

CITY ITEMS.

The weather yesterday was reasonably warm and decidedly pleasant.

Medical Intelligence.—Mr. Stoeper's Huamath, a new remedy with such brilliant success, will be exhibited next week, at the Academy, at 50 cents admission.

We were in error in saying that the house was not full on the first representation, our estimate being based on the empty upper portion of the house. We were, we are informed, 2,600 persons present—a gathering for a first trial.

As appears from the following admirable recitation in The Evening Bulletin of that city: THE CHARGE OF THE LIGHT-KID BRIGADE.

Down the street, up the street, Cross the street, on ward, Into the Opera House, Rushed the Five Hundred.

"Charge!" was the leader's cry; "On, on!" was the proud reply; "On, on!" to hear and see, Fair Piccolomini.

Into the Opera House, Rushed the Five Hundred.

Dead heads the right of them, Dead heads the left of them, Dead heads the whole of them, N'er a head under;

Stared at with opera-glass, Manfully in they pass, Into the Opera House, Rushed the Five Hundred.

Flashed all their heads so bare, Flashed all their heads so bare, Under the chandelier, Parquet and upper tier,

Balcony wondered; Stared then the manager, Counted their heads so bare—

Counted their heads so bare, All of them dead-heads were—

Counted with greedy glare, Said he was plundered; Firm and unmoved they sat, Sat the Five Hundred.

Lorgettes to right of them, Lorgettes to left of them, Lorgettes behind them, Lorgettes in front of them;

Stared at by wondering eyes, Said they had built the house, Sat then as mute as mouse;

Out rushed the manager, All that was left of him—

Said the Five Hundred, When can their glory fade!

O, the brave stand they made! Honor the standard they met,

All the light-kid brigade, Noble Five Hundred!

We understand that on the 1st of May next two of the oldest theaters of the city are to be pulled down, and the way is to be cleared for the mercantile requirements of this thriving village.

The spot where the travels have for so many years performed their theatrical wonders—where Charlotte Cushman played her farewell engagement, and where a hundred lesser lights of the drama have shown—where so many thousand decades of light toes have lured their satirical fancies—where Melville, and Whittier, and Seigrist, and London, and a score of other equestrians and acrobats of high renown have departed themselves, and even the ubiquitous Daniel, surmamed Rice, has prosed for hours; and that other site of so much theatrical glory, where Forrest for so many years had sway supreme, in a few months will be under the exclusive dominion of matter-of-fact bookkeepers and commonplace young clerks. Commerce carries too many guano for Art, and retires from the field to take up a more secure position at a safe distance up town. In a little sparring-match, two years ago, between these two worthies, the Broadway was so severely injured in the ribs by Bowen & McNamee, who were doing battle for Commerce, that she has never quite recovered from the shock.

But we must have a new Niblo's and another Broadway Theater. Who's the man to supply the demand?

Dr. Henry Ward Beecher will lecture at the Cooper Institute this evening, in behalf of the Ladies' Society for the Relief of the Poor of this city. His theme is the "Burdens of Society."

Mr. Everett's oration.—It is said that the oration in Washington is to be given by Mr. Everett at the Academy of Music on Friday evening of next week.

Bell's Head.—The prices of beef cattle this week, although, on the whole, a trifle higher than last week, did not hold out through yesterday at least, they started on Tuesday. Then, all first-class steers were held firmly at 11 1/2c, not a pound, and a few fit for retailing market beef could be had at less than 10c. When it was found, on Wednesday, that there was not a short supply, and that the number of head at Forty-fourth street footed up over 2,400, the prices began to take course, and the sellers were obliged to accept offers half a cent lower than they would take the day before. The chance of getting a price above 11c, net a pound for first-class beef, is not to look promising at present. Several interesting particulars will be found in our cattle-market column, among which is a resolution on the part of estate brokers and proprietors of market-places to stop the wholesale traffic in cattle, and thus put a stop to the unexplained absence of having cattle driven through the most quiet streets while people are going about coming from church. It is a resolution that will meet with a most hearty approval.

LEGAL RIGHTS ENTERTAINMENT.—The female branch of the Legal Rights Association, a society of colored people united for the purpose of vindicating the rights of that class to the public conveyances of this city, gave their fourth annual supper last evening at Spring street Hall. Speeches were made by the Rev. H. H. Garnet, Dr. McCune Smith, Dr. Pennington, and Messrs. Freeman Porter, Powers, Wilson and others.

