for we know your suffering, and our last words to you are, to be good cheer and do not despair. An Address to the Liberty party was then adopted by the Convention.

The following is an abstract of the Address to the Abolitionists of the North: BROTHERS: You are to hold a Convention at Orange to nominate a candidate for the Presidency, for which office there have been several persons named.

Washington, Thursday, Aug. 22. Many rumors are about that the Administration are about making important removals in Bureau. The following withdrawals are spoken of: Stephen Pleasonton, Fifth Auditor of the Treasury; Jas. L. Edwards and Thos. E. Swanwick, Commissioners of Penitentiaries and Prisons; Mr. Anderson, Chief Clerk in the Treasury Department, to be removed.

It is said that Daniel Webster has proposed the President of France as an arbitrator to settle the claims on Portugal. Runaway Slaves, &c. Washington, Thursday, Aug. 22. Two slaves, the property of Mr. Calvert, are said to have absconded, and thirty or forty from the adjoining region in Maryland.

The Appropriation bill will probably be through the Committee to day. Maymarket Square Bank. Boston, Thursday, August 22. The case of the Haymarket Square Bank has been abruptly terminated this morning by the consent of Way and his friends to a perpetual injunction, which was accordingly decreed, and the Bank center to exist, paying back the funds already in.

Medical Appointment. Baltimore, Thursday, August 22. Mr. HANBY has been appointed to the Surgical Chair of the Baltimore and Washington Medical College. The Southern Mail. Baltimore, Thursday, August 22. The Southern Mail is through, but brings no news of importance.

Destructive Fire. Wilmington, N. C. Thursday, August 22. A fire occurred here yesterday and destroyed Wooster & Anderson's steam saw-mill, consuming a large quantity of lumber. Loss $18,000, with insurance for $1,000. Shot in a Row. Baltimore, Thursday, Aug. 22. A notorious character named Washington Goodrich was shot last night during a row at Woodward's Tavern in Market street—wounded mortally. It is reported that Police officer Gamble did it.

XXIst CONGRESS—First Session. SENATE.—WASHINGTON, Thursday, Aug. 22. MR. HAMILTON presented a memorial numerously signed by dealers and workers in Gutta Serena, praying that Gutta Serena may be classified among enumerated articles in the Tariff and be subject to the light duty, instead of paying as now 90 per cent as a nonenumerated article. Referred to Committee on Finance.

The bill to extend the benefit of the Indian intercourse law to Florida, Alabama and Texas was taken up, debated and laid over. The Fugitive Slave bill was then again taken up. The question being upon the amendment offered by Mr. Pratt a few days ago to Mr. Mason's substitute for the original bill, it was rejected—yeas 10; nays 27.

Mr. UNDERWOOD then moved a substitute for the entire bill, providing Federal Officers, whose duty it shall be to execute the law of 73, relative to Fugitives from Justice or Slavery. The amendment also provides for record evidence of the Slavery of an individual, his identity and escape, as proposed by the Committee of Fifteen, and provides further that the Claimant of a Fugitive, who asserts his freedom, shall give bond without security, to afford the Slave opportunity for a Jury trial on the question of his right to freedom in the place from which he shall be alleged to have escaped.

MR. MASON opposed the amendment. It provided nothing further than the law of 73, and would prove as inefficient as that law. Congress had no right to compel a master to give a bond in relation to his slave, and the adoption of this amendment would do so, and slave such as he could not consent to. MR. UNDERWOOD replied that there was no such interference as Mr. Mason suggested. The proposition was only to refer a controverted question, like other controverted questions, to the judicial tribunals.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Mason, Underwood, Davis, Miss Farnum and Foster until 4 o'clock, when, without coming to a vote, the Senate adjourned. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. MR. STANLEY called for the regular order of business in the reception of Reports of the Committees. MR. RICHARDSON moved the House go into Committee of the Whole that they might dispose of the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill to-day—Agreed to.

After some little discussion the House went into Committee upon the Diplomatic bill, and various amendments were proposed and considered. One by Mr. HOLMES, appropriating $35,000 to continue the publication of works upon the Exploring Expedition. Rejected. One by Mr. BAYLY for $8,000 for repairs upon Custom House at Portland. Adopted. By Mr. Fuller, $3,500 for repairs upon buildings in Maine. Adopted. Pending further amendments it was found the House was without a quorum. The Committee then rose and reported.

The consideration of the bill was resumed. Several amendments were adopted—one to remit the duty of 250 on a bell weighing 3,000 lbs presented to the Bishop of Natchez by a foreigner. The following, among other amendments, was agreed to: Repair alterations and furniture for Custom House at Portland, $8,000; and same object at Castine, $36,000; purchase of a site and building for Post-Office and Custom House at Cincinnati, $55,000; do at St. Louis, $50,000; repairs of Philadelphia Custom House, $75,000; purchase of site and building Custom House at San Diego, $29,000.

owned property. He was between 30 and 35 years of age, dark hair and light blue eyes, and light eyes brown; wore a hat labelled "Willis B. Hart, Portsmouth, Va."

CITY ITEMS. LOCO FOCO GENERAL COMMITTEE.—This body was in session last night, ostensibly for organization, but we believe they did not get as far as the election of officers.

—Since the above was written, we learn that the Committee ordered new day elections, on Monday, in the 2d, 8th and 14th Wards, and admitted the "Geary ticket" from the 16th Ward. It remains to be seen whether the day meetings will be more orderly than the night elections. The friends of labor will stand but a poor chance with the political schemers. In the 14th Ward, delegates are to be chosen to the "Old" and "Young Men's General Committees, and also a Ward Committee, and a Committee to choose a delegate to Syracuse. In many of the Wards there are no Ward Committees, and the party is considerably divided on the "negro" question. The Industrial Reform portion of the Locos are determined to have their say in the several Committees and Ward meetings. An attempt was made to suspend the delegates from the First Ward, in the Tammany General Committee, but in this John Sott utterly failed, the regularly certified delegates, Messrs. Mulligan, Gannon and Murray being received. The Committee is but temporarily organized as yet, and the question of opening Tammany to the public meetings of the Workingmen, has been referred to the Sachems who have promised to report favorably.

MOVEMENTS OF THE NIGHTINGALE.—Jonny Lind was expected in London on the 19th inst. and would be the guest of Hon. Abbott Lawrence. She would go to Osborne House, Isle of Wight, to take leave of Queen Victoria. Every place was taken for both nights of her concert, to be given in Liverpool, on the 17th and 19th inst. including 500 additional seats placed round the hall, by the Philharmonic Society. Eschmann premiums were offered for tickets. It was strongly expected that she would, through extraordinary inducements, consent to give a concert in Manchester, on the evening of the 20th, although she was to embark for the United States on the 21st. Miss Andrews, a pupil of Sir George Smart, who is spoken of as possessing high vocal abilities, had been selected by Jenny Lind, to accompany her professionally in America.

EXPLOSION.—The boiler of the propeller beside, which has been running between New York and Philadelphia, exploded at about 11 o'clock this morning between South Amboy and Perth Amboy. The engineer was so badly injured that he is not expected to live; one of the firemen was also severely hurt, but there is hope that he may survive. None of the other hands were harmed; the Captain jumped overboard but was lost when in great danger of drowning. The boat took fire after the explosion, but was soon put out. She was towed
