

WOMEN ARGUE, $200,000 HOTEL DRIVE IN PERIL

Trouble Starts Over $17,000 Collected From Clubs for New Building.

Controversy between two women has threatened to make a failure of the drive for $200,000 to build a new City Federation Hotel on the site of the present structure at No. 452 West 23d Street.

The hotel has been operated by the City Federation of Women's Clubs for thirteen years and much of the criticism of the way it is conducted is by Brooklyn women.

The trouble started over $17,000 collected from women's clubs throughout the city. It was put in a bank to be used toward erecting a new building. Instead of being spent in improvements on the present structure.

Mrs. Richard M. Chapman, President of the City Federation, admitted yesterday that the present building was inadequate, but said she thought $17,000 could be used to better advantage by starting off the drive for $200,000.

Miss Amy Wren, Brooklyn lawyer and President of the Women's Press Club, declares the $17,000 should have been used to paint and paper the present building, install electricity and buy carpets.

"There is absolutely no excuse for the house being in its present condition or the girls being compelled to live in such a place," she said.

Scandal in Toyland! Mother, 5, Permits Adopted Babes to Wed

Hardhearted Ellis Island Official Insisted Toyland Quota Was Exhausted, but Marriage Circumvented Law.

Hasty marriage of a foreign flapper, just landed in America and wedded over a year, set the scandalous tongues of nursery society wagging today in shocking violation of all the conventions.

The wedding of Hans and Elizabeth Golly, both adopted in infancy by Miss Margaret Golly, aged five, of Far Rockaway.

No license was obtained and the individual who performed the ceremony is neither clergyman nor Magistrate. Annulment is expected. The young couple is in the loving care but also under the vigilant surveillance of their mother in the home of her father, Henry Golly.

With her mother and Hans and Elizabeth, Miss Golly arrived aboard the steamer Seideltz from Germany, and the party waited at Ellis Island for the arrival of Henry Golly. In their inspection of the immigration terminal they attracted much attention. Miss Margaret insisted on pushing Hans and Elizabeth about in a baby carriage. The newweds are very large for their years and both distinctly of the doll type.

An official speaking in German, the familiar language of Miss Golly, expressed doubts about admission of the youngsters.

"The Toyland quota is completely exhausted," he soberly announced. "The young man might get in if you will guarantee he is not bolshevist. His curly hair looks very anarchistic."

Miss Margaret warmly protested that Hans was a very good boy, indeed.

"Why not let them marry? Then both would be admitted," the immigration officer went on.

"Himmel, Mama," the shocked Margaret said, "Elizabeth is much too young to marry Hans." She pushed the baby carriage and it bumped into the official kissing post.

DEERS MYSTERIOUSLY SLAIN ON LONG ISLAND; CITY HUNTERS BLAMED

(Special to The Evening World.) YAPHANK, L. I., Dec. 18.—There has been an increase in the numbers of deer observed here this season, and while it is unlawful to shoot them on the island, it is known that several have been bagged. A deer was shot a few weeks ago at Middle Island, and the Conservation Commission notified. It was shot with heavy rifle.

The carcass was found under a bluff on the Long Island Sound shore, about six miles from here. It is believed the gunners intended to carry it away by boat. It was a buck, and the head and neck had been separated from the body. Local gunners lay the blame on hunters from the city.

DIAMOND RING RESEMBLES A SOLITAIRE $1 WEEKLY

All "Lost and Found" articles advertised in The World or reported to "Lost and Found Bureau," Room 303, World Building, will be listed for thirty days. Those not seen at any of The World's Offices, "Lost and Found" advertisements may be left at any of The World's Advertising Agencies, or can be delivered directly to The World, 200 West 42d St., New York, or Brooklyn Office, 210 Main.

$35,000 VALUE SET ON FIREMAN'S LIFE DISPLEASES WIDOW

Jury Fixed $55,000 Damages, but Appellate Division Reduces Verdict.

The Appellate Division believes the life of a fireman, father of four children, is worth $35,000. The fireman's widow disagrees with the Appellate Division.

"No, I'm not going to fight the case any more," said Mrs. Delia Dhuy of No. 1583 Sterling Street, Brooklyn, today. "I am poor and cannot fight rich corporations. I'll keep my word to my husband when he was dying and bring up the children as well as I can. But I think it's an injustice."

