advertising copy here...

The Sunday World Automobile Exchange Ads. Are Read in 600,000 Homes.

RUSSIANS REVISE REPLY TO ALLIES AT LAST MOMENT

Tchitcherin Decides to Tone Down Answer After Conference With Schanzer.

GENOA, May 10 (Associated Press).—The Russian reply to the Allied memorandum, which was ready for presentation this forenoon, was not delivered to the Allies, as expected.

At the last moment, after a conversation between Foreign Ministers Tchitcherin of Russia and Schanzer of Italy it was decided the reply would have to undergo some alteration.

M. Tchitcherin left Genoa at 2 P.M., returning to Santa Margherita to consult other members of the Russian delegation. It was not expected, therefore, that the reply could be presented until to-morrow.

The fact that the delay was due to M. Tchitcherin's visit to Signor Schanzer was regarded in some quarters as a favorable indication.

The preamble of the Russian reply, it was learned this afternoon, urges the point that the entrance of foreign capital into Russia depends far more upon Russian guarantees for the future than upon discussion of claims.

The reply says that as long as the political and economic quarantine is continued against Russia, such states as practice it cannot but encourage military adventures attributing to themselves the role of gendarmes of European civilization.

The reply, says the Central News, requests that Clause VII of the memorandum be referred to an international committee of experts, with Russia represented on it.

With regard to the war debts, the Allies are asked to state the exact discount that would be made if the debts were acknowledged. On the whole, it is added, the reply was evasive.

(Clause VII in the Allied memorandum to Russia is the clause relating to the status and disposition of foreign-owned property in Russia nationalized by the Soviet Government.)

'Can't Bob Hair,' Said Ma and Pa, But Frances Did and Police Arrive

Paternal Palm Descends on Miss Who Insisted on Flapping With Flappers.

Frances Vanore is a flapper at last—and it hurts. Let it be told in the words of Sergi Cany of the North Bergen, N. J., police.

"'Twas the middle of yesterday afternoon," says he, "when a wild female voice came over the station wire saying there was terrible things going on at No. 912 Courtland Avenue, where Frances lives with her parents and her sisters.

"I grab a couple of patrolmen and we all takes it on high, but all is quiet and peaceful and subdued when we reaches the scene. Within a do-

SWEEPING DENIAL ENTERED ON STAND BY MRS. STILLMAN

Accused Wife Remains Calm Under Questioning Regarding Fred Beauvais.

BRANDS CHARGES FALSE.

Testifies She Was Sent North by Husband for Children's Health.

(Special From Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

POUGHKEEPSIE, May 10.—Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman took the witness stand to-day for the first time in the trial of the divorce suit instituted by James A. Stillman.

She made emphatic denial of misconduct of any kind with Fred Beauvais, the Indian guide named by Mr. Stillman as the father of Baby Guy Stillman, Mrs. Stillman was calm and self-possessed throughout her examination by John E. Mack, guardian of the baby.

"When did you first meet Beauvais?" she was asked. "In 1916 when I went to the St. Maurice Fish and Game Club, on Lake Dawson, in Canada. I was sent there with the children by my husband, who was afraid to risk them to exposure to infantile paralysis infection, this disease having appeared in New York.

"We had to have a guide and I heard that Beauvais was a good one, so I engaged him. Since that time he has been, off and on, in Mr. Stillman's employ."

When she was asked about a visit to Little Lake Wyagamac, in Canada, in December, 1916, a witness having testified that she and Beauvais spent the night there, Mrs. Stillman denied this charge.

"I went there with Beauvais because I was looking over certain properties with a view to purchase, but we did not spend the night there. We went to Big Lake Wyagamac and I spent the night at a fish and game club."

Mrs. Stillman then testified to a visit of Beauvais's father and mother to her and Mr. Stillman at Lake Dawson in 1917. She said that SUH-

FRANK AUSTIN ROY ENDS LIFE BY PISTOL

Shoots Himself in Temple at No. 52 West Thirty-third Street.

The police of the West 30th Street station report that Frank Austin Roy, fifty-five, of No. 52 West 33d Street, committed suicide at his residence to-day by shooting himself in the temple.

