Politics in Philadelphin County-A Split-Protection-Tylerism-The Riots, &c. Correspondence of The Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4. 1842. The election for Delegates among the Loco-Fo cos has resulted most disastrously for the party in the County. The Smith men, who, you recollect, were the cause of a division among our opponents, which resulted in giving us the Sheriff for the city and county at the last election, are again in the field. The contest, which has just terminated for Delegates, shows that division to be still resolute and determined. They will not submit to the dictation of the Ingersoll no-protection, humbug currency faction any longer, and why should they? In the blind devotion to party, which has so lamentably characterized them, men have been feisted inte responsible stations, who have thrown discredit and disgrace upon the honest portion of the party .-Even the Spirit of the Times, their leading organ asserts that among the candidates for Delegates there were some fellows up who could not write, and would not know their own names if they saw them in print. It indignantly asks if "such animals are fit for any thing but to be supple tools for cunning and designing knaves?" The well meaning men of the county, when the radical sway was so largely predominant, are becoming satisfied that this cry of "regular nominations" is not so purely Democratic or honest as it has been represented, and hence the settled determination to rally under the banner of independence. This is boldly sus tained by the friends of Daniel Smith, whose vote for Sheriff, in defiance of Loco-Foco dictation, was sufficient to prostrate the regular nomination men. The election of this week proves that vote to be largely on the lucrease, and the fall election will unquestionably show a triumphant return of Whig members to our State Legislature from the county. The strong and increasing manifestations every where witnessed in favor of Henry Clay, will aid in tues: accomplishing this all-important result. The Tyler men are out with a new two-cent af-tersoon paper with which they hope to prop up the cause of treason and deception. "Two thousand" dollars will not go far in sustaining this "Evening Express," which can hope for no success either from Whig or Loco. Its "limited circle of friends" must therefore have it under the necessity of making frequent drafts upon some source or other. Commissary General Tyson, who holds a lucrative and superfluons office in bold defiance of the signal rejection of the Senate, is the moving spirit in this hopeless attempt.

THE RIOTS-THE CAUSE-THE REMEDY .- All remains quiet in our city. A banner, brought to the Mayor's office and exhibited by that excellent functionary to the citizens, has been the topic of conversation. It is declared to be the one used in the procession, which caused the offence, and presents merely the picture of a slave trampling on his manacles, with a burning slave-ship in the distance, and a pair of doves on the other side. The word "Liberty," and a love and friendship motto finishes the affair. This is not the offensive banker, whatever may be asserted to the contrary .--But, now that the tumult is over, we hope a dispassionate review of the events of the week will convince the colored population of the policy of pursuing a more guarded course, at least in all their public demonstrations. The prejudice of which they have been so repeatedly and so painfully the victims may be in the highest degree illiberal and unjust. But that does not alter the fact. Those prejudices do exist, as indelibly stamped upon the passions of the mass as the distinctive marks that distinguish their own peculiar race .-Unjust and ill-founded as they may possibly be, it is no less apparent that every successive attempt to lessen or remove that prejudice has but tended to implant still deeper its bitter and relentless accrimony. This is in part attributable to the insolent bearing and unbecoming airs which some portion of the more thoughtless among them have assumed. Their number may be very limited. Of the 30,000, more or less, among us. I believe but a very small portion have been induced at any time to take part in any of the obnoxious measures that have arrayed popular feeling so extensively against the entire mass. These obnoxious measures are indicated most unequivocally in the "National Convention," which was about to assemble in this city. and to which the late unfortunate procession was p-obably a preliminary step. In the circular issued by the committee of twenty-four, proposing this National Convention, there are feelings manifested, which however just in the abstract, are too decidedly at variance with the true interests of the great body of the colored population in this section. In the copy now before me the "determintion to remain here," and the assertion of their "just rights as freemen" and being "entitled to privileges and immunities of citizens," &c. are set forth as among the objects to come before their National Convention. The things manifest a tone and temper, so ill advised, that, if they were suffered to enter into their arrangements on Monday last, the fact may throw some light on the events which followed and to which they may have indirectly contributed.

Be this, however, as it may, the honest, unassuming, well disposed colored people who constitute far the larger portion of that population are entitled to the ample protection of the laws. They will have it. The riotous proceedings by which our city has been disgraced by a mob of ignorant and brutal beings who, in point of morals, industry or intelligence are infinitely below the people they assail, will be bereafter checked in the outset. The means of precaution which I think this last riot will lead to, promise prompter action and greater ecurity. An efficient body will be organized, probably in each ward, but, with a general concert of action which will be ready for any emergency. A few bold, determined spirits, will in this way be enabled to meet the attempts at disturbance before they attain the ascendancy. With some arrangement of this sort the late riot would have been at once suppressed and without difficulty; without it we shall become frequently and more fearfully the prey of the desperate and degraded.

