

Vol. XXVI. No. 7,939.

EUROPE.

LATEST BY THE CABLE.

The New Difficulty Between Austria, Prussia, and Italy.

MEETING IN NORTH SCHLESWIG IN FAVOR OF ANNEXATION TO PRUSSIA.

Arrival of Admiral Goldsborough's Squadron at Southampton.

THE RESIGNATION OF M. DROUYN DE L'HUY.

A Great Reform Demonstration to be Held in London.

GREAT BATTLE IN SOUTH AMERICA.

THE ALLIES BADLY DEFEATED.

BY THE CABLE.

GERMANY.

NORTHERN WILLESWIG IN FAVOR OF ANNEXATION TO PRUSSIA.

At a meeting of the inhabitants of North Schleswig, held in the vicinity of Flensburg, a resolution was adopted in favor of the incorporation of the entire Duchy with Prussia.

RE-ENFORCEMENT OF TURKISH TROOPS IN CANADA.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 16, 1866.

Reinforcements of Turkish troops have been sent to the island of Candia, where the insurrection still presents a bold front.

PARAGUAY.

THE ALLIES BADLY DEFEATED.

SOUTHAMPTON, Monday, Sept. 17—noon.

The mail steamer from Rio de Janeiro brings the important information that the troops of the allies have been badly defeated by the Paraguayans.

ENGLAND.

ARRIVAL OF THE HIBERNIAN.

LONDON, Monday, Sept. 17—noon.

The steamship Hibernian, from Quebec on Saturday, Sept. 8, arrived here this forenoon and proceeded for Liverpool.

THE ANN BADLY DAMAGED.

QUEENSTOWN, Monday, Sept. 17—noon.

The Ann, from Liverpool bound to the Baltic, has put into this port, badly damaged.

ADMIRAL GOLDSBOROUGH'S SQUADRON.

LONDON, Sept. 16, 1866.

The U. S. steam frigate Colorado, bearing the flag of Admiral Goldsborough, the U. S. steam sloop-of-war Swatara, and the U. S. gunboat Frolic, tender to Admiral Goldsborough's squadron, have arrived at Southampton.

REFORM DEMONSTRATION.

LONDON, Sept. 16, 1866.

Preparations are making to hold a grand Reform demonstration in London.

ARRIVAL OF THE ALLEPO.

QUEENSTOWN, Sept. 16, 1866.

The steamship Allepo, from New-York, September 5, arrived here to-day, and proceeded for Liverpool.

THE SHIP ANGLA INDIAMAN.

LONDON, Sept. 16, 1866.

The ship Angla Indianan is stated to be at Sidney, New South Wales—said to have arrived at that port lately.

TROUBLE, AUSTRIA AND ITALY.

PROBLEMA OF THE TREATY OF PEACE.

PROFENCE, Saturday, Sept. 15, 1866.

Advises received from Prussia say that a difficulty in the way of the signature of a treaty of peace between Austria and Italy has been raised by Austria in relation to the debt of Venice. The position taken by Austria places the execution of the treaty of peace signed at Prague in real doubt. The Vienna Conference has been adjourned for a few days. Count Wippen will be the Austrian Minister to Italy upon the conclusion of the treaty of peace.

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND PRUSSIA.

VIENNA, Sept. 16, 1866.

Baron Werther has arrived in this city from Berlin and resumed the duties of Prussian Ambassador at the Court of Vienna.

GERMANY.

THE NORTH GERMAN CONFEDERATION.

BERLIN, Sept. 16, 1866.

It is announced that Prussia will not allow the King of Saxony to take part in the formation of the North German Confederation.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 17.—The Cotton market is active and prices have advanced a quarter of a penny per pound. The sales to-day were 20,000 bales; Middling Uplands are quoted at 13s 4d.

LIVERPOOL BREADSTUFFS MARKET.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 17.—The Breadstuffs market is flat, and prices have a declining tendency.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

LONDON, Sept. 17—noon.—Consols are quoted at 99 1/2 for money.

