

confirmation from him of this en-... (Signed) H. M. DAUGHERTY

"Dear Sir: In further relation to the employment of Hon. H. M. Daugherty and myself, permit me to

"I am to pay Hon. H. M. Daugherty a retainer of five thousand ($5,000) dollars and the actual expenses incurred by him in looking after your matters. Expenses not to exceed $1,000.

"I shall pay such expenses as I may incur in connection therewith.

"You are to direct counsel heretofore employed to withdraw your appeal in the habeas corpus proceedings heretofore instituted.

"We are to receive in the event we secure an unconditional pardon or commutation for you the sum of $25,000, which is to be in full compensation for services rendered in connection with your application for pardon.

"We are to receive 25 per cent of whatever sums we may be able to recover by compromise or litigation in the matter of the Metropolitan Steamship Company, said transaction being fully described in your letter addressed to me, dated Aug. 2, 1921. If we find it necessary in the prosecution of these matters to have associated with another counsel, we are to select such counsel, subject, of course, to your approval, and they are to be provided for out of our compensation.

"In all matters herein undertaken in your behalf, we are to have full and absolute control and you are to accept implicitly our counsel and advice.

"If the above and foregoing terms are satisfactory you will signify your acceptance thereof in writing.

"I remain, yours very truly, THOMAS B. FELDER.

"P. S. You can terminate this contract at any time after Jan. 1, 1922, by giving ten days notice in writing.

"Thomas B. Felder: I accept the above, this the fourth day of August, 1921.

"C. W. MORSE: If Daugherty wasn't joking when he said he would go into court himself if necessary to prosecute, was wretcher," said Caraway in concluding his speech.

"I want him to make good his threat. I promise him if he doesn't do it, another document he won't have will be printed in the Congressional Record right away.

"I'll give him a little time, but he will be threatening each other now, and I'll make good on my threats, but he won't."

"After referring to charges recently made against Daugherty by Maj. H. L. Scaife, war fraud investigator, who was dismissed by the Department of Justice because he gave certain information to Representative Woodruff, Senator Caraway said:

"I say there is but one decent thing for the Attorney General to do, and that is to resign. He ought not longer to embarrass the Administration by continuing in office.

"The Attorney General desires to make an explanation he may do so, if he doesn't there will be other things coming along right regularly now—signed documents and other things."

CHARGE DAUGHERTY WITH TAKING HAND IN MAGNETO CASE

Allegation of H. L. Scaife, Discharged Employee, Read in Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—After reading in the Senate a letter from H. L. Scaife, a former employee of the Department of Justice, alleging that Col. Thomas B. Felder of New York and Georgia and a close friend of Attorney General Daugherty, had offered to retain him as assistant counsel in behalf of the Bosch Magneto Company in its litigation with the Government, Senator Caraway of Arkansas today called on the Attorney General to resign "in the name of decency."

"He ought to resign," said Caraway. "He ought not to embarrass the Administration by longer continuing in office, because he has not denied this allegation that he was a party to the attempt to hire the Government's witnesses away from it in the Bosch Magneto case."

Senator Caraway explained that Scaife, who was offered a retainer to join the defense of the Bosch Magneto interests, had made the investigation and was the Government's principal reliance in those proceedings.

The letter inserted in the Congressional Record from Scaife, the former Department of Justice agent, discharged by Daugherty for "disloyalty," details a conference he had with Col. Felder at the latter's request in a Washington hotel, when he was offered the retainer on behalf of the Bosch Magneto people, Felder having become counsel of this company.

"Before leaving his room in the Shoreham Hotel, Col. Felder told me that he was going to spend the night with the Attorney General at the Wardman Park Hotel and that they would talk about the matter until 2 o'clock that night," Scaife asserted.

"When we parted, Col. Felder took a taxi for the Wardman Park Hotel and asked me to join him that far out on my way home, but I declined."

Caraway pointed out the incongruity of the Government's chief law officer being intimately associated with the counsel for a concern with which the Government is in litigation with several million dollars at stake.

GOV. MILLER HINTS IN SPEECH THAT HE WILL RUN AGAIN

Enthusiastic Republicans Urge Him to Make the Fight.

CONFIDENT HE WILL. Executive Says Honesty in City Administration Will Bring 5-Cent Fare.

Gov. Miller to-day was withholding the formal words, "I am a candidate," though a tacit acceptance was seen in his address at Town Hall last night of the renomination informally tendered by the New York City Republicans. It was so construed by all who heard him.

There was great enthusiasm during the meeting, but the big demonstration came at the end of his address when he vociferously demanded that he lead his party in another battle for control of the State Government. He had spoken for more than an hour, laying down a platform of "performance versus promises" and "honesty versus dishonesty."

