Important and Interesting News from the Late Rebel Capital.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, April 11, 1865. The Richmond Whig of Monday, the 10th instant, is received. It says:

Whatever may be the fate of the Constitutional Amendment, it is as certain as sunrise that Stavery in Virginia is dead.
A National Hank of the United States is to be immediately established in Richmond, where shares in United States stocks will be sold at the rates established in have been paroied to a tend to the Confederate sack and wounded.

The Chimboraza, Winder, Juckson and Howard's Grove bospitals, four of the principal Confederate hospitals, are used for the accommodation of the Union wounded. Their accommodations are for about twenty four thousand, baby, which accommodations were left estirely by the Confederate authorities.

Confederate prisoners to the number of 200 or 1,000 have been received in the city within the past 46 hours and consigned to the labby Prison.

More then half of Gen. Pickett's Division has been brought in or captured, and the country between Richmond and Amelia County is said to be full of Confederate softiers, nearly all of them Virginisans, making their way to their homes.

The Chatle is used as a recognacte for citizen prisoners, of whom quite a number are gathered there.

Whom quite a number are gathered there, shester was not at all disturbed by the pillagers enday morning last, neither did she fire reach that sames District.

rees of the United States, appeared on the parade or splate with pride. Some of the colored troops appeared on the parade or riew, but it is said that a separate display of them ill probably take place before long. One feature of the display was evident to every obver, and that was the superior drill, morale and display manifested by the men in their marching and display bearing, the perfect condition of their arms before the printing and display bearing, the perfect condition of their arms and equipments, burnished to a dazzling brightness, the batteries drawn by well-trained horses, fat and sleek, and substantially caparisoned, all in striking contrast to what the citizens have been accustomed for the four years during which Richmond was held by the Confederate Army.

Confederate Army.

The reporter passed over the greater part of the parade, and did not witness or hear of a single unpleasant incident to mar the general harmonious character of

The citizens viewed the military pageant with silen interest from their side walks, doors and windows and if they did not openly rejoice at the appearance of the "Old Flag of the Union." there were no expressions that could be construed into derison or contempt for it.

The soldiers on the other hand abstained from those boisterous shouts of exultation that might have been expected, and marched orderly and quiet as though desirons of abstaining from any unnecessary demonstrations that might tend to give offense to citizens.

Altogether citizens and soldiers have cause to congratulate themselves on the result of the first review and parade of the United States troops in the capital of Virginia.

Mosby's Guerrillas Badly Beaten.

The following is a special dispatch to T

WASHINGTON, April 11, 1865.

An engagement with Mosby's guerrillas took place yesterday 14 miles from this city. The guerrillas were badly beaten.

badly beaten.

SEWSPAPER ACCOUNT.

From The Washington Chronicle. April 11.

For some time past there have been at Burke's Station, on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, a large number of mules, used for hashing wood to the railroad from various parts of the adjacent country, for Governmentuse. At said Station, which is about 14 miles from Alexandria, there are posted two companies of the 2024 Pennsylvania, and a detachment of the 8th Illinois Cavalry, numbering some 45 men.

New-York Tribune.

Vol. XXV No. 7,493.

NEW-YORK, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1865.

PRICE FOUR CENTS.

Virginia cavalry, and had arrived at Mosby's quarters on Saturday, having been ordered to join him from the army of Lee but a few days ago.

REBEL PRISONERS.

The Herald publishes the following alphabet ical list, embracing the names of the general officers of Lee's army who surrendered to Gen. Grant on the 6th and 9th inst. The names marked with an asterisk ave those of graduates of the West Point Academy or former officers of the United States Army;

oke, Brigadier-General Philip, of Georgia, commanding brigade Heth's Division.

nandling brigade Kershaw's Division.

randling brigade Kershaw's Division.

randling brigade Kershaw's Division.

randling brigade General, of Vingnias, commanding brigade Pickett's Division.

by Brigadier-General ommanding cavalry.

Brigadier-General W. B., commanding Rausseau's old general 1864. Commanding division in America. Corps.

