

and less noble properties than Lord Lyndhurst; but it is an eminently practical mind, and in capital work, without a spark of rust, kept in full play as a...

—Thomas Dodworth, esq., the head and founder of the famous "Dodworth Band," has been appointed Postmaster at Morrisville.

—The Boston Atlas sends the State of Georgia, and the City of Savannah to its possession of one individual (Chas. A. L. Linn) "who combines in himself the characters of pimp, pirate and pauper."

—The all-evil G. P. K. of Arkansas is about to make a tour among the Indian tribes of the West, accompanied by several gentlemen who know the way of the red man.

—The true Delta of the 16th inst. announces that Mr. Ullman left New Orleans very hastily. The Sheriff pursued him, but returned his writ endorsed "non servavit."

—Two Americans, one of them from Richmond, Va., while in Cuba a few weeks since, visited the spot where Lieut. Crittenden of the Lopez expedition was shot, and erected a marble monument to his memory.

—Whitman's extraordinary abilities have always been fettered by an uncooperative business. The last time we saw him he was mounted upon a Brooklyn horse, and he was getting up a series of lectures, but it seems that his natural inclination has conquered his poetic inspirations.

—A HORSE WITH HYDROPHOBIA.—The Daylighter Democrat says that on Sunday, March 13, Mr. Wm. Campbell, who lives in Springfield Township, near Philadelphia, lost a fine horse, called a muley, supposed to be hydrophobic.

—FLORIDA ORANGES.—The orange groves of Florida have passed into a proverb, and at present, in Middle Florida, they have the same proverbial value as they have in the wealth and opulence as well as the pride of the Florida's home, yielding large revenues, and in the eastern part of the State constituting an important means of support.

—ALLEGED KIDNAPING CASE.—Some excitement has been created in Washington, by a case of alleged kidnaping, the particulars of which we give below, as derived from competent authority.

affairs have been managed by Mr. Peasey. C. cannot be unnecessary. He is the man whom the Democrats elected for all their available great men as their candidate for State Treasurer.

THE BURNING OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT STEAMER D. H. MORTON.—Mr. C. W. Bunker furishes us with the particulars of the burning of the U. S. steamer D. H. Morton, while on her way from St. Louis to Fort Smith.

THE BURNING OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT STEAMER D. H. MORTON.—Mr. C. W. Bunker furishes us with the particulars of the burning of the U. S. steamer D. H. Morton, while on her way from St. Louis to Fort Smith.

THE BURNING OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT STEAMER D. H. MORTON.—Mr. C. W. Bunker furishes us with the particulars of the burning of the U. S. steamer D. H. Morton, while on her way from St. Louis to Fort Smith.

THE BURNING OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT STEAMER D. H. MORTON.—Mr. C. W. Bunker furishes us with the particulars of the burning of the U. S. steamer D. H. Morton, while on her way from St. Louis to Fort Smith.

THE BURNING OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT STEAMER D. H. MORTON.—Mr. C. W. Bunker furishes us with the particulars of the burning of the U. S. steamer D. H. Morton, while on her way from St. Louis to Fort Smith.

THE BURNING OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT STEAMER D. H. MORTON.—Mr. C. W. Bunker furishes us with the particulars of the burning of the U. S. steamer D. H. Morton, while on her way from St. Louis to Fort Smith.

THE BURNING OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT STEAMER D. H. MORTON.—Mr. C. W. Bunker furishes us with the particulars of the burning of the U. S. steamer D. H. Morton, while on her way from St. Louis to Fort Smith.

THE BURNING OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT STEAMER D. H. MORTON.—Mr. C. W. Bunker furishes us with the particulars of the burning of the U. S. steamer D. H. Morton, while on her way from St. Louis to Fort Smith.

THE BURNING OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT STEAMER D. H. MORTON.—Mr. C. W. Bunker furishes us with the particulars of the burning of the U. S. steamer D. H. Morton, while on her way from St. Louis to Fort Smith.

CITY ITEMS. GIDDINGS ON TREASURY.—The Hon. James R. Giddings will repeat his lecture on "The Trust of John Quincy Adams," before the Young Men's Christian Union, in Clinton Hall, this evening.

NEW SOCIETY.—We understand there is in process of formation an Artists Aid Society in our city, to which not only all our principal artists have consented to become members.

EN-POLICEMAN WELSH.—Mrs. Martha Weyer, now living at No. 56 Governor street, a woman of fair appearance, yesterday afternoon again came before Mayor, complaining that she was destitute, having no means of supporting herself and a child eleven months old.

A WHOLE FAMILY POISONED.—One person dead. The family residing in the boarding-house of Mrs. Beaman, at the corner of Fourteenth street and Fourth avenue, were poisoned on Wednesday morning by something which had got into their coffee.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—Mr. John Smith Drury, of Fordham, Westchester County, complains that Mr. Anthony P. Rice, of No. 429 First avenue, at whose house he had been on business in the city, attempted to take his life on Wednesday evening.

ALLEGED SEDUCTION.—Officer Gardner of the City Hall Police Co. yesterday morning went to the house No. 9 Wooster street, for the purpose of arresting a man named James D. Johnson, who was charged with seducing, on promise of marriage, a young woman named Ellen Ford of No. 6 Morris street.

