

BANK ROBBERS HAVE A BUSY DAY IN LOS ANGELES

Two Concerns Are Held Up
by Armed Men Who Escape Arrest.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 19.—The Southwestern State Bank was robbed of $1,000 yesterday by a young man who walked into the bank with his hand wrapped in a bandage. He presented a check for $1,000 and a letter to B. R. Brundage, the cashier.

"You are looking into the barrel of a revolver in this bandage," said the letter. "I want you to O. K. this check. Go to the paying teller with me and get the money."

Mr. Brundage stepped with the man to the paying teller and directed him to cash the check, which he did. "I want you to go with me," the bandit then told Mr. Brundage, and he forced the latter a block down the street, passing three policemen who stood chatting on the corner.

"You may go now," said the bandit, "and thank you. You've been awfully kind." With that he disappeared around a corner.

The Walnut State Bank at Walnut Park, a suburb, was robbed yesterday afternoon by three masked men, who escaped with between $2,000 and $3,000 in currency. Two of the men pointed revolvers at the tellers while the third went and picked up the money. The bandits escaped in an automobile.

Stockholders of the bank were meeting in a back room of the building at the time, but knew nothing of the robbery.

Always associated with gladsome thoughts of Christmas Day are lighted candles, the blowing of toy trumpets, the shouts and laughter of little children and plenty of Cash's mee-tee Nuts—In the shell, shelled or salted.

Other sweets may cloy, but Cash's mee-tee Nuts are the natural confections of the forest, as wholesome as they are delicious and as festive as they are appropriate to this season of "Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward Men."

Teaches Color Harmony while the child has fun

HOW many of us have wished that we understood color harmony—that we knew the many tints and tones of reds and greens and purples and blues which "blend well" together?

Color harmony could have been taught in us years ago when we were children, more easily than now.

In your child, or your friend's child, now at the formative age? If so, give her (or him) an Artcraft Picture Making Guide in Colors.

Woodland Greens, Royal Purples, Sunset Reds, Deep Blue-blacks are all made into color COATED painted Artcraft stencils. No paints, brushes, crayons, powders or water are used. JUST RUB, and beautiful colored pictures appear! Look over an outfit today at the nearest store where toys are sold. 50c, $1, or $2. Interesting circular free.

Some Day, Not So Far Distant, My Little Pencil

will have written its last piece and be laid aside.

With simple gratitude to the many who have written me encouraging letters, and others who have personally sought me with thankful words, I write these heartfelt lines to say that what at first seemed a task became a pleasure, because I felt in my own soul almost everything I wrote; and desired, as I put down in words, to be helpful to those fellow pilgrims on the way with me.

Much that I have said came out of my experience and observation; and much that I quoted was said by people that I had personally known in this country and across the sea. I refer to Henry Drummond, Professor Blackie, Charles H. Spurgeon, Newman Hall, Lord Shaftesbury, Martin Tupper, President Grant, President Garfield, President Harrison, President McKinley, James G. Blaine, President Taft, George H. Stuart, A. T. Stewart, Horace Greeley, D. L. Moody, Bishop Simpson, Albert Barnes, John Chambers, Judge George B. Orlady, Theodore Roosevelt, Anthony J. Drexel, Jay Cooke, John H. Converse, Henry Ward Beecher, John B. Gough, Sir George Williams, J. Russell Miller, George F. Peckocost, Horace B. Clafin, Marshall Field, John V. Farwell and others.

I have read and searched and listened to wise men, and made the best use I could, in the little scraps I have written, of everything that I thought might be useful to others struggling like myself to make the best of life.

The only wish I have is that I could have done all my work better.