Corps.
Ordan, Brigadier-General Thomas, of Virginia. Graduated Jacks.
1840. Captain and Acting Quartermaster United States.
Army, Resigned May 21, 1991. Chief of Staff to Beautread.
Formard. Promoted brigadier general in 1864.
Sey, Lieutenant Colonel J. G., commanding Pegram's old emberten, Lieutenant-Colonel John C., of Virginia i gradnatu 1837; Captain U. S. A. September 16, 1950; resigned

April 1861; Colonel and Assistant Adjutant-General to Joe Johnston; promoted Brigadier General 1862; commanding at Charleston; promoted Lieutenant-General; July 4, 1863, surrendered Vicksburg and army to Grant; May 14, 1864, resigned commission; appointed Lieutenant-Colonel artillery; on doty as inspector artillery.

IMPORTANT SPEECH BY THE PRESIDENT.

endleton, Brigadier General William N., of Virginia; gradunte 1830; resigned heutenancy U. S. A. Cetober 3, 1855;

Rebel prisoners have been sent away from City Point, sustain the

FROM NEW-ORLEANS AND THE SOUTH-WEST.

get in range of Spanish Fort; that they were not admitted to seats in Congress from such States. This materially damaged, and can easily be raised and repaired.

with a crevasse just above the town, from which great

Respecting the organization of the judiciary of Lou ings. Bonfires blazed in many parts of the city, and and its assistance to make good this committal. upper window. The cheering with which he was more closely upon our attention. It is fraught smashing it. [Laughter.]

with great difficulty. Unlike a case of war Again, if we reject Louisiana we also reject our vote the parabas of Jefferson, St. Bernard and Plaquenines: the Third those of Baton Rouge. East and West, St. Charles, St. James, etc.

Charles, St. James, etc.

When the message of 1863 with the plan before-mentioned reached New-Orloans, Gen. Banks wrote me With the exception of Judge Howell, the Supreme Court is composed of Judge Howell, the Supreme to our citizens as the Judge of the Sixth District, on the resignation of Judge Whitaker. He occupied this treatment of the resignation of Judge Whitaker. He occupied this position but a short time, when he resigned and resumed the practice of law. His appointment to the Supreme Beneb is, in our epinion, a decided acquisition to that high tribunal.

A correspondent of The Times at Cairo, Ill., writing March 26, narrates the following, responsing the operawhere the contraction of the con

Friency F. [16], continued Major-Greenial commanding limits from Alexandria, there are posted fror companied to the State Fernity and particular and the state Fernity and particular and the state of t giance to the Union, assumed to be the rightful political power of the State, held elections, organized a State Government, adopted a Free State Constitution, giving United States, and declaring that hereafter the cruisers the benefit of the public schools equally to black and of every nation shall receive the treatment which in white, and empowering the Legislature to confer the those ports they accord to ours, as follows:

elective franchise upon the colored man. This Legislature has already voted to ratify the Con stitutional Amendment recently passed by Congress the Union, and to perpetuate freedom in the State, several airs had been played by the band, the Prest- the white man, You are worthless, or worse; we will dant, in response to the numerous calls, appeared at an neither help you nor be helped by you. To the blacks execution is mine. To Gen. Grant, his skillful officers same end. Grant that he desires the elective franchise, and brave men all belong. The gallant navy stood will he not attain it sooner by saving the already adshare of thought from the first-is pressed much shall sooner have the fowl by hatching the egg than by independent nations, there is no authorized in favor of the proposed amendment to the National organ for us to treat with. No one man has authority Constitution. To meet this proposition, it has been to give up the rebellion for any other man. We simply argued that no more than three-fourth of these States must begin with and mold from disorganized and dis- which have not attempted secession are necessary to cordant elements. Nor is it a small additional embar- validly ratify the amendment. I do not commit myself assment that we, the loyal people, differ among our against this further than to say that such a ratification struction. As a general rule, I abstain from reading tioned, while a ratification by three-fourths of all the

for some supposed agency in setting up and seeking to been sold of I hisiana will apply to other States. And new State government of Louisiana. In yet so great peculiarities pertain to each State and such > the South. I am considering and shall not fail to act prespeech, was frequently interrupted by applause, and on the its conclusion, in the midst of the cheering the band the struck up a patriotic air when he bowed and retired. after the applause had subsided he directed exention been the occa to two principles settled or to be settled by the closing the influence contest: First, the American people had decided that

From enthusiastic meeting has seldom if ever before been with held in front of the Executive Mansion.