DOCTOR'S WIFE DIES FROM COCAINE IN OPERATING CHAIR

Husband Aiding Surgeon in Removal of Tonsils When She Suddenly Collapses.

Cocaine, administered as a local anesthetic, killed Mrs. L. Pierce Clark, while her husband, a physician of No. 2 East 6th Street, was aiding the operating surgeon prior to removing her tonsils and adenoids.

Dr. and Mrs. Clark went to the office of Dr. Hampton P. Howell, in the Medical Chambers, No. 114 East 4th Street at noon. Two other physicians and a nurse were present when Dr. Howell, who was to perform the operation—a minor one—administered the cocaine while she was in the chair.

Suddenly Mrs. Clark became rigid and the physicians became alarmed when they failed to revive her. Policeman Lyman, of the East 51st Street station, was notified and he summoned Dr. Paul of Flower Hospital, who said Mrs. Clark had died of heart failure due to shock as a result of the cocaine.

Medical Examiner Norris viewed the body and said death was accidental. The police are not investigating, as there was no evidence, they said, of any suspicious circumstances.

Father of Countess Zichy Approves Her Marriage If the Eloping Girl Is Happy; Only a Child, He Says

COUNTRESS ZICHY.

Warren G. Demarest, whose daughter Charlotte was married, yesterday to Count Edward George Zichy a few hours before she was to have become the bride of George Burton, son of the late Max Bernheimer, millionaire brewer, said to-day that he wished he knew where the young couple had gone.

"I've not an idea where they are," he said at his office, No. 665 Fifth Avenue. "and I will be much indebted to any one who will tell me their whereabouts. This whole affair is a great surprise and shock to me."

"I have no objection at all to my daughter's marriage with Count Zichy, provided she is happy. What I most regret is the publicity that has come of it. It is very hard upon her. She is nothing but a child."

Before his marriage, Count Zichy was known to have lived at the Hotel Warrington, No. 161 Madison Avenue. Though the hotel management to-day denied that he was still there, it was learned that none of his baggage had been removed from the place and there was a very knowing and readily translatable smile on the face of one of the employees when a reporter suggested that the Count and his bride might be in the establishment.

At the Hotel Ambassador it was stated that Mr. Burton was no longer stopping there, though he had had an apartment up to a short time ago.

When Count Zichy and Miss Demarest went yesterday to the Marriage License Bureau to be married, they were accompanied by Philip Elliot, who was a witness for them. T. C. Waterman remembered that when Mr. Elliot was married there three or four months ago, Count Zichy was his witness. When he recalled

Miss Charlotte Demarest Ran Away With Count Same Day She Was to Wed Another.

Warren G. Demarest, whose daughter Charlotte was married, yesterday to Count Edward George Zichy a few hours before she was to have become the bride of George Burton, son of the late Max Bernheimer, millionaire brewer, said to-day that he wished he knew where the young couple had gone.

"I've not an idea where they are," he said at his office, No. 665 Fifth Avenue. "and I will be much indebted to any one who will tell me their whereabouts. This whole affair is a great surprise and shock to me."

"I have no objection at all to my daughter's marriage with Count Zichy, provided she is happy. What I most regret is the publicity that has come of it. It is very hard upon her. She is nothing but a child."

Before his marriage, Count Zichy was known to have lived at the Hotel Warrington, No. 161 Madison Avenue. Though the hotel management to-day denied that he was still there, it was learned that none of his baggage had been removed from the place and there was a very knowing and readily translatable smile on the face of one of the employees when a reporter suggested that the Count and his bride might be in the establishment.

WIFE OF JUSTICE CATCHES ALLEGED MOTOR CAR THIEF

Mrs. Kelby, in Own Auto With Husband, Overhauls Machine Man Claimed.

PICKS UP COP IN CHASE.

Enjoys Thrills After She's Convinced One Who Begged Aid Wasn't Robber.

(Special From Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

When Nicholas Sanzo, No. 841 Third Avenue, Brooklyn, ran out and climbed upon the running board of the Cadillac car driven by Mrs. Charles H. Kelby, wife of Justice Kelby of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, last night, at 30th Street and Fourth Avenue, Brooklyn, Mrs. Kelby feared for an instant that he was a gunman.