The meeting followed a dinner of the County Committee at the National Republican Club, where the Governor was guest of honor, and State and county leaders agreed that he must be a candidate. The Town Hall was filled with members of the Republican organization and their friends, and after the Governor had concluded his address President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia said:

"There are those among us whom we justly call demagogues, who constantly pander down to ignorance, envy, malice and all uncharitable whims; and there are those among us whom we gladly call statesmen, who appeal up to intelligence, to human sympathy and to people of understanding."

"If it is to be that the Providence which rules our destinies is shortly to ask the people of this State to enter upon a contest between a statesman and a demagogue, I for one welcome the call to battle. The bugle that summons us to such a contest will precede by only a few weeks the shouts of a people's victory."

There was his formula for getting back the 5-cent fare, which he said had been changed by a probing of inaction into two or three 5-cent fares except for those on the trunk lines.

"You can do it by proceeding honestly and in accordance with sound business principles. You can do it by substituting for the policy of destruction which has disintegrated your existing systems a policy of construction."

"You can do it only by substituting a policy of honesty for a policy of dishonesty. Because, let me say, it is no more honest to delude the people into the notion that you can get something for nothing than it is to compel people to pay fares for service which they do not get, or to pay fares to pay dividends upon capital not invested in their service."

"It is appalling when you stop to think what will happen in this town if some relief is not obtained. So it seemed to me that was a situation which did not admit of temporizing, and that it was necessary to substitute action for talk."

One by one, the Governor went over what he considers the chief accomplishments of his Administration as to economy, he said:

"The taxes of the City of New York increased from $110,000,000 to $139,000,000. That is for the city budget. The State taxes borne by the city decreased from $22,000,000 to $14,400,000, and the decrease per capita was from $3.83 to $2.47.

"If the taxpayers and rent-payers have not felt the reduction, it is due to the fact that the City Administration absorbed the saving."

Elizabeth, N. J., Man Found Dead by Fellow Boarders.

John Larkin, forty-three, who boarded with John P. Monahan at No. 128 Fulton Street, Elizabeth, N. J., fell into the bathtub early today and was drowned. When found, after the door had been broken down, Larkin was leaning over the tub with his head under the six inches of water.

Larkin, who was employed at a New Jersey dock pier in Elizabeth, is survived by a brother, Peter Larkin of No. 108 Nichols Avenue, Brooklyn.

Grand Jury May Investigate Illegal Searches.

Only seventeen indictments out of fifty-four cases of alleged violations of the Mullan-Gage law by the Brooklyn Grand Jury this week were returned. The other thirty-seven being dismissed. The cases were presented yesterday by Assistant District Attorney Marshall Snyder.

There was a rumor in the Brooklyn County Court House to-day that the Grand Jury would investigate the charges for liquor without search warrants and in places where there has been no evidence of violations. Justice Mot of General Sessions, Manhattan, last week handed down a decision against this practice, and Police Commissioner Enright issued orders based on it. It is alleged, however, that police in Brooklyn continue to make general searches.

SINN FEIN HEROINE IS WELCOMED HERE

Countess Markievicz Escorted to Hotel by Women's Committee.

Countess Markievicz, the militant Irish leader, reached this city yesterday afternoon from Cincinnati, the last stop on a tour of the West in which she has been making addresses in support of the Irish Republic and seeking to raise funds.

The Countess was escorted to the Hotel Commodore by a Reception Committee headed by Mrs. Blanche McPherson.

Countess Markievicz will be given a public reception and welcome tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden, and all the Irish in New York are expected to turn out to welcome her. Some diplomats aver that her husband, who has fought Ireland's cause even to the point of being sentenced to death, and of having spent three years divided between Kilmalham and Mountjoy Prisons, Former Supreme Court Judge John W. Goff will preside.

For years the Monroe Doctrine has been variously interpreted and developed that America's designs in Latin America have not been viewed as altruistic. Chile in a fear that the United States was adopting a big brother attitude for selfish reasons, Bolivia too, is interested. She wants an outlet to the sea through the very territories which are the basis of the quarrel. Some diplomats aver it would be of more use to Bolivia than either Chile or Peru. There is some reason to believe that national pride is much more involved in this matter than the intrinsic value of the provinces.

ACQUIT TEACHER OF GIRL'S ACCUSATION

Instructor Was Alleged to Have Made Improper Remarks to Pupils.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., May 20.—The Board of Education of Marlboro Township to-day acquitted Alvin W. White, teacher in a grade school at Morganville, of charges preferred by a parent of nine girl pupils. The alleged improper remarks by the teacher relative to girl pupils rolling down their hose were repeated to her parents by a girl expelled last month. The episode took place in January, but nothing was said of it until the expulsion of the pupil.

