Five Points House of Industry. We are frequently called to account in the following manner: "Some one calls at the institution and says, 'We see you, Sir, are engaged in a good work, but you do not acknowledge it.'"

Our explanation in most cases is this: There are two Mission Houses at the Five Points; one building is called the House of Industry (Mr. PEASE'S), the other building is called Five Points Mission (Methodist). Mr. PEASE'S friends would go to a church, and Mr. PEASE'S friends would go to the Methodist institution, and of course we could not acknowledge it as being the work of the Five Points Mission, N. Y.

THE BEST JUVENILES OF THE SEASON ARE POOR AND PROUD; OR, THE FORTUNES OF RAY REDBURN.

Author of the "Boat Club," "All Aboard," &c. One volume, illustrated by Billings. Price, in cloth, 62 cts. Each volume contains a story for the young, and is intended to be read by the young people. It is written in a style which is intensely interesting, and to one who commences the book and lay it down unopened. To parents, we would say that the author's long intercourse with children, as a teacher, has given him an insight into "child character" which few writers of juvenile books ever acquire. The tendency of the book is to inculcate Truth, Integrity and Perseverance, and no child can read the book without being amused, instructed and benefited.

Also, a new and beautiful edition of the author's books: "NOW OR NEVER," and "TRY AGAIN." Each volume illustrated by Billings. Price 62 cts.

WALTER SEYTON: A STORY OF VIRGINIA LIFE. Illustrated by Hopkin. 1 vol. Price 50 cts.
