

CITY AS SANTA WILL GIVE JOY AT HOSPITALS

Elaborate Program of Gifts,
Dinners and Trees for Christmas.

Christmas plans for various city departments were announced today by Commissioner Bird S. Coler of the Department of Public Welfare, Park Commissioner Francis D. Gallatin and Commissioner James A. Hamilton of the Department of Correction. Following is a summary:

Metropolitan Hospital: Christmas dinner, Santa Claus, show at the Hippodrome on Tuesday, gifts of toys, candy, etc.

Randall's Island: Entertainment for feeble minded children, tree and Santa Claus in each ward, vaudeville, music, gifts.

City Home for the Aged and Central and Neurological Hospital: Several days of celebration with music, vaudeville, gifts, Christmas dinner.

City Hospital: Trees, gay decorations, turkey dinner.

Sea View Hospital: Motion pictures, carols, gifts, dinner.

Conce Island Hospital: Tree in every ward, gifts and dinner.

Greenpoint Hospital: Trees and gifts, with Dr. Mandelbaum dressed as Santa Claus.

Canterbury Street Hospital: Gifts from churches and other organizations, trees, dinner.

Kings County Hospital: Children's celebration Dec. 21, gifts for all patients.

Playgrounds: Two thousand playground children to be entertained on the afternoon of Dec. 23 by the Bureau of Recreation at Palm Garden, No. 150 East 83rd Street. Santa Claus present with gifts for all children. Children to assemble at 1 P. M. at the following playgrounds: Carl Schurz, Carmanville, Chelsea, Co. onal, Corlears Hook, DeWitt Clinton, East 17th Street, Five Points, Hamilton Park, Hudson, John Jay, St. Gabriel's, Seward, Thomas Jefferson Tompkins Square and Yorkville. Buses will take them to the Palm Garden. There will be a fine show.

Christmas Trees: Trees will be displayed by the Park Department Christmas Eve at Jeanette Park, South Street and Coenties Slip, Madison Square, Bowling Green, Columbus Circle and Tompkins Square.

Parole Commission: The commission will help the families of prisoners by sending Christmas baskets and other contributions.

Department of Plant and Structures: Celebration in the Municipal Building on Dec. 23. Vaudeville and dancing.

Department of Corrections: Christmas dinners in all the institutions under control of the department. Separate Christmas dinners to all employees, including doctors and nurses.

THINK WOMAN FOUND ON ROAD WAS MURDERED

Body Discovered Near Her Home at Butler, N. J.

BUTLER, N. J., Dec. 19.—Suspected murder, Chief of Police McKeon has assigned Prosecutor Mills of Morristown to aid him in the investigation into the death of Mrs. Catherine Harbol, aged fifty-one, whose body was found lying face downward in Valley Road here just before dawn today. Mr. Mills said he would come here this morning and bring with him a Coroner from Boonton.

The body was found by Herman Atlas, who was walking to work. He awakened neighbors and summoned Chief McKeon, who recognized the body as that of Mrs. Harbol, who lived with her husband and children a short distance away on the same road. Part of Mrs. McKeon's clothing had been torn away and there was blood on her face and body.

WOMAN LOVE THIEF WILL BE DEPORTED

CLEVELAND, Dec. 19.—Eight aliens, including one woman, left here today in charge of immigration officers to New York, from where they will be deported. The woman was charged with having stolen the affections of her six year old child.

The woman, with her thirteen-year old daughter, arrived in this country July 22 from Hungary, where her husband died recently. She made her home with her sister at Martins Ferry, O. until the latter, claiming she had won her husband's favor, decided the woman and child, who then became public charges.