The New Passenger Car.—Mr. Nathan Thompson, of this city has patented a new Railroad Car, intended to combine the advantages of a Sleeping Car, with those of a Day Car. The passengers sit in compartments, four to a seat, their backs to four on a similar seat, so that each set their windows and ride sidewise to the front of the car. The passage way is between the cars and the window; their feet are on a raised platform, which protects them from the winter cold of the bottom. In a moment, their seats, etc., are changed into berths for the four, ingeniously arranged. We judge this car more costly than the usual day car, but less capacious in proportion to its length; we doubt that the majority would like to be propelled sidewise; we lack assurance of ample ventilation; but, for a night-trip, this car is susceptible of being made quite commodious and inviting.

Francis J. Tucker will deliver a lecture on Physiology at Clinton Hall on Friday evening.

The New Observatory.—Prof. Mitchell, Hackley and Davis, on Monday, examined the Central Park. With a view of selecting a site for the new Astronomical Observatory. A site near the northern line of the park, between the Seventh and Eighth avenues, seemed to be preferred.

The Stereoscope is a glorious invention. So is the circulating idea, in connection with it, which we noticed the other day. We hail anything which contributes to make happy homes. Like many other good things, however, it may be abused. And it is not surprising to find that it is. It would be expecting too much to suppose that the commercial and social development of this beautiful idea would fall exclusively into the hands of men of high spirit, refined taste and pure morals. But it was not to be expected that any of the tradesmen who keep these beautiful instruments on sale would exhibit specimens—pictures whose attractiveness is either based upon their positive incoherence, or upon their intentionally impure suggestiveness. There are pictures in some of the Broadway windows, that would be seized and destroyed by the police, if the police did their manifest duty. Such offenses against common decency must not be tolerated.

It is stated in The Courier des Etats Unis that the Fulton, which was to sail from Havre on the 8th inst., will bring a company of seven actors and actresses, engaged by M. Sage for the French Theater in this City.

PICKPOCKETS AND PICCOLINI.—A lot of pickpockets are following Piccolini in his tour over the country. They belong in New-York. At Buffalo they were caught and successful, but at length were caught and caged by the police. The Commercial says six of these young men were taken, one playing drunk and picking pockets in the concert room, and the others in beds at a hotel. They gave names as follows, all assumed for the occasion, no doubt: William Preiner, Joe Ringland, James Williams, William Osborn, John Jones and James Dodson. The Buffalones sent the party to jail.

THE BALL OF THE YOUNG MEN'S DEMOCRATIC UNION CLUB.—The seventh annual ball of the Young Men's Democratic Club took place on Tuesday evening, at the City Assembly Rooms. The ball was one of the most brilliant of any given under the auspices of this body. Among the persons present were Major-General Wood, Mayor Tiemann, ex-Governor Seymour, John Van Buren, Capt. Rynders and others. Speeches were made by Mayor Tiemann, Gen. Wood and Capt. Rynders. Letters were received from Lord Napier, and other distinguished persons invited, regretting their inability to be present.

PROF. GUYOT ON PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY. Prof. Guyot on Tuesday noticed the influence of heat, amount of rain and elevation above the level of the sea upon animal and vegetable life. He gave a description of mountains, and made all the general preparations for describing the main features of the globe. He pointed out the great depression in Asia, below the level of the ocean, of a vast tract of country to the N. W. and N. E. of the Caspian Sea. This trait fully justified the separation of Europe from Asia for geographical purposes.

THE AMERICAN UNION COAL CASE.—This case was again brought up before Justice Welch, at the City Hall Police Court, yesterday, when Augustus H. Wheeler, Secretary for the American Union, was examined for the defense. He stated that he recollected the conversation between Mr. Magagnos and the Directors about the coal. He made the remark at the time that it was necessary for them to be as saving as possible, as the members of the Union had been at considerable loss in the Crystal Palace catastrophe. The testimony further elicited did not differ materially from that of witnesses already examined.