MORE.

More in the City Authorities.

Battimore, Tuesday, Aprill, 1865.

Vice-Admiral David G. Farragut, U. S.
Navy, arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning from Fortress Monroe, in the steamer Louisians, Captain Porter, and was received at the wharf by a large detachment of military, ordered out by Gen. W. W. Morris, the Mayor and Committee, and many citizens.

He was accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Captain Pinnock, Miss Curtiss, Miss Buttrick, and Mrs. Col. Lamb.

As soon as the steamer was announced to be at the wharf, Mayor Chapman proceeded to welcome the Adverse mentals and the poor of the thoughtful and the cartiess, has mentals between the Adverse mentals and the poor, of the thoughtful and the carties, has mentals between the Adverse mentals and the poor, of the thoughtful and the carties, has mentals and the poor of the earth and the carties, has mentals and the po

Treatment of National Vessels of Foreign Powers.

Another important proclamation is issued to but shall have the same right and hospitalities which

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, For some time past vessels-of-war of the United States have been refused in certain ports privileges and immunities to which they were entitled by abolishing Slavery throughout the Nation. - These treaty, public law, or the comity of nations, at the same The Executive Departments, including the twelve thousand persons are thus fully committed to time that vessels-of-war of the country wherein the said privileges and immunities have been withheld have enjoyed them fully and uninterruptedly in the ports of the United States, which condition of things has not always been forcibly resisted by the United States, although, on the other hand, they have not at isfaction with the same. In the view of the United we say: This cup of liberty, which these, your old claimed to justify the denial to them by any one of said masters, held to your lips, we will dash from you, and nations of the customary naval rights such as has here leave you to the chances of gathering the spilled and tofore been so unnecessarily persisted in; now, there scattered contents in some vague and undefined when, fore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby make known that if, after sion.

September 2, 1624. Premoted from wound; company 2, recovered from wound; company 2, recovere refused as aforeseid, they shall continue to be so refused.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my head, and caused the seal of the United States to be sfixed. Done at the City of Washington, this eleventh day of April, the year of Our Lord 1863, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the circle youth.

By the President: William H. Seward, Secretary of State.

REJOICINGS.

In New-York City.

Omnipotence for mercies given began to fill the seats:

majority of the voters of the Republic should con- expressed a devout hope that charity might the dispositions of all toward those who, mis

THE SALUTE AT UNION-SQUARE. At 124 o'clock yesterday, a detachment of the 75th Heavy Artillery made their appearance at Union square with four 24-pound howitzers, under the charge of Capts. Keim, of Battery B, and Stoughtenberg, of Capts. Keim, of Battery B, and Stoughtenberg, of Battery G. Three of the howitzers were placed in front of the Everett House, facing the square, and the salute of 100 guns was immediately proceeded with, shaking the ground, and threatening dire devastation to windows in the neighborhood, and filling the air with a cloud that portended nothing but victories and thankerities.

Hussos, N. F., Tuceday, April 11, 1862.
Glory hallelujah! Glory to God in the highest! Every bell is ringing—every gun is speaking in thunder tones—every heart is dancing with joy over the surrender of Gen. Lee.
Nearly $200 was anbacribed in fire minutes at the Post-Office for the relief of our sick and wonsded soldiers, and contributions are flowing in freely from all sides for this object.
A grand celebration and illumination is the programme for to-night.
The excitement is indeed intense, and old Hudson is one mass of particulum and joy.

Business to-day is entirely suspended throughout the State. The hearts of the people are thrilling with joy and graitede over the surrender of Gen. Lee. The demonstrations in this city are the most orthusisatic and joyous ever known.

At three o'clock this afternoon thousands of people assembled on Campus Martial and sung praises to God, the Star Spangled Banner, while a splendid brass band added to the enthusiaam by playing a number of patriotic airs.

otic airs. Two hundred guns were fired by order of the military To night the city is brilliantly illuminated.

Bosros, Monday, April 10, 1868.
Dispatches from all parts of New-England express unbounded joy and congratulation over the surrander of Gen. Lee. Flegs are flying, bells ringing, gdue firing, and the wildest onthusiesin everywhere prevails.

The Rev. Dr. Schaff will lecture before the