AMERICAN SECURITIES.

LONDON, Sept. 17—noon.—The current prices for American securities are as follows: United States 5-20s, 7 1/2; Erie Railway shares, 46; Illinois Central shares, 7 1/2.

BY STEAMER.

The Cunard emigrant steamer Palmyra, Capt. Wainman, which left Liverpool at 4 p. m. on the 14th, and was on the 22d of September, arrived here yesterday.

The Tripoli arrived at Liverpool on the afternoon, and the Damascus at Londonderry on the evening of the 3d of September.

THE RE-ENFORCEMENTS FOR CANADA.

From the Army and Navy Gazette.

In consequence of the appointment of a general of the Fenian raids upon Canadian territory, reinforcements will be at once sent to the Colony. The 53d and 61st Regiments, now in England, embark in a few days for Quebec, in Her Majesty's ships Temar and Ontario. The 10th Hussars, at York, will be ordered to Liverpool, and embark with their horses, which are being sent on board two of the Cunard steamers, for the transport of cavalry. It is also not improbable that the 66th Regiment, at Gibraltar, may be sent to Canada, and altogether a respectable addition will be made to the services of our North American Colonies.

It is stated that two gunboats have been lately added to the list of the Canadian fleet. These

THE CLEVELAND CONVENTION.

Gen. Wool Made Temporary President.

DISHEARTENING EFFECTS OF THE MAINE ELECTION.

Character of the Delegates, and their Probable Action.

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

CLEVELAND, Monday, Sept. 17, 1866. GLOOMY PROSPECTS.

Today was a gloomy one for the Johnson Soldiers' Convention. A severe rain-storm set in last evening and continued most of today. The place of assembling being in a large tent, about half the size of a common sized circus tent, the rain made it almost impossible to assemble.

The delegates, together with the response to their call sent by the Maine soldiers, were few and far between. The Maine delegates, however, brought in a goodly number of delegates, which helped swell the few already here.

Granger, McMahon, McQuade, and a lot of other ex-officio delegates, together with a number of New-York, arrived this morning. Fremont and Dix have not come yet.

STORY TIMES IN THE NEW-YORK DELEGATION.

A good deal of canvassing was done before the meeting of the Convention. The New-York delegation met in the morning at the bar-room of the Kenard House this morning and organized. Quite a squally session was held. Brevet Gen. McQuade, the Postmaster at Utica, was made temporary chairman. The meeting was a long, boring, and confusion time. Gordon Granger was made permanent chairman. During the discussion on Granger's election a delegate from Orleans county got up and said that he was sent by his constituents to represent them in the Convention. He said that he had no objection to Granger's election, but that he would not vote for him if he was elected.

THE DELEGATION'S VIEW OF THE DELEGATES.

The Convention met at 2 1/2 p. m. and was well filled. The delegates were anything but bright. They had expected a grand reception from the people of Cleveland, and their great disappointments made their hearts ache. The inhabitants here seem to have no sympathy with the Convention. They evidently look upon its members with pity and treat them with cold contempt to teach them a lesson. There is no enthusiasm, no admiring crowds to cheer the strangers, no flags or banners flying to celebrate the occasion. The delegates are disappointed and sad.

WHAT THE DELEGATES WILL DO.

They contemned three days in doing it. They will then go to Washington to show the President how faithful they and their actions are. As the representatives of soldiers who fought to put down the Rebellion, they will immediately lay their hands on the Constitution with 36 States and the flag with 36 stars. They will be acceptable to all delegates. They will be the only delegates to the Convention for the Union and the Constitution as our fathers gave them to us. This would include a flag with only 13 stars, omitting all the States since our fathers died. When the Constitution is presented to their master, setting forth the rights of the people, they will be the only delegates to the Convention who will be able to explain the following words: "We are a Radical Republican until he is defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE DELEGATES PRESENT.