Her husband, Arthur L. Dhuy, was killed fourteen months ago when a St. John's Place surface car on which he was riding was in collision with a motor truck of the American Express Company. A Supreme Court jury gave the widow a verdict of $55,000 against the railroad and express company, but the Appellate Division has reduced it to $35,000.

Mrs. Dhuy's battle in the courts has been fought by Attorney William S. Butler of No. 190 Montague Street, Brooklyn. She will accept the $35,000 verdict.

Celebrants Lead Dance On Golden Wedding Day

Similar Event Culminates in Banquet; Diamond Anniversary Attracts Fifty-four Descendants.

When Hyman Becker and Ida Davidson were married on Dec. 16, 1872, they were so entranced by the glamour of the event they forgot to make plans for a terpsichorean celebration fifty years hence. They danced at the wedding and golden weddings were farthest from their thoughts. But Saturday, Dec. 16, 1922, Mr. and Mrs. Becker were the first couple on the floor when dancing began at their fiftieth wedding anniversary celebration in Sactiany Hall, No. 229 Lenox Avenue.

While Mr. and Mrs. Becker were dancing their way through their golden jubilee, a similar event was being honored in Greenwich Village by Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Lachman at No. 554 Hudson Street, the very house in which they were married half a century before. And up in the Bronx a diamond jubilee wedding anniversary, celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Malice Fisher of No. 817 East 192d Street, was making undisputed bid for the grand prize of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were married in Odessa, Russia, in 1847. Mr. Fisher is ninety-four years old and his wife is ninety-six. Fifty-four descendants, including thirty-three grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren, participated in the diamond jubilee celebration. A wedding ceremony was performed in Martinique Hall Saturday night and the pledges three-quarters of a century old were renewed.

About 250 friends and relatives attended Mr. and Mrs. Becker's golden wedding feast at Savigny Hall. At the same time 200 children at the Day Nursery and Orphan Asylum at No. 35 Montgomery Street were given a dinner by Dr. Barnett L. Becker in honor of his parents' wedding anniversary. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. H. Millersky, D.D., and Boris Hevowitz, who acted as best man in Wilna, Lithuania, fifty years ago, again acted in that capacity. Mr. and Mrs. Becker were given $5,000 in gold.

In the blue and gold room of the Hotel McAlpin last night Mr. and Mrs. Lachman terminated the day's festivities with a wedding ceremony conducted by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise and a banquet.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

William Purdy of No. 248 West 113th Street, Manhattan, operator of the taxicab which ran down and killed the Rev. Dr. David Willis, pastor of the Astoria Presbyterian Church, the night of Nov. 22, has been held in $5,000 bail for the action of the Grand Jury by Magistrate Thomas F. Doyle, in the Long Island City Court, on a charge of homicide. The case was held over for a decision.

ASTORIA MINISTER HAD COLLECTED $75,000 FOR NEW CHURCH.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

$300,000 JERSEY SCHOOL IS BURNED; FIREBUG BLAMED

Belleville Structure, That Accommodated 1,100 Pupils, Destroyed by Incendiary.

The Silver Lake School, officially Public School No. 4, at Belleville, N. J., was destroyed by fire yesterday with a loss of $300,000. School authorities said that it would cost $500,000 under present conditions to replace the building. The fire was believed to have been of incendiary origin.

Belleville firemen were called before dawn to a fire in a one-story frame building in Bloomfield Avenue, at Belmont Avenue, Belleville, containing three stories. Damage to the building, owned by John E. Caprio, was estimated at $20,000. Returning, the firemen were called to the school fire.

The flames had made such headway in the school building when the firemen arrived that they at once called the Newark and Bloomfield departments.

The school was built in 1902, and has had three additions, the latest being completed this year. It had thirty class rooms, accommodating 1,100 pupils, with thirty teachers, and an assembly room on the third floor.

The fire started in a teacher's desk on the second floor, and instead of spreading laterally, as would be expected, it shot up to the ceiling, suggesting a chemical. John Hunt, the janitor, said he made a tour of the building at 7:30 P. M. Saturday, and found everything all right. The fire was discovered by John Ungaro, a watchman at the plant of the Edison Chemical Company, in Belmont Avenue, near by.

