

New-York Daily Tribune

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1866.

Advertisements for this week's issue of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE must be handed to the Proprietor.

THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, published this morning, contains an installment of George Eliot's famous story, 'Felix Holt, the Radical,' Foreign Correspondence from all parts of Europe, a Month among the Pennsylvania Coal Mines, The Late Tragedy at Chicago, Mining, Letter from Bayard Taylor, Agriculture, Letters, Anecdotes, General News, Terms, Editorials, Markets, and a Summary of the latest news.

On the inside pages of our issue of this morning will be found notices of the different Magazines; The Money Market; Commercial Reports, and items of importance.

Our Missouri letters and telegrams show the determination of the Rebels to carry the elections by violence; every where the example of New-Orleans is being followed.

Our Washington dispatches anticipate the important Diplomatic correspondence, which will soon be published by the Department of State. The interest taken in the fate of Jeff. Davis and American affairs generally, by the European Courts, is shown by the letters of Messrs. Bigelow and Rufus King.

The official investigation of the loss of the Evening Star has been finished, and the report sent to Washington. It is to the effect that the vessel and engines were in good order, and of sufficient strength, and that the cause of the loss was a crew of men.

Business Notices. DAVIS COLLAMORE & CO. No. 479 Broadway, Agents for the sale of the 'Brown's' and 'Brown's' Patent Saddle Cloth.

THE GREAT FIRE. In West and Washington, the East Broadway and Battery Railroad have laid diagonally from Ann-st. to Fulton.

THE LABOR QUESTION IN TEXAS. The wholesale vote in one branch of the Texas Legislature against the Constitutional Amendment, as well as the aspect of affairs generally in that region, will probably prevent the resister from being surprised at the movements now under way in Texas.

THE MAYOR OF QUEBEC. Mr. Smith Ely, Jr., one of the best members of the Board of Supervisors, has borne testimony to its evils. His letter declining a Democratic renomination we printed yesterday, and in it he emphatically said: 'If the Board of Supervisors continues to exist through another year, I know, from my past experience, that the efforts of no one member can arrest the tide of corruption which controls its proceedings.'

THE PROBABILITY OF AN APPEAL TO ARMS. The probability of an appeal to arms being made by President Johnson in his conflict with Congress, is being seriously discussed in the English press. By those, however, who are acquainted with the character of the American people, it is contended that there is no danger to be apprehended on this score.

GEN. BUTLER'S SOLDIERS. Copperhead 'Conservatism' has made several minor attempts to coddle the soldiers, not to mention the dead-set and its three-lamentable result under the left-handed auspices of Gen. McClellan.

THE REGISTRY. The Inspectors of Registry will hold their second and last session on Friday and Saturday, the 24 and 25 of November, next preceding the election, which occurs on the 6th.

TROUBLE IN MISSOURI. A RIOT AT LIBERTY—TWO MEN KILLED—THE REBELS TRACED ARRESTED—REBEL THREATS.

CUBA. SUCCESSION TO GEN. LURBAND, AS CAPTAIN-GENERAL, APPOINTED.

PUBLIC HEALTH. CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The weather is still cool and rainy, although milder than last week.

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE

It should be carefully observed that no person can be registered who would not on the day of election be entitled, under the Constitution and laws of the State, to exercise the right of suffrage in his election district.

Thus advised, we trust that every inspector as well as every voter will be awake to the importance of a full and fair registry and vote. Our friends are cautioned to make sure, on the day for revising registries, that all legal votes are registered, and all others waterfully stricken off.

THE CONVENTION OF 1867. All arguments against a Constitutional Convention are answered by one fact—the present Constitution, excellent as it is, does not protect us from tyranny and fraud.

old-fashioned Democrat, may be considered as a good witness. He said at Springfield, Ill., last Tuesday, that his Division of 6,000 Loops went into the war 'Democrats' almost to a man, and came out of it 'rank and file, Republicans, their residence in Louisiana having 'changed their ideas,' and given them a fresh set of opinions in all matters relating to Slavery.

to the election in Beaufort County. We quote: 'The candidates for the Senate drew the lines distinctly as between Union and Secession. The vote was in favor of the Union, and in favor of the Howard amendment, in case the President should fail. The county proper is at least 500 Union men majority strong. It was generally understood that Dockey was not a candidate, consequently there was no interest felt in his behalf.'