White also was alleged to have given pupils a book to read, entitled "Man's Mission on Earth," to which parents objected.

AUTOMOBILISTS, FLEEING POLICE BULLETS, KILL PEDESTRIAN

Pair Arrested at Revolver Point After Wild Chase for Several Blocks.

Joseph Dacey, forty, a private detective of No. 629 East 85th Street, was struck and mortally injured this morning by an automobile at First Avenue and 85th Street, which a policeman on a motorcycle was chasing.

The car, making fifty miles an hour, did not slow down. Dacey was thrown twenty feet across the roadway. He died in Bellevue Hospital three hours later. The machine was halted after the pursuing policeman fired upon it.

An automobile which was being pursued by a motorcycle policeman in First Avenue early to-day struck and mortally injured an unidentified man at 85th Street. He died in Bellevue Hospital three hours later without regaining consciousness. The car, which was making 50 miles an hour, had flung him 20 feet across the roadway, but its driver made no attempt to stop until the policeman opened fire on him.

Patrolman Patrick J. Lynch of Motorcycle Squad 1, was at 95th Street and First Avenue when a high-powered automobile came along at great speed. He shouted to the two men in it to stop, but they paid no heed.

Lynch gave chase and after the automobile had hit the man the policeman fired three shots at it. At 85th Street he caught up with the car and stopped it.

Ordering the occupants to hold up their hands, Lynch made them get out of the automobile and stand in a nearby doorway until other policemen arrived. The men were then taken to the East 104th Street station and locked up on a charge of felonious assault. They described themselves as James Moran, twenty years old, a boxer, of No. 315 East 70th Street, and Michael Holbrook, twenty-three, a plumber, of No. 401 East 135th Street.

The woman who has fought Ireland's cause even to the point of being sentenced to death, and of having spent three years divided between Kilmalham and Mountjoy Prisons, Former Supreme Court Judge John W. Goff will preside.

CHILE-PERU TANGLE TESTS U. S. STAND

American Altruism Taxed in Boundary Dispute Under Mediation.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—(Copyright)—America's resourcefulness as a mediator is being taxed to the utmost in the Tacna-Arica bounding dispute between Chile and Peru. Theoretically, Chile and Peru are negotiating directly, the United States is merely offering the "atmosphere and room will," but this is merely the preliminary.

American good faith, American fairness and judicial ability are to be tested. There is prestige and good favor awaiting the United States if it settles the conflict, but there is ill-will awaiting it if America makes a mis-step.

For years the Monroe Doctrine has been variously interpreted and developed that America's designs in Latin America have not been viewed as altruistic. Chile in a fear that the United States was adopting a big brother attitude for selfish reasons, Bolivia too, is interested. She wants an outlet to the sea through the very territories which are the basis of the quarrel. Some diplomats aver it would be of more use to Bolivia than either Chile or Peru. There is some reason to believe that national pride is much more involved in this matter than the intrinsic value of the provinces.

Menowville Dr. Somers of Volunteer Hospital took care of Ernest Ornsky of No. 94 Third Avenue, restaurant dishwasher, who said Tolmar tried to cut off his hand with a hatchet. "It hit me because he called me a fool for not listening to his scree talk," Tolmar said.

DEADLY LANCE-HEAD VIPER KILLED IN BANANA CAR

NORWICH, Conn., May 20.—Upon opening the door of a freight car containing bananas to-day one of the employees of the J. C. Worth Company was confronted by a coiled snake, about three and one-half feet long.

The employee had a hammer in his hand and finally killed it. It was a lance-head viper, one of the most deadly snakes of the tropics, and had the snake struck the man he would have never survived.

TO REORGANIZE N. Y. POST OFFICE, ELIMINATE CROOKS

Bartlett Leaves Washington to Clean Up Situation Revealed by Arrests.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Acting Postmaster General Bartlett left Washington to-day for New York with the announced purpose of thoroughly reorganizing the New York City Post Office in consequence of the arrest yesterday of several postal employees, said to have been involved in numerous schemes for looting the mails.

Before his departure, Mr. Bartlett said that the department had in mind "the entire elimination from the service of any employees found to be connected in any way with this band of crooks and scoundrels, who have been operating principally through the Registry Division of the New York City Post Office."

The Treasury Department is highly pleased over the clearing up in this case, which involved the loss of $1,300,000 in cancelled Liberty Bonds, being forwarded by the Federal Reserve Bank at New York to the Secretary of the Treasury at Washington. It was brought out in the arrests made, after finding out that these bonds were cancelled, they had been burned by the thieves.