In looking around on the members of the Convention, as they sat assembled for business, I saw many whose names were prominent and conspicuous was Custer. His call is explained by the remark of an Ohio delegate, who said, "Custer is a man with a good deal of hair, but very little brains." Custer has been supporting the President, and since his evidence before the Reconstruction Committee, and his reward was a promotion from Captain to Lieutenant-Colonel. Next to Custer comes Gen. Winters of Ohio. There are many men among the delegates who fought during the war, but I can not tell, unless you go with them. Winters' presence will be explained in the following words: "He was a Radical Republican until he was defeated in the nomination for Congress."

THE OHIO DELEGATION MEETING—A SCHEME PROPOSED.

The Ohio delegation held a meeting at the Kenard House, Cleveland, Monday, Sept. 17, 1866. The meeting was called by Gen. Lewis D. Campbell as Chairman, Col. Ewing, Gen. Fiske, Col. Barber, Gen. B. Senter and Major Brookfield, who are to have a conference with the Democratic State Convention at Columbus, Ohio, on the 20th inst. The meeting was held in the evening, and was attended by a large number of delegates, including Congressmen and all from the contest, and nominate a new ticket, composed wholly of Conservative-Republicans. It is hoped by this plan that the people will be brought to support the Democratic ticket, and that the Johnson party will be defeated. It is the last resort of a routed and panic-stricken army of swindlers.

A MEETING IN THE EVENING.

A small meeting was held to-night in the tent, at which several resolutions were adopted. The resolutions were of a most pro-Slavery character, the speakers being particularly to let their hearers know they did not fight to abolish Slavery. It is very evident from the speaking so far that the McClellan Democrats are in the ascendency here.

EFFECTS OF THE WEATHER ON THE DELEGATES.

The weather continues rainy, cool and disagreeable, and the delegates continue to look blue.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION.

CLEVELAND, Monday, Sept. 17, 1866.

OPENING SCENE.

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, in response to a call from those favorable to the policy of President Johnson and the action of the Philadelphia Convention of August 14, met this day. A pavilion 150 feet in length by 60 feet in breadth, had been erected in the Park for the use of the Convention. At 3 o'clock the delegates entered, preceded by a band of music, and were seated, after which the crowd from the outside was admitted and filled the tent to its utmost capacity. Previous to the organization, quite a lively and cheering scene was witnessed. Gen. Custer, Rousseau, Wood, McClellan, the Constitution, the 36 Stars, Andrew Johnson, and after a brief prayer by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, the Convention was organized. Gen. Steedman and Gov. Bramlette of Kentucky. As the cheering was called for and in each case there was a shout of approval, the Convention was organized and the delegates were seated.

THE ORGANIZATION.

By previous arrangement, Gov. Bramlette nominated Major Gen. W. A. Rorer as President of the Convention, and Gen. Steedman as Vice-President. The Convention was organized and the delegates were seated.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

GEN. WOOL'S ADDRESS.

Gen. Wool was greeted with loud cheers, and addressed the Convention. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West. He said that he was glad to see the Convention assembled, and that he was glad to see the delegates from the South and the West.

ANOTHER REBEL MASSACRE.

Shorts Murdered in Platte City, Missouri, by Rebels.

The Town Held by the Latter, Who Swear No Loyal Man Shall Live in It.

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

LEAVENWORTH, Monday, Sept. 17, 1866. A bloody and fearful tragedy occurred at Platte City, Mo., on Saturday last. The Radical Convention assembled at the church in Platte City on that day. There were about 100 men, including visiting delegations. The Convention put in nomination a ticket, and adjourned about 4 o'clock p. m. Just as the Convention adjourned, a mob of about 200 men, who were armed with revolvers, pistols, and shot-guns, entered the town. They first went to the street, where they played "Dixie," "The Bonnie Blue Flag," &c., and soon gathered about them a large crowd of armed men. A Union man, Thomas Dunnegan, being very noisy upon the street, the mob went to him and was the victim of a volley of fire, when a Constable named Calahan, of notorious Rebel record, came up with a posse of men and pointed out Dunnegan, who stood beside the Sheriff