Three firemen were overcome by smoke but quickly revived. They were John J. McCoy of Chemical Company No. 1, Belleville, and William A. Cullen and James H. McCormick of the Valley Hose Company of Belleville.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

THE REV. WILLIS was killed while on his way to make a visit. He laid in St. John's Hospital for several hours before he was identified by his son, David Willis Jr., a lawyer, of Manhattan. Just before his death the clergyman was instrumental in raising nearly $75,000 toward a fund for the erection of a new church in Astoria. This church is to be opened within a month.

"MILLION DOLLAR CLUB" FACES DRINK INQUIRY

Alph C. Greene, United States Attorney, will begin today in Brooklyn an investigation of the charge that a

"club," given the name of the "Million Dollar Club" by gossip, has been operating in the vicinity of the Federal Building for the purpose of frustrating the enforcement of the Prohibition law. It is understood that subpoenas calling a number of persons suspected of having knowledge of the "club" before the Grand Jury have been issued.

OHIO-TUEC
ELECTRIC CLEANER

THE GIFT SUPREME OHIO-TUEC

It Not Only Sweeps It Cleans

Only 17c a Day Pays for It

The Quality Electric Cleaner

Make the OHIO-TUEC your standard of comparison—THERE IS NONE BETTER

Phone Bryant 5295 or Mail attached coupon NOW OHIO ELECTRIC CO., INC., 145 W. 45th St., N. Y. C.

OHIO ELECTRIC CO., INC., 145 West 45th St., N. Y. C. Please send me, without any obligation, details of your easy payments. Name Address

GENUINE DIAMONDS AT $68 PER CT.

Diamonds make the best Christmas gifts. The greatest diamond values ever found are in display in our store during our special Christmas sale, continuing today and tomorrow. We are direct importers of diamonds, getting our stones from the diamond cutting mills in Europe thru our European office at 72 Rue Jourd'ns, Antwerp. These diamonds are brilliant blue-white, cut in the American improved fashion of cutting with a wider spread, giving the appearance of greater light. They are set in men's or ladies' 14 K. solid gold rings. We are selling them at $58.00 per carat, which is really less than wholesale prices. Importer's price. You can purchase one of these diamonds upon the distinct understanding that every penny you paid will be returned if your own jeweler can duplicate it for a penny less than double our price. We do not believe you can match them under $38.00 per carat.

AND OTHER DIAMOND BARGAINS FROM $5 to $5000

We have been selling brilliant blue-white diamonds for the past 32 years, and our wonderful values are now reaching their peak. When you get a chance to buy blue-white diamonds at such a big saving in price you ought to take advantage of the sale before it is too late. We have expert diamond salesmen to wait on you and explain anything you wish to know about diamonds. Just use your own judgment and be convinced that you are getting the best possible value before laying out your money. Thousands of our customers are on display at greatly reduced prices. They range in price from $5.00 to $5,000.00.

Not a single diamond can be exchanged at the full purchase price any time within two years. OPEN UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK P. M.

B. GUTTER & SONS 170 NASSAU ST., N. Y. CITY

She Found A Pleasant Way To Reduce Her Fat

She did not have to go to the trouble of diet or exercise. She found a better way, which acted on the digestive organs to turn food into muscle, bone and sinew instead of fat.

She used Marmola Prescription Tablets, which are made from the famous Marmola prescription. They aid the digestive system to obtain the full nutriment of food. They will allow you to eat many kinds of food without the necessity of dieting or exercising.

Thousands have found that Marmola Prescription Tablets give complete relief from obesity. They aid when the accumulated fat is checked, reduction to normal, healthy weight soon follows.

All good drug stores the world over sell Marmola Prescription Tablets at one dollar a box. Ask your druggist for them, or order direct and they will be sent in plain wrapper, postpaid.

MARMOLA COMPANY 225 Garfield Bldg., Detroit, Mich.

Teeth Without Plates I Save Decayed Teeth. Tighten Loose Teeth. Treat Discolored Gums. Badly Decayed Teeth and Roots Carefully Extracted. Teeth Thoroughly Cleaned.