Sanzo had run beside the car and held up his hand. Mrs. Kelby stopped and he begged her to follow a car ahead of her which he pointed out and said had been stolen from him.

Mrs. Kelby questioned Sanzo and, convinced he was not fleeing from a policeman, took him inside. Justice Kelby was on the rear seat.

As they drove, keeping the other car in sight, Sanzo, who is a contractor of No. 841 Third Avenue, explained that a week ago he had left his car before a Coney Island restaurant and came out to find it gone.

Last night, watching cars as they passed, he saw it.

After a ride of a half dozen blocks Mrs. Kelby and Sanzo picked up Patrolman Robert Boole of the Fifth Street Station. The man in the car ahead had increased his lead, but apparently was unaware that he was being followed. With the policeman on the running board, Mrs. Kelby stepped on the gas and came abreast of the car ahead. Then she passed it, forced it into the curb and made the driver stop at Tenth Street. Boole placed the man under arrest.

After the arrest Justice Kelby asked if there was any further need for himself or his car, and was informed there was not, but was told he might be needed as a witness, and the policeman would like his name.

Justice Kelby then gave his name and address and said he could be found in his chambers to-day if wanted.

When the policeman and Sanzo found they had been chasing the stolen car in the automobile of a Justice of the Appellate Division, both his wife as the chicken.

Naudain's fingerprints revealed that he had been out of the penitentiary only two months after serving a sentence for burglary at 121st Street and Manhattan Avenue and before that served six months in the workhouse for petty larceny.

Mrs. Brown at Police Headquarters, positively identified the prisoner as the man who had bent over her bed to take her ring only a few hours before. Later, when Naudain was arraigned in the West Side Court on an affidavit charging burglary, he was positively identified by Mr. Feist. The police will have other victims of similar robberies in the past two weeks attempt to identify the prisoner to-day. Naudain was held without bail for examination Friday.

Mrs. Kelby, at her home in President Street, to-day said: "Really there is nothing to it, except my fear first of the intentions of the man who stopped our car. But his sincerity soon convinced me. However, I did get a chance for once to drive as rapidly as I wished. When the policeman got on the running board he told me to drive fast and I did. I felt I was all right legally in doing so. If the man was a thief, I am glad I was able to overhaul him."

BABE RUTH LEAVES HOSPITAL. Babe Ruth left St. Vincent's Hospital shortly after noon to-day. He had been there for the past few days following an operation for removal of his tonsils and adenoids. Mrs. Ruth, his wife is still a patient at the hospital. She expects to be out by May 20.

Babe said he felt fine as he left the hospital.

Dr. Clark is one of the leading news specialists in this country.

ERRATIC MOTHER KILLS SELF AND 3 DAUGHTERS WITH GAS; LEFT NOTE FROM 'RUBAIYAT'

NEGRO BURGLAR CLIMBS LIKE A FLY TO SECURE BOOTY

Enters Home of Frederick Brown and Robs His Wife of $3,000 Ring.

A Negro, who scales the front of buildings in real "human-fly" fashion, just walked right through the fourth floor window of Frederick Brown's apartment, No. 285 Central Park West, helped himself to what he wanted, and then walked out of the window and down the front of the building.

A half hour before, it is charged, he did the same trick in entering the apartment of Seymour Peist, No. 808 West End Avenue, and leaving via the window with $75 taken from his victim's wallet.

Mr. Brown, who is a real estate operator at No. 565 Fifth Avenue, his wife, Rose, and a maid were asleep at 4 o'clock this morning when Mrs. Brown was awakened by a flashing light. She aroused her husband, who said to a Negro walking through the bedroom: "Go on, take anything you want, but don't hurt any of us."

"All right, keep quiet and nothing'll happen to you," he replied. The Negro took $60 from Mr. Brown's wallet and a gold pen. He then approached the bed, but Mrs. Brown anticipated him and took a ring valued at $3,000 from her finger and handed it to the intruder. With a final warning to be quiet he stepped out of the window into the darkness and escaped, although Mr. Brown immediately ran down the stairs, giving the alarm.