Patrolmen Musgrave and Connetton, of East 37th Street Station, who were nearby, ran to the house. Connetton went to the yard in the rear while Musgrave ran up the stairs to the Quinn apartment. When Connetton reached the yard he saw the form of a man on the second floor fire-escape and drew his revolver. Meanwhile Musgrave had started through the Quinn apartment with a revolver. When Flynn saw the latter he leaped from the fire-escape, almost landing in Connetton's arms.

P. O. BOND ARRESTS REVEAL SEVERAL OTHER THEFTS

More Employees Involved and 400 to 500 Lose Jobs Others Suspected.

While the Post Office inspectors believe that many recent thefts from the registered mail division have been cleared up by the arrest of the seven men, who are charged with stealing $1,477,580 in Liberty Bonds from the registry division and also with a plot to hold up the City Hall station at the pistol point this afternoon, they say that some other thefts are as yet unsolved. And that other arrests are to follow.

Men who have been in the employ of the Post Office Department and men still in it are under the surveillance of inspectors, who are bending all their energies now to discovering the perpetrators of the Leonard Street robbery, October 4. A mail truck was held up at that time and $2,000,000 stolen. Investigation of this crime has resulted in the dismissal of between 400 and 500 postal employees of the New York district. Fingerprints showed that a number of these had prison records. The seven men under arrest are not now suspected of having had a hand in this robbery.

SARATOGA OUT OF IT AS CONVENTION CITY

Hotels Will Not Remain Open for the Gatherings.

Saratoga probably will not be the convention city this year as under the present law conventions cannot be held earlier than September 27, almost a month after the hotels there have closed. Democrats and Republicans have been trying to negotiate for the United States Hotel at Saratoga to remain open until Oct. 1, but it is understood that no arrangement can be made. Republicans may choose Buffalo, Albany or Rochester, and the Democrats have an option on the Arena in Syracuse.

Apparently both conventions will be held the same days this year.

J. Rutledge, Dublin, Ireland. Rutledge is an anti-irish member of the Daily Freeman and an active opponent of the Provisional Government.

BRITISH PREMIER SEES END TO WAR IN GENOA PARLEY

As Conference Ends He Warns Russia to Reverse Attitude at the Hague.

GENOA, May 20.—That lasting peace has come to Europe as the result of the conference just ended here is the belief expressed by Lloyd George.

These were among the high points of his valedictory at the closing of the meeting: "We have signed a pact of peace. It is a provisional one. Is it for months? Ah, no; it is more than that. We have decided upon a peace among warring nations, and once you establish it nations are not going back on it."

"We have decided to give Peace a trial upon our hearthstones and when she has been there for several months we will not turn her out again."

"The psychological effect upon the peoples of the world will be electrical. 'The thrill of peace has gone through the veins of Europe and you are not going to get nation lifting up hand against nation again. 'There has been nothing more striking at this conference than the deep and passionate desire not to have rupture, not to have quarrel, but to live in peace and amity, all together. Believe me, Peace is recovering her gentle ways over the hearts of men, and in this conference, by this pact we have adopted we have paid homage to her sceptre."

Referring to Russia he said: "Europe is more and more filling up the gaps left by Russia. Russia needs more and more of the help which the world can give and is anxious to give. Either from pride or prejudice, we have not in the course of these discussions referred to this fact. Even at this moment there are millions of people in Russia standing on the brink of famine and pestilence who may perish without help. If Russia needs help she can get it. But will this Russian delegation allow me in a friendly spirit to say one word?"

"If Russia is to get help Russia must not outrage the sentiments—it they like let them call them prejudices—of the world. There is real sympathy for her condition. 'At Cannes we threw out the life-line and we have not yet drawn it in, as I thought we might. Neither has it been snapped; neither has it been let go. It is still there. We would like to draw all the distressed, all the hungry, all the suffering in the East of Europe back to their homes with all the health that the accumulated energy and skill of other lands can give them."

PINCHOT TO ENLIST CAMPAIGN AIDS

Will Not Depend on Machine, but Seek Representative Men and Women.

Before returning to his home in Millford to-day, Gifford Pinchot, Republican nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania, declared he was planning as his first campaign move to seek out representative men and women in the State to assist him in preparing a financial programme. Pinchot paid New York a hurried visit on a legal matter.

"I am going to take a week off now before I start my campaign," he said. "My first step will be to form committees of citizens of both sexes to assist me in preparing a financial programme. I am going to spend some years seeking out representative men and women of Pennsylvania for the purpose."