SANDS'S REMEDY FOR THE SALT RHEUM.—'Warranted to cure.'—Salt Rheum, Ring-worm, Tetter, Scald Head, Barbers' or Jackson Lick, Eczema, Psoriasis, Palmaria and other diseases of the skin, are safely certainly and effectually cured by the use of Sands's Remedy, which has now been tested in more than six thousand cases of the above diseases, without having failed in any where of the above diseases, without having failed in any where the directions were attended to. The unparalleled success of this remedy in curing diseases of the sain is without an equal in the history of medicine. The Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla is recommended to be used with the Remedy, as it tends to throw out from the blood and system generally all the unbealthy homor connected with the disease, and the application of the Remedy externally at the same time entirely eradicates it from the system. The Remedy is perfectly barbless in its operations, and may be applied with saiety even to the skin of the tenderest infant. Testimonials of its efficacy are daily received, and the following are selected for publication, which it is thought will satisfy the mind of every candid person of its extraordinary virtues:

'I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.'-Job. "I am escaped with the skin of my teeth."—Job.

Messrs. Editors: One of the most loathsome afflictions to which man is liable is a diseased skin, and unfortunately the remedies usually employed for removing it often do more harm than good. I have heretsfore, for twenty years, been more or less afflicted with that inveterate and disgusting disease of the skin called Salt Bhoum or Tetter; and although I made use of the prescriptions of the most skilful physicians, and of various popular remedies, yet I never found any lasting benefit from any thing that was done for me. But I am now happy to announce to those similarly afflicted that Sands's Remedy has entirely cured me, for, before I used five boxes of the Remedy, in conjunction with their Sarsaparilla Syrup, I was perfectly cured; and, although it is now over two years ago, thave not had a symptom of the disease since. Respectfully yours, &c. though it is like the disease since. Respectfully yours, &c.
PHILIP BROWN.

Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands: Gent.—I certify that I have been curred of the Salt Rheum of ten years' standing by the use of your Remedy and Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I wish every person troubled with this dreadful complaint in any orm would call on me, and I will satisfy them that your medicine will cure them perfectly. COVERNOR OF RHODE ISLAND.

Important Testimony—If further proof is required to establish the fact of the inestimable value Dr. Starkweather's Hepatic Elixir, the following communication from the Hon. Samuel W. King, Governor of the State of Runde Island, contains adequate testimony to substantiate it beyond and, contains adequate testimeny to substantiate it beyone dispute, and must put entirely at rest the idea that this po-tent remedy is classed with the many useless and dangerous nostrains which are palmed upon the public merely for the sake of gain.

Please read the following statements communicated to the undersigned by His Excellency, under date of Jounston, Jan. 29, 1842.

the undersigned by His Excellency, under date of

Mr. Charles Dyer, Jr.: My dear Sir-Your communication of yesterday, asking my opinion of Dr. Stark weather's Hepatic Elixir has been received this morning. In reply, I will inform you that my confidence is patent medicines generally is not very flattering. I have had too much reason to believe that unprincipled men will often palm upon their fellow chitzens their useless if not dangerous nostrums for the sake of gain, the use of which takes up that important and critical period of time without producing any good effect, when otherwise perhaps, proper remedies would have been used, and much suffering and distress prevented.
For that reason I have not used them, feeling myself and family to be much safer under the directions of my family physicians; but having been afficted for the last six years with difficulties in the side and chest, uncomfortable and effen distressing, painful and somewhat alarming, and from which I could get only temporary relief. I very fortunately noticed your advertisement of the medicine in question.

I had been a school boy with Dr. Starkweather, and had with him a long and intimate a quaninance when we were I had been a school boy with Dr. Starkweather, and base with him a long and intimate acquaintance when we were young men, and from my knowledge of him I thought him incapable of practising deception on any person; this fact induced me to try Dr. Starkweather's Hepatic Elixir, and by its use I now believe myself to be entirely cured.

I need act, therefore, say to you that I consider it of great value. I certainly think its discovery of great public importance.

The first bottle I took gave me much relief, which regularly progressed until I had taken six bottles, when I discontinued it, having, thank God, no further use for it at present.

With much regard and respect,
Your obedient and humble servant.