THE LOTTERY MEN IN COURT.—Bills of indictment have been found by the Grand Jury, against Ben. Wood, George P. E. J. Charles Murray, Leavitt Murray, and Samuel Dickinson, charged with carrying on Lottery Enterprises. The indictments were transferred to the Court of Oyer and Terminer by order of Judge Russell.

IMPEACHMENT OF DENNING.—Harriet E. Webb of No. 74 Irving place made a complaint before the Mayor, yesterday, asking for the arrest of a man named John Fallon, who assaulted her, and threatened to throw her down stairs, because she persisted in denouncing him for a debt of $50.

STENOGRAPHER ASSAULT.—On Wednesday evening, Philip Wolfe of No. 376 Eighth avenue, while at the Eutaw House, was accosted by John Martin, a Deputy Sheriff, who charged him with having kept a house of prostitution in Howard street.

REAL ESTATE.—The following sales were made yesterday at the Mercantile Exchange, by Messrs. A. J. Biecker, Son & Co.:

ing the money, returned half covered. Mr. Scherz quickly the discovery was made by Mr. K. that about $118 was lost by the operation, when he brought the case before the Mayor, who had the clerk arrested.

MAIMING A HORSE.—A drunken German named John Peter, residing in Fifty-fifth street, between Ninth and Tenth avenues, was yesterday afternoon with a horse and driver on the street, and he was so maimed by the fall of the horse that he was unable to get up.

HILL'S AIR GAS LIGHT.—This very superior, and we believe the best of the kind, is now being used by many persons who have been using the old-fashioned gas light. The machine in which it is used is so simple and so easy to operate that it is well adapted for use in any place.

GUENY'S NEW PHOTOGRAPHIC AND FIRE ART GALLERY, No. 77 Broadway, first block below the New York Hotel. Photographs, Daguerotypes, Miniatures in Oil and Ivory.

METALLIC TABLE LAMP.—This invaluable article is now on hand at the Mercantile Exchange, No. 77 Broadway, first block below the New York Hotel.

THE PHOTOLOGICAL CABINET OF FOWLER & WELLS, No. 393 Broadway, is an interesting place to visit, and is well adapted for the most useful purposes of the world.

THE WATER CELEBRATION.—The Committee of the Common Council held a meeting yesterday morning to receive proposals from Tradesmen, Societies, &c., who intended to participate in the ceremonies.

THE LONG ISLAND FERRY COMPANIES.—Yesterday the Long Island Ferry Companies entered into contract with Messrs. Roosevelt & Joyce of New York and Thomas Stark, late of Perrier Patterson & Stark, of Williamsburgh, to build two boats each for the ferry from the foot of South Eighth-street to Peck Slip, New York.

STEAM CANAL BOATS.—Some weeks since, Mr. Edward Lepton of Greenpoint built a new steam canal boat for an Association of which James Gandolph is agent. The boat has been lying at Atlantic Dock since it was launched, waiting for a load in order to give it a proper trial.

FREE.—About 2 o'clock yesterday morning, the boat of Mr. Lewis Jordan, owned by North First and First streets, on Broadway, and destined for the city, was discovered to be on fire, and was soon abandoned.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE DRY GOODS MARKET, By the Manufacturers' Cloth Hall Association. A. H. ALMY, Manager. NEW YORK, 137 Broadway, THURSDAY EVENING, March 25, 1859.

Table with columns: MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.

bleached shirtings and shirtings. The Indian Long Cloths are the only class of goods which would compete with our bleached fabrics, like 72x80, and cannot be laid down here for a less sum than 10c per yard, in a grey state.

Table with columns: BLEACHED SHIRTINGS AND SHIRTINGS, MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.

DRILLS. The demand for our drills has been increasing steadily. Several drills have been ordered for the army, and the demand will be more equal to the supply.

Table with columns: DRILLS, MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.

OSNABURGH. The demand for our osnaburghs has been increasing steadily. Several osnaburghs have been ordered for the army, and the demand will be more equal to the supply.

Table with columns: OSNABURGH, MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.

COTTON FLANNELS. The demand for our cotton flannels has been increasing steadily. Several cotton flannels have been ordered for the army, and the demand will be more equal to the supply.

Table with columns: COTTON FLANNELS, MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.

have referred will be filed to a certain extent with the species of wool. If the manufacturers will profess new ideas in Costings and Customers, they will be taken at remunerative prices, even at the present high price of Wool.

Table with columns: MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.

bleached shirtings and shirtings. The demand for our bleached shirtings has been increasing steadily. Several bleached shirtings have been ordered for the army, and the demand will be more equal to the supply.

Table with columns: BLEACHED SHIRTINGS AND SHIRTINGS, MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.

DRILLS. The demand for our drills has been increasing steadily. Several drills have been ordered for the army, and the demand will be more equal to the supply.

Table with columns: DRILLS, MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.

OSNABURGH. The demand for our osnaburghs has been increasing steadily. Several osnaburghs have been ordered for the army, and the demand will be more equal to the supply.

Table with columns: OSNABURGH, MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.

COTTON FLANNELS. The demand for our cotton flannels has been increasing steadily. Several cotton flannels have been ordered for the army, and the demand will be more equal to the supply.

Table with columns: COTTON FLANNELS, MARCH 25, 1859, AMERICA'S COURTS, Yards, Price, Remarks. Rows include various goods like Broad Cloth, etc.