FRIEHTFUL ADVENTURE.—On Monday afternoon, while the steamer Star of the West was slowly working her engines before starting for California, one of the passengers accidentally fell overboard as he was walking the plank. The water, which was flowing outward, carried him under the moving paddle-wheel, which he instinctively took hold upon, and with so firm a grasp that he was dashed through the water and lifted out again upon the other side, and by almost a miracle he was carried up to the top of the wheel-house, where he was promptly rescued through the trap-door by one of the ship's hands. The passenger was thoroughly soaked, though entirely unharmed. The bewildered man immediately stepped upon the dock, and in answer to the Captain's earnest solicitations, "Come on board quick," if he was going to California, he coolly said, "I guess I won't go on this trip." The steamer departed with his baggage on board, leaving him behind, with sufficient time to consider the various phases of his adventure.

ALLEGED SHOPLIFTERS PLATING DRUNK.—Yesterday morning two well-dressed and genteel-looking men entered the watch and jewelry store of Mr. Fellows, No. 17 Maiden lane, and inquired the price of a watch of the Waltham manufacture, which was lying on a tray. The answer was $80; when, upon the pretense of bringing in an exactly similar one from the next door for $75, they absconded. They were subsequently arrested by Officers Utz and Regua of the Third Precinct, and brought before Justice Welch, where they gave their names as Abram Buckley and Charles Johnson. The watch had gone out of their possession, but $125 were found upon them. Immediately upon their arrest they assumed intoxication, performing various ridiculous acts at the City Hall Police Court, which, if not springing from genuine merriment, was at least pretty good imitation, though the impression was general that an inking of sober sense was transpiring in their conduct. They were committed for examination.

SAVAGE ASSAULT.—David Patridge of Newark, New-Jersey, was violently assaulted on Tuesday evening, at a drinking saloon in the Third Ward, by Philip Lynch and Henry Curtis, proprietor and bar-keeper of the place. Patridge was beaten with a club and a chair, breaking his nose, and nearly destroying his eyes. Justice Osborn committed the accused for trial.

REAL ESTATE.—The following sales were made yesterday at the Merchants' Exchange, by Messrs. A. J. Bleeker, Son & Co.:

On Greenwell-st, lot and building No. 315..... $12,500

On 11th av., lot No. 1478, with 14th-st. frontage..... 475

On Bee-st., 2-story and attic brick house and lot No. 243..... 7,500

On Washington-st., (leasehold), store and lot No. 243..... 7,000

On 11th av., 1 lot No. 1478, with 14th-st. frontage..... 475

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

On 14th-st., 2 lots No. 1, 109 feet w. 11th av..... each 345

ended. The W. M. next hung on the neck of each child a blue ribbon and medal, kissing them, and making remarks adapted to the occasion. The children, in regard to the ceremony, were very much interested, and gave a more particular report of this impressive spectacle, which was witnessed with so much interest and manifested feeling by the thousands of people present. The remainder of the ceremony consisted of a presentation of rings to the mothers of the children, and the last thing of the hour should be the recitation of the prayer, which was delivered by Mr. J. M. Hernandez.

HEARING IN THE JONES CASE.—James, the Colchester Bank Cashier, was taken to Colchester yesterday afternoon, for the preliminary examination, upon a complaint containing two counts, the first charging him with embezzling the funds of the bank to the amount of $10,000 while acting as Cashier, the second charging him with stealing bills of the bank to the amount of $10,000.

The prisoner, not being ready to proceed to trial, asked for an adjournment to the 1st day of March. Messrs. Wait and Starkweather, counsel for the prosecution, asked that he be placed under bonds in the sum of $30,000 for his appearance on the 1st day of March, and also that he be committed to the custody of the sheriff of the County of Essex, the Court inquired of the prisoner if he was ready to give bonds, and he was remanded to jail.

The hearing before the Justice took place at Koenigs's office. A large crowd collected to see the prisoner and listen to the trial. It is the intention of the prosecution to arraign him upon an additional charge of possessing bank-bills with intent to fill up and pass the same.

In case of conviction upon these several charges, his punishment will not be less than a year and a half in the State Prison, and a fine of $1,000.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and uncontented as if nothing had happened.

THE HARTFORD FORGER.—The Hartford Times says that an attempt is being made to effect a settlement in the case of Dr. Brocklet, by paying a portion of the losses occasioned by his fraud. It regards the possibility of the movement as very doubtful. His wife, like a true woman, has refused from her own small means the sum of $400, which the Doctor borrowed the morning of his arrest, and also to Bassell & Co. the amount lost by them on the forged paper. In the meantime, the Doctor is in jail, as happy and un