An hour later Detectives Davis and Donnelly of the West 100th Street Station halted a Negro at 91st Street and Central Park West, two blocks away, because he was carrying a bundle. The prisoner gave his name as George W. Naudain, twenty-four, No. 100 West 86th Street. The bundle proved to be a chicken.

Naudain's fingerprints revealed that he had been out of the penitentiary only two months after serving a sentence for burglary at 121st Street and Manhattan Avenue and before that served six months in the workhouse for petty larceny.

Mrs. Brown at Police Headquarters, positively identified the prisoner as the man who had bent over her bed to take her ring only a few hours before. Later, when Naudain was arraigned in the West Side Court on an affidavit charging burglary, he was positively identified by Mr. Feist. The police will have other victims of similar robberies in the past two weeks attempt to identify the prisoner to-day. Naudain was held without bail for examination Friday.

Mrs. Kelby, at her home in President Street, to-day said: "Really there is nothing to it, except my fear first of the intentions of the man who stopped our car. But his sincerity soon convinced me. However, I did get a chance for once to drive as rapidly as I wished. When the policeman got on the running board he told me to drive fast and I did. I felt I was all right legally in doing so. If the man was a thief, I am glad I was able to overhaul him."

BABE RUTH LEAVES HOSPITAL. Babe Ruth left St. Vincent's Hospital shortly after noon to-day. He had been there for the past few days following an operation for removal of his tonsils and adenoids. Mrs. Ruth, his wife is still a patient at the hospital. She expects to be out by May 20.

Babe said he felt fine as he left the hospital.

Dr. Clark is one of the leading news specialists in this country.

Mrs. Buzby, Wife of Vice President of Lubricating Company, Made Elaborate Arrangements for Tragedy.

Children in Her Bed—Husband Prostrated, Says She Had Been Acting Queerly for More Than a Year.

ATLANTIC CITY, May 10.—Mrs. Edith Miller Buzby, wife of William S. Buzby, Vice President of the Keystone Lubricating Company, of Philadelphia, and her three daughters were found dead in Mrs. Buzby's home at Ventnor, near here this morning from illuminating gas.

Notes found in the house indicated that Mrs. Buzby had deliberately planned her death and that of her three daughters.

The three daughters, all found with their mother in her bed, were Constance, aged eleven; Edwinnia, nine, and Mary, six.

A postscript to a note left for her husband ended with the following quotation from the Rubaiyat: "What if the soul could cast the earth aside.

And naked on the air of heaven ride: Were't not a shame, were't not a shame indeed.

In this elay carcass longer to abide? The bodies were discovered shortly after 6.30 o'clock this morning by Charlotte Bennett, a maid who has been in the employ of the Buzby family for several years. Mrs. Buzby was lying across the foot of the bed, almost completely covering the body of the youngest child, Mary, and in such a position as if in prayer or to smother the little girl if the gas had not been effective. The body of Edwinnia was lying in the bed with head to the head of the bed, while that of Constance, the oldest of the three children, was hanging over the side as though she had made an attempt to crawl from the bed.

All windows were closed and the cocks were turned on full from the chandelier and from a gas heater.

The maid said that she reached the house last night about 11 o'clock and found Mrs. Buzby still up and dressed. Mrs. Buzby did not speak to her as she entered, "but this silence was not unusual," the maid said. A little later she heard Mrs. Buzby making preparations to retire. She did not know when the children came into their mother's room, where it was most unusual for them to sleep.

Dr. Lewis R. Souder, county physician, declared that the gas had been turned on shortly after midnight, apparently.

The note for her husband was addressed to "Mr. W. Buzby," and was without other salutation. It read: "Please do not let people look at me and please put me away in what I have on. I beg of you.

"Always the same. "E."

"P. S.—Regret that my last thought did have to be a material one, for I'm not really a material person, am I? We will be better off, and I can only say—"

Here followed the quotation from the Rubaiyat. A note was found addressed to the maid. It read:

"Charlotte: Please mail and please return my books to the library. You may have my membership. You have been better to me than any person on earth. You will be happy. I am sure. You know I am not afraid, don't

Charlotte: Please mail and please return my books to the library. You may have my membership. You have been better to me than any person on earth. You will be happy. I am sure. You know I am not afraid, don't