

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE
is published every morning, at No. 39 Ann Street, New-York, and delivered at City Post-Office, Extra postage paid. Two dollars—Mail Subscribers, $4 per annum, a advance, and the paper in no case contained beyond the time for which it has been Subscriptions taken for Six Months.

Terms of Advertising.—For each Advertisement of TEN DOLLARS, for one insertion,..... 25 Cents for two insertions,..... 25 Cents for SIX insertions, or one week,..... $1.00 a do. for TWENTY-FIVE insertions,..... 5.00 a do. Longer Advertisements at equally favorable rates.
Marriages, Religious and Funeral Notices, not exceeding two lines, 25 cents.

THE TRIBUNE.

The HISTORIAN, OR MONTHLY EXPOSITION OF SCIENTIFIC
STUDIES AND PHILOLOGY. Contained in Geo. Bush,
Professor of Hebrew in the New-York University, Dayton & Newman, 109 Broadway.

This is the title of a monthly periodical, the first number of which has just been issued. The profound scholarship and the high ability of Professor BUSH are well known throughout the country.
His original views of the declarations of the Prophetic writers are at this time exciting great attention in the religious world. They will be fully expounded and supported by strong reasoning in this periodical. It is printed in a remarkably neat and elegant style. The price is $1.50 per number.

EDUCATION, MORAL, AND RELIGIOUS. From the French
By Rev. C. NEWELL, U. S. Navy. G. G. Morrison, 139
Nassau-street.

This is a little volume of brief, familiar illustrations of the importance of industry, kindness, and all social virtues, designed especially for the beneficiaries of children and youth. It appears to be well adapted to the purpose for which it was written.

DIARY AND LETTERS OF MADAME D'AGUILAR, Part III.—
Philadelphia: Carey & Hart, New-York: Wiley &
Putnam.

This is one of the most interesting works of the season. The anecdotes and personal sketches it presents of some of the most renowned literary characters of England, render it exceedingly attractive and valuable. It is published in very elegant pamphlet style. This number concludes the first volume.

GEORGE'S LADY'S AND GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE, July 1842,
Vol. IV.—B. Bowery.

The Literary Contents of this number are highly interesting and valuable. H. W. Herbert, Lowell, Pike, Cheever, Benjamin, Aldrich, Wallace, Hoffman, &c., are among the names of the contributors.
"The Polish Mother" and "Morning Prayer" are the subjects of two beautiful engravings.

THE MONTHLY CHRONICLE.—This is the title of a valuable work, of which C. S. Francis & Co., 252 Broadway, are the New-York publishers. It contains a record of all important events in politics, science and art, and is intended to furnish a full and authentic chronicle of whatever is worth preserving for future reference. It is published in monthly numbers from forty to fifty pages each—forming yearly two fine octavo volumes.

"THE COLD WATER MAGAZINE" is the title of a new Temperance Monthly just started at Philadelphia, and for sale by Bradbury, Soden & Co. Its contents are interesting, and for the young it is a valuable work.

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA AMERICANA No. 24, has just been published by G. L. Curry, 155 Broadway.
This is decidedly the most important publication of the season. The opportunity it affords of perching this great work should not be neglected.

"THE LADY'S PEARL" for July, 1842, has just been received, and is for sale by Bradbury & Soden. It is a near little monthly only one dollar per annum.

KING & CO. have received the July number of GRAHAM'S Magazine, GOODEY'S Lady's Book, and the Lady's World of Fashion." We have already spoken of their character and contents.

"ISRAEL POST," 83 Bowery, has published the "Lady's World of Fashion" for July. It contains several interesting literary articles, a plate of the fashions, and a mezzotint engraving.

"THE LEATHER STOCKING" Tales of Cooper,
No. 4, has just been issued by G. L. Curry, 155
Broadway. It contains the Deer Slayer.

"THE FORTUNES OF HECTOR O'HALLORAN,"
No. 3, has just been issued by D. Appleton & Co.

"OUR MESS., Nos. 11 and 12, have just been published by Carvill & Co., 109 Broadway.

LATE FROM MEXICO.—By the British Royal Mail steamer Teviot, at the Balize from Vera Cruz, we have received full files of the Vera Cruz Censor up to the 6th inst., and the Diario del Gobierno of Mexico to the 1st. Our correspondent informs us that a Spanish frigate and brig of war are now lying at Sacrificios, and that the Spanish Government will not recognize the Texas blockade on any account. An English man of war was lying at Sacrificios. The Mexican steamer and schooner of war are still lying under the guns of the Castle of San Juan de Ulua. The report was still in circulation that they were going to Havana for repairs, although many thought they would not dare venture out.

Bocanegra, the Mexican Minister of Foreign Matters, addressed a letter to Hon. Daniel Webster, Secretary of State of the United States, under date of May 31st, in which he remonstrates, in the name of this government, against the favor shown to citizens of this country who volunteered to assist the Texans, and complains bitterly of the Spanish Government's conduct in this matter.

Our correspondent informs us that a Spanish frigate and schooner of war are still lying under the guns of the Castle of San Juan de Ulua. The report was still in circulation that they were going to Havana for repairs, although many thought they would not dare venture out.

The Mexican press appears to be of the opinion that Yucatan is discontented with her present condition, and could be easily induced to join the Mexican Confederacy.

[N. O. Pic.]

