THE TRUE STORY OF L. E. L.

In his recently published "Literary Life and Correspondence of the Countess of Blessington," Dr. Madden gives the following letter, containing a full account, by Lady Blessington, of L. E. L.'s position, as she had it from the one only person to whom the "unhappy Mrs. Maclean confided the misery endured in her African bondage."

A CHURCH EXPOSE.

Correspondence of The Springfield (Mass.) Republican. GREENFIELD, Monday, March 26, 1855. An interesting trial, involving curious points of church discipline, has just been closed here. It was the case of Daniel Frost, of Orange, complained of for willfully disturbing a church meeting. George T. Davis was one of the counsel for the defendant. He was temporarily supplying the pulpit, for the purpose of acting on the following paper and propositions drawn up and submitted by him in his own handwriting.

MARINE AFFAIRS.

SHIP-BUILDING.—This branch of industry is gradually recovering from the stagnation of the past fall and winter, and, from the indications in this City, Maryland, Massachusetts and elsewhere, it is anticipated that before long the business will resume somewhat of its usual briskness. Nine of the ship yards in this City are in operation, and it is rumored that other builders will shortly commence laying down keels, so that the gloomy aspect of this handicraft bids fair to brighten before long. The following work is now under way:

PUBLIC MEETINGS.

THE NEW CITY HALL. The Committee of the Board of Councilmen on the new City Hall met in the Chamber of the Board on Tuesday afternoon, to examine any plans which might be presented to them for the new building, and to listen to anything which might be said in their favor. The greater portion of the time was occupied in examining the plans presented, of which there were some half-dozen of various shapes and sizes. The Committee then took official seats, and the CHAIRMAN called upon any person who might have anything to say to speak. None of the projectors seemed anxious to begin. All wanted to have the last word. At length Mr. IRA BUCKMAN broke the silence.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE.

Correspondence of The St. Louis Republic. LEXINGTON, Friday, March 20, 1855. Thousands of applicants for passage from London to Kansas. Hundreds from Cooper, Handolph, Howard and Saline, are passing here daily. Weather mild; river falling fast. The excitement in Kansas, and all along the frontier bordering on that Territory, is intense. It is spreading rapidly, and is spreading rapidly. England Abolitionists are now in the midst of the time when the election of members of the Legislature was to take place, but kept the same intelligence concealed from the people of Kansas, and of Western Missouri, and they are justly indignant at the trickery. There will be tremendous excitement at the election on the 30th inst.

BOARD OF TEN GOVERNORS.

The Governors of the Alma-House held their regular weekly meeting, at their rooms in the Rotunda, on Tuesday afternoon. Present, Govs. Townsend, West, Smith, Taylor, Duke, Tomann and Honyard. The Board of Ten Governors, who were charged with the duty of preparing a report to the Board of Commissioners, held their meeting on Tuesday afternoon, at the Rotunda, at 3 o'clock. The Board of Ten Governors, who were charged with the duty of preparing a report to the Board of Commissioners, held their meeting on Tuesday afternoon, at the Rotunda, at 3 o'clock.

FIRE DEPARTMENT COMMITTEE.

The Committee on the Fire Department of the Board of Aldermen met last evening in Room 11 of City Hall—present, Aldermen Howard, Trenchard and Baird—and transacted the following business: The Committee announced that the complaint against Mr. Murray, Foreman of Engine Co. 11, in neglect of duty, was dismissed for want of proof. And the complaint against ten of the members of the same Company for neglect of duty, in not turning out at fires, was dismissed in regard to Messrs. Paly and Williams, and proved in regard to John W. G. Duroche, F. Miller, John Jones, G. Duggan, C. Stone, W. Van S. Rego. Decision—Dismissed from the Department, and "reassigned" written against their names.