SETS OF TEETH Gold and Porcelain Crowns, Bridge-work, Fillings and Inlays of Gold, Silver and Porcelain. Made at Reasonable Prices. BROKEN PLATES REPAIRED WHILE YOU WAIT

DR. BLOOM

103 E. 125th St., cor. Park Av. (Over Loft's Candy Store). 740 Lexington Av., cor. 59th St. (Over Loretz's Drug Store). 189 E. 34th St., cor. 3d Av.

HOURS: Daily 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. Thurs. and Thurs. 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. Sunday 9 A. M. to 1 P. M.

For Colds or Influenza and as a Preventive

Take Laxative

BROMO QUININE Tablets

E. W. Moore

SUNDAY WORLD WANTS WORK MONDAY WONDERS

Xmas Gifts on Credit Pay in 1923

Don't give trifles for Xmas presents. Buy real "Gifts That Last." We allow you long credit. Terms—A few dollars down and as little as $1 a week. Come into either of our two upstairs stores, pick out what you want and we will arrange terms to suit your needs. Immediate possession upon first payment. Don't wait another day. Right now our stock is complete and you have a wide choice of anything in the jewelry line. Below are a few specials for Xmas.

Reliable Credit Jewelers Since 1890

Perfect cut, blue-white diamond, 29 Karat solid white gold, hand engraved and mounting. $1 Weekly	14 Karat solid white gold, fancy diamond, 14 Karat solid white gold mounting. $2.50 Weekly	14 Karat solid white gold, 14 Karat solid white gold mounting. $2.50 Weekly	14 Karat solid white gold, 14 Karat solid white gold mounting. $2.50 Weekly
Seven precious diamonds set in platinum, 14 Karat solid white gold mounting. $1.50 Weekly	Two fine white diamonds, 14 Karat solid white gold mounting. $2.50 Weekly	Grand diamond ring set in 14 Karat solid white gold, 14 Karat solid green gold mounting. $3.50 Weekly	Ladies' cluster ring, 7 fine white diamonds set in platinum, 14 Karat solid white gold mounting. $2.50 Weekly

A complete assortment of Ladies' Wrist Watches, Gentlemen's Watches, Diamond Rings, Scarf Pins, Chains, Cuff Buttons, Lavallieres, Pearls, etc., from $10 to $1,000. All goods guaranteed. Full values all we can diamonds in exchange. Transactions confidential. No delay, no red tape. Always at your service. Call, write or phone Cortlandt 2167 or Vanderbilt 3123. Salesmen call on request. Write for Catalogue 907.

Credit Jewelry Headquarters American Watch & Diamond Co.

6 Maiden Lane 4th Floor Take Elevator Tel. Cortlandt 5367

2 UPSTAIRS STORES

503 Fifth Ave. Over Schuler's Entrance on 42d St. 1 Flight Up Tel. Van. 3123

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL 10.

Home Furnishers Since 1854

There Is Still Time!

Realizing that in many cases last-minute gift buying is unavoidable, our three stores are prepared to make every effort this week to assist late comers in selections from our enormous stocks and in making timely deliveries. Furniture is the acting gift. Make this a Furniture Christmas! Credit, if Desired—Generously Given

End Table Genuine Mahogany. $7.25

Three Stores Convenient to Reach Motor Truck Deliveries Everywhere

Royal Easy Chair Finished in Mahogany; upholstered in imitation leather; with foot rest, as illustrated. $26.98

Englander Double Da-Bed Finished in Mahogany; complete with mattress and spring, as illustrated. Pillow and Roll extra. $30.00

10-Piece Italian Period American Walnut Dining Room Suite Consists of Enclosed Serving Table, All-wood China Closet, Buffet, oblong shaped Extension Table, one Arm and five Side Chairs; seats covered with tapestry. Ten illustrated pieces. $247.50

3-Piece Genuine Leather Library Suite Mahogany finish. Includes Settee, Rocker and Arm Chair. Three pieces as shown. $79.50

S. BAUMANN & BRO

Do Not Confuse Our Stores With Others of Similar Name

Up Town Store 3rd AVE. at 84th STREET. Open Mon. and Sat. Evenings

Down Town Store 6th AVE. Corner 15th STREET. Open Saturday Evenings

Brooklyn Store 3rd & Brook Aves. at 16th STREET. Open Mon. and Sat. Evenings

Lower Prices than Elsewhere—Always