FIRST SETTLEMENT OF THE UNITED STATES.—
The following Table, which many may consider worthy of preservation for future reference, shows at what time, and by whom, the several States were originally settled:

STATES. DATE. OLDEST TOWNS BY WHOM.
Florida..... 1565 St. Augustine, Spanish.
Virginia..... 1607 Jamestown, English.
New York..... 1614 Albany, Dutch.
Massachusetts..... 1620 Plymouth, English.
New-Hampshire..... 1624 Dover, English.
New-Jersey..... 1626 Bergen, Danish.
Delaware..... 1627 New-ark, English.
Maryland..... 1634 St. Mary's, English.
Connecticut..... 1636 New-Haven, English.
Rhode Island..... 1639 Providence, English.
North Carolina..... 1650 Albemarle, English.
South Carolina..... 1670 Port Royal, English.
Georgia..... 1681 Savannah, English.
Pennsylvania..... 1682 Philadelphia, French.
Arkansas..... 1683 Arkansas Post, French.
Louisiana..... 1699 Natchitoches, French.
Alabama..... 1700 Mobile, French.
Mississippi..... 1711 Natchez, French.
Vermont..... 1720 Fort Dummer, French.
Georgia..... 1733 Savannah, French.
Tennessee..... 1736 Fort London, French.
Missouri..... 1763 St. Genevieve, French.
Kentucky..... 1770 Louisville, French.
West-Virginia..... 1776 Marietta, N. E. Em.

MR. EDITOR.—Can you throw any light on the affairs of the Jacksonville Bank? We have a bill on said bank for the sum of $10,000, and the bill presented to the President is out of town, and the bill presented before him is counterfeited! And until the President returns they will not say whether the bill is good or not, therefore they will not redeem it. Is it necessary in other banking houses for the President to inspect every bill presented before he can draw on it? I have not seen any notice of such a regulation of The Sun lately.

Respectfully, ANTRIM BUMBO.

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE.

BY GREELEY & McELRATH.

OFFICE NO. 39 ANN-STREET.

VOL. II. NO. 65.

NEW-YORK, FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1842.

For The Tribune,
THE JEW'S.

Then Paul, after the Governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, For as much as I know that that hast been for many years a Judge unto the nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself. [Actus xxi. 14.]

Mr. Editor: I shall hope to be excused for heading this communication with a text, as I do not purpose that it shall "turn out a sermon" any more than a "song." But I have more than one reason for "answering for myself" in reference to the friendly comments of your correspondent N., published in this morning's Tribune, on my Lecture respecting the Jews. The writer, in whom I recognize a gentleman whose conversation relative to the character, fortunes, and destiny of that remarkable race has often afforded me great pleasure—and his knowledge on the subject is his birth-right—supposes me to have fallen into some errors of statement, which he deems important to correct. Your own note, Mr. Editor, was designed to show how this impression arose from a slight inaccuracy on the part of the Reporter, to whose fidelity in the main I am happy to bear an unequivocal testimony. But the explanation in the present case is so ambiguously worded, and so partially covers the ground of N.'s exceptions, that I am induced, with your permission, to become my own expositor. The first remark of the critic that claims attention is the following:

"How could Prof. Bush fall into such errors as to believe that the Jews of this city cherished no hope of the restoration of their nation, and that the proposed strike was as something repulsive? There is not a shadow of ground for such a suspicion. The Jews throughout the country do entertain the hope in question."

Now I can assure my friend N. that nothing would afford me greater pleasure than to know that I had fallen into precisely the error here alleged; for it is exceedingly important to the force of my argument to be able to affirm that the Jews in this country do entertain the hope in question. Can he have written "disturbed" —for I believe was the utmost of the distress that have thus far been stated to have attended the progress of this appointment, and even this was afterwards contradicted as a false report?

G. B.

We are very glad that Prof. Bush chooses to be his own expositor—but we bear witness that the ambiguity in our explanatory note was the fault of the composition.

[Ed. Tribune.]

An English and Classical Boarding and Day School, at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., for the sons of the gentry of the village of Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

SARATOGA SPRINGS INSTITUTE,
S. K. BANGS, A. M., Principal and Proprietor.

The Institute has been conducted by its present proprietor since Sept. 1838. Apart from its literary advantages, its location at Saratoga gives it a pre-eminence over almost all other schools in the country. The school is conducted under the direction of a corps of the best teachers, and occupies the best part of the building, aided by the means of a large and comfortable library.

Parents visiting the Springs will find in the Institute facilities for the advancement of their children in learning:

Pupsils will be received at any time. Any further information may be obtained on application to S. K. Bangs, Saratoga Springs.

THREE GREAT GENERALS have filled the Presidential Chair, but they, like other great men, from a difficulty to please all parties. We have given more credit to the right, and less to the wrong, in our political history, but it is difficult to do justice, and to prevent "Laplipop Hall" and "Save a Penny" from sharing the publick, while these sit cross-legged themselves.

If you really wish to save anything, and wish to prove that you are a good man, go to Brooklyn, call upon Dr. Brooks, and give him a few cents, and then go to the Alibi—where there are others very great and cheap.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

On leaving this, I was naturally excited to continue my inquiries more fully of others of them from store to store in Chatham street, where many of them are located, and I found them all equally anxious to get rid of me in this question.

I have become immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money to go to, if they had been compelled to go.

What should we want to go there for? We have all the privileges we can ask for, in a good place for our householding there. If we will go, we have means to procure a good passage, and to purchase the country we wanted to leave, and to purchase the country we wanted to go to.

It is a pity that the people of Saratoga Springs have not been immediately acquainted with their priest, who did appear, so far as could be, with their diabolism in a Messian already come in the flesh. They tell me, that there were no special arrangements among their peers for a return to Palestine; and indeed, I suppose, they had no such arrangement, as they had no money