

GOV. HUBBARD'S LETTER.

To Samuel W. King, acting as the Governor of the State of Rhode Island.

As the Governor of the State of Rhode Island, I have received your communication of the 27th inst., and in answer thereto...

It is not my purpose to incorporate into this communication, a statement of the grounds upon which I have proceeded, leaving a relation to or consent with that controversy...

Believing, then, of all political power in this Republic that there are no inflexible and unchangeable rights to reform, alter, or abolish Government as they shall judge most conducive to the best interests of the people...

This is the true American doctrine, and is the chief corner stone upon which rests the superstructure of popular liberty...

Such are the authorities which I have considered necessary to present in this answer, hoping to show what are the political rights and what are the political powers of the people—emphatically the people.

Believing in the correctness of the opinion herein before expressed, and believing that the objections made against the same, are wholly unfounded, I have signed and caused to be published this answer.

It is my further objection to a compliance with your request in regard to the Constitution, that in my opinion, the political offices committed in other States...

So furious was the storm of wind and rain which burst upon our City about 7 o'clock on Saturday evening and continued until after 9, that we hardly believed it would be possible to rally a meeting...

It is not my purpose to exercise his authority to remove a person who is within his jurisdiction, in disregard of the essential principles of civil liberty.

At the meeting now, (near 11 o'clock,) adjourned. The Ashburton Dinner. We should really like to know why it was that at this dinner the toast to the President of the United States was passed in cold and desiccated contempt...

Delegates to the Whig State Nominating Convention (Syracuse). Resolutions favorable to Mr. Bradish were passed.

Rhode Island and Gov. Hubbard. We publish in the preceding columns, as a part of the history of the times, the letter of Governor Hubbard, of New Hampshire, to "Samuel W. King, acting as the Governor of Rhode Island," in answer to a requisition for the surrender of T. W. Dorr, the hero of the Foundry, the Arsenal, and of Chepache, charged with the crime of treason against the State of Rhode Island.

In taking this course Governor Hubbard places himself directly in hostility to the very first principle of American international policy.

It being past 10 o'clock, and Messrs. A. L. Foster, Matnard and other Whig Members who were to speak having left the City by 7 o'clock boat, presuming that the storm would prevent any meeting, the President now moved an adjournment, but the audience refused to entertain it, calling for "STANLY." Hon. EDWARD STANLY of N. C. at length obeyed the summons, the President having withdrawn his motion for the purpose.

Hon. Mr. MATNOT of Ohio sent an apology for non-attendance, on account of ill health.

J. N. RENOIDS, Esq. now seated that Hon. FRANCIS GRANGER was detained from attending the Reception by severe illness, but had requested him to assure the Whigs of New-York that he shared in their emotions of joy and triumph at the happy close of the Session, and was grateful for the honors intended for himself among his colleagues.

The meeting now, (near 11 o'clock,) adjourned. The Ashburton Dinner. We should really like to know why it was that at this dinner the toast to the President of the United States was passed in cold and desiccated contempt...

settle all their differences—they would have settled them long since—but for the intermeddling of designing anarchists from abroad.

IN SENATE, a Message was received from the Assembly, with its amendments to the Appropriation Bill. It was referred to the Select Committee of 8, and to give them time for examination, the Senate took a recess to half past 1 P. M.

A similar attempt to cut up Erie County was negatived by 28 to 1, (Mr. Faulkner,) and the Senate non-concurred in the Assembly amendments without a division, and returned the bill to the House.

The Assembly bill to correct a verbal error in the act of last winter in relation to the Encroachment of Mortgages, was considered and passed.

In the Committee, Mr. S. E. Church, from the Select Committee of 8, reported the Appointment Bill. Mr. Loomis moved to refer the bill to a select committee with instructions, a number of which were proposed and lost. The bill as passed was finally read a third time and passed—Ayes 79; Nays 36.

The Assembly took up the Apportionment bill as returned from the Senate. Mr. McMillan moved that the House insist on its amendments, and spoke accordingly. A dozen Loco-Focoes followed on the same side, contending that their bill was very generous to the Whigs.

Lord Ashburton embarked on board the Wasp at noon on Saturday. Salutes were interchanged between the North Carolina and Wasp, their yards were manned, and other tokens of courtesy and good feeling displayed.
