

bondage by their own degradation. They were found in a state of degradation...

When the progress of Christianity, operating through the disciplinary system of Slavery, has at last destroyed the inequality of the races...

Such is the process employed by the Rev. Dr. Parker, in an assembly of educated and intelligent clergymen...

Not to refer now to the dangers to which we shall be exposed when the negroes come finally to burst the chrysalis shell of Slavery...

We have elsewhere spoken of the debt due by the country to the great Brooks, of South Carolina...

We sorely remember any instance of friendship among all those that history and literature have preserved...

When the progress of Christianity, operating through the disciplinary system of Slavery, has at last destroyed the inequality of the races...

which used to prevail against such displays of friendship as this. We have read how in Massachusetts...

We are not prepared to make so distinct a suggestion to our admirable President as to the specific way in which Mr. Keitt should be employed...

Our readers have not forgotten a recent uproar in Virginia, reechoed throughout the entire South...

Elsewhere we give a letter from a Mr. Ray, whose speech at the meeting of a Literary Society...

The Convention will probably finish its business to-morrow evening. The citizens will have a meeting to sympathize with the sufferers for Freedom's sake...

FROM WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, Tuesday, May 27, 1856.

The personal discussion in the Senate to-day created great excitement in both branches. Too many men are armed, however, for another very speedy assault.

Col. Webb's article is looked for with great curiosity by this evening. The cause for this curiosity is simply detestable and disgraceful.

died, after a lingering illness, about two hours ago. His disease was cancer in the stomach.

XXXIVTH CONGRESS. FIRST SESSION.

SENATE... WASHINGTON, May 27, 1856.

Mr. TRUMBULL gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to prevent civil war and restore peace in Kansas.

The bill providing for the general introduction of a uniform national code of marine signals was passed.

Mr. SIDELL called the attention of the Senate to the telegraph dispatch giving Mr. Sumner's statement before the Committee of the House published this morning...

Mr. SIDELL said that he had not intended to introduce a bill to prevent civil war and restore peace in Kansas.

Mr. TOOMBS remarked that he was in his seat at the time, and how Mr. Sumner could suppose he saw him near Mr. Brooks...

Mr. WILSON thought the explanation of Mr. Sidell was not inconsistent with what he had stated in his speech...

Mr. BUTLER (In his seat) You are a liar. Mr. BUTLER called the Senator to order, and also stated that there was no question before the Senate...

Mr. BUTLER apologized for words which fell from him in a moment of excitement, and said that, in discussing the resolutions of the Massachusetts Legislature...

Mass. France, Pruss. East, Sibell, Stuart, Thomas, (N. J.) Weller, Wigfall, Wood, (N. Y.)

Mr. CANN made further explanation in reference to the correspondence of Mr. Crampton, which he said misrepresented him.

Mr. WALBRIDGE replied that he had moved the previous question to save the discussion, the principle involved being well understood...

Mr. CHAIGE thought the bill should, at least, be printed, in order to afford an opportunity for examination.

Mr. WALBRIDGE said that he had moved the previous question to save the discussion, the principle involved being well understood...

Mr. WALBRIDGE said that he had moved the previous question to save the discussion, the principle involved being well understood...

Mr. WALBRIDGE said that he had moved the previous question to save the discussion, the principle involved being well understood...

Mr. WALBRIDGE said that he had moved the previous question to save the discussion, the principle involved being well understood...

Mr. WALBRIDGE said that he had moved the previous question to save the discussion, the principle involved being well understood...

Mr. WALBRIDGE said that he had moved the previous question to save the discussion, the principle involved being well understood...

TWO WEEKS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

THE COSTA RICANS EVACUATING NICARAGUA. NEW-ORLEANS, Tuesday, May 27, 1856.

The steamship Granada, from Havana on the 26th inst., arrived here to-day. She brings California dates to the 5th inst.

The steamship Illinois had left Aspinwall for New-York with nearly $1,000,000 in treasure on freight.

From Central America it is reported that the Costa Ricans had shipped 200 wounded from Juan del Sur...

DELEGATES TO THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION—THE OHIO RIVER. PITTSBURGH, Tuesday, May 27, 1856.

Every train which arrives here for the West is filled with delegates to the Cincinnati Convention...

At a regular meeting of the Adelphean Literary Society of Union College, held in their hall to-day...

At a previous meeting of the Society, Jose H. Brown and I were appointed to speak upon the negative of the resolution...

At a meeting of the New-England Branch American Tract Society, Boston, Tuesday, May 27, 1856.

beat in behalf of not Free but Slave Kansas. His hope to God Slavery would go into Kansas...

It was the duty, the solemn duty, of every Southern man to aid in establishing Slavery firmly there.

It was the duty, the solemn duty, of every Southern man to aid in establishing Slavery firmly there.

It was the duty, the solemn duty, of every Southern man to aid in establishing Slavery firmly there.

It was the duty, the solemn duty, of every Southern man to aid in establishing Slavery firmly there.

It was the duty, the solemn duty, of every Southern man to aid in establishing Slavery firmly there.

It was the duty, the solemn duty, of every Southern man to aid in establishing Slavery firmly there.

It was the duty, the solemn duty, of every Southern man to aid in establishing Slavery firmly there.