Our Free Schools.

Private advices from Albany import that there is great danger of the Repeal of the Free School Law unless its friends shall save it by some compromise or other that virtually gives up the vital principle.

We say, then, emphatically to the friends of Universal Education, Stand firm! Be beaten if you must, but do not disgrace the noble cause entrusted to your guardianship by giving it away.

For our own part, we will cheerfully assent to any modification of the present Law which leaves undisturbed the vital principle of Free Instruction.

DANGEROUS BUILDINGS.

The following communication has been made to the Board of Aldermen by a Committee of the Fire Wardens: To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of New-York.

GENTLEMEN: The undersigned, a Committee appointed by the Board of Fire Wardens to bring to the notice of your Honorable body several very dangerous buildings that should be removed forthwith, as well as suggesting the necessity for instituting the power in some person or persons to remove all buildings that are unsafe in a summary manner.

The Board of Fire Wardens consider it a duty they owe to the citizens of New-York to make the above suggestions from the fact that they know of the existence of at least fifty buildings constructed, and in the course of construction, that are now unsafe and liable to fall and endanger the lives of the citizens; and they would respectfully call your attention to the annexed list of buildings as being the most dangerous, and which should require your immediate attention.

Yours respectfully, THOMAS H. ROUSE, THOMAS HAGADORN, Committee.

On Seventh-st. between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth sts. several buildings owned by Mr. McARABE, very dangerous; Twenty-second-st. between Fifth and Sixth-av. four buildings, about falling; Fifth-av. a whole row between Thirty-first and Thirty-second-st. very dangerous; building, North-east corner Walker and Elm-sts. building, corner of Center and Canal, occupied by Mr. Labadie for the storage of veneers, &c. belonging to the Jay estate.

We understand that there are a great number of other buildings considered by the Fire Wardens fully as dangerous as these, but the Board wish to have these acted upon first. Great blame frequently attaches to the Fire Wardens in relation to dangerous buildings, but the law gives them no power whatever. They would seem, with the assent in each case of the Common Council, to be the proper body for compelling the removal or security of dangerous buildings. As it is, we believe, no power exists in any of the departments, the City Inspector, to whom it is thought the right belongs, feeling doubtful as to the point, and not willing to act under it.

BROUGH'S BENEFIT.—Nible's was packed last night, from orchestra to ceiling. A single glance at the house must have satisfied Mr. Brough that he had at least three thousand friends present.

The exercises were rich and sparkling, though they varied a little from the programme. Bertucca was in good voice, and sang with spirit and freshness; Benevenuto dashed off, in rowdy style, his finche dal vino; Seguin, Mary Taylor and Brough figured in a lively act of Fra Diavolo, and the great Burton "turned up" in his inimitable character of Pilloccody.

LA FAVORITA.—There was a brilliant and crowded house at Astor-place on Wednesday night to witness the first representation of La Favorita. It was one of the most successful nights of the season. PARODI, as Leonora, added another leaf to her fresh chaplet, and LORINI, with all our memories of Salvi to overcome, achieved his greatest triumph. The music of La Favorita has a warmer and richer character than that of Lucrezia Borgia, and the plot, although tragic in its end, is not directed by a relentless Destiny. It has always been a favorite with our musical public, and will be more so now than ever.

DR. MORRELL will lecture this evening at the Rutgers' Institute, in Madison-st. at 7 1/2 o'clock, on the "Stomach, Digestion, Diet, Regimen," &c. illustrated by the mannikin. The subject is most interesting and important, and those who go will be sure to profit by it.

MR. BRADLEY'S CHORAL SINGING CLASS.—This class, which was organized about eight weeks since at the Tabernacle, numbers upward of two hundred members, who are now reading plain Church music with greater facility than we should have supposed possible in so short a time (six lessons). The meetings are highly interesting, and the spirit and enthusiasm manifested by the class must be gratifying to their energetic and successful Teacher. Those who wish for practice in music, reading or instruction in singing Congregational music, should join this pleasant Singing Circle for the last half term, which commences this evening at the Tabernacle at 7 o'clock. The terms are one dollar only, for the remaining six lessons.

GEORGE COPWAY, the celebrated Indian Chief, gives his last Lecture this evening on the Peculiarities of the North American Indians, their Councils, Wars, Ceremonies, &c. See Advertisement.

FIRE.—The third story of the building 205 Fulton-st. occupied as a tailor's shop, took fire from bursting of a champagne bottle, at 8 o'clock on Wednesday night. The damage by fire was trifling—that by water was much greater.

We invite public attention to the Sale at Auction THIS DAY, by ANTHONY J. Also the house and lot No. 77 Tenth-st. at the City of Brooklyn. Maps can be had at the Sales Room, as above.
