

HOME NEWS.

THE CITY.

Nassau-st. was in a fearful condition yesterday.

Three infants, one living and two dead, were rescued from the jaws of death.

The Rev. Dr. Schenck of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the City.

Capt. J. Hennam of the British Red Cross, who arrived here yesterday, died on the passage and was buried at sea.

By request, Dr. Lambert is lecturing again on the subject of Longevity as applied to Life Insurance, at the Academy of Music.

It is proposed to obtain subscriptions for the relief of the family of Lavelle, the car-conductor, who was murdered on Monday night.

In the forthcoming billiard match between Bennett and Jones, the number of balls has been raised out, but push shots allowed.

Mr. John B. Dickinson has been unanimously elected President of the Tenth National Bank of this city, in place of Mr. E. J. Rose, deceased.

A female infant, found yesterday morning in the alley-way of No. 629 Hudson-st., was sent to the Commissioners of Charities and Correction.

Among the passengers by the Cuba, yesterday, were the Duke of Devonshire, and the King of Portugal.

The Rev. E. P. Rogers, D.D., will lecture on "The Tower of London," at the Lexington-ave. Presbyterian Church, corner Forty-second street.

Mr. H. R. Harburt, Controller of the Treasury, has been named as the first dividend on the National Banks that has been paid under the National Banking law.

Mrs. J. D. Gilmor of No. 205 Greenwich-st. has sent to the Franchise Board 30 letters of protest for the poor and loafers of that precinct, to be distributed under the direction of the Captain.

Mrs. Ellet, author of "Queens of American Society," will give readings, humorous and dramatic, at the Lecture Room, Church of the Holy Trinity.

A grand Orange and Protestant ball is announced by the Prince of Orange Lodge No. 10, at the City Hall, No. 100 Broadway, on Friday evening.

The promenade concert, given last night by the 6th Regiment Band in the Parochial Church building, in the Church of the Holy Trinity, was a success.

The proceeds are for the relief of the poor in the Assumption parish.

Thus far this winter there have been 53 days of good sleighing and 40 days of skating in the city.

On the Park roads and outside the city there have been at least 100 days of good sleighing during the present winter.

The closing exercises of the Grammar School at No. 29 Fourth-st., near Eighth-ave., were held last night.

The demand for admission was greater than the hall could accommodate. Some very interesting recitations were given.

A lecture on the "Criminal Institutions of New-York," is to be delivered this evening, by the Ladies F. M. E. Society, No. 5, by Wm. Skidmore, Esq., in the Society's Hall, corner of Forty-second and Broadway.

Four changes of horses took place yesterday morning and the City Hall yesterday morning on one of the Third-ave. lines of cars, and the passengers had several times to descend and push it along the track.

Rumors were affixed yesterday that the Cashier of Ezra Goodrich & Co., of New York, had succeeded with a large sum of money, amounting, it is said, to about $100,000 and $200,000. The police are at present at fault as to the veracity of the rumor.

A report was in circulation yesterday that, under authority from Washington, documentary evidence was collected, which showed conclusively that at least one revenue officer had been in collusion with parties engaged in defrauding the government of its revenue from taxation.

Miss Clara Barton, whose labors in behalf of the dead and disabled soldiers of the Union are well known to the public, will deliver a lecture at the Institute on Wednesday evening, the 26th inst., the proceeds of which will be devoted to the aid of disabled and veteran soldiers.

The following gentlemen were yesterday elected to serve as Trustees of the New-York and Clear Creek Gold Mining Company for the ensuing year: William Bigler, Augustus E. Packard, George P. Bradford, E. E. Rice, Samuel J. Connelley, George P. Bradford, Joseph M. Brown, Daniel Jackson, James M. McDonald, E. A. Packard, Lucien Brinkley.

The Third National Co-operative Building Society meets at Mr. John W. Farmer's Institute, No. 49 Ludlow-st., this evening. Shares have already been taken amounting to nearly $200,000, and the company has made their 3rd payment, amounting to $201,800, last evening at the same place. This society now has $1,054,840, and has advanced $3,465 to members.

A meeting of the Normans Quoit Club has been held, and the following officers were elected: Henry Sharp, President; A. C. Bell, Vice-President; Ward B. Meeker, Secretary; C. T. Wallace, Treasurer; George Manning, Master of the Quoit; and George Manning, Secretary of the Quoit. A general convention of all the quoit clubs should be held on the 16th of March, in this city.

A lecture was delivered last night at the Howard Mission and Home for Little Wanderers, at No. 40 New York-st., by Dr. T. F. Boynton, on "The Astronomical and Geological History of the Sun." Some of the most beautiful illustrations were made by the aid of an improved stereopticon. The hall was crowded, and the Professor delivered his lecture in a clear and lucid manner.

The semi-monthly report of the Commissioners of Emigration shows that during the month there has been a good demand for labor, and that more than 57 per cent of the emigrants applying for work, and 80 per cent of those of wages are for males, and 88 per cent for females, monthly.

Morris Beck, a German aged 20 years, was, early yesterday morning, found lying face down in Broadway near Houston-st. He was taken to the Eighth Ward Police Station, and there restored to consciousness, when he said that he had fallen into the gutter about a month ago, and that since that time he had obtained no employment, and that becoming destitute he had, after wandering around for some time, fallen into the gutter. He was released.

Mayor Hoffman has before him for approval a resolution, which has passed both Boards of the Common Council, in favor of paying with the Standard Pavement Company, the amount of $100,000, for the purpose of retaining the remainder of the week, that all interested may be heard.

Mrs. Mary Ann Duffin, who was fatally burned on Friday evening last, at her residence, No. 60 Mulberry-st., is reported to be recovering, and was discharged yesterday at the New-York Hospital. On the evening of a patient a pedlar named Keyes wished to sell Mrs. Duffin a patent non-explosive lamp, and to convince her of its safety, he filled it with kerosene oil and lighted it. In a moment after, it exploded, burning the woman terribly about the face, body and arms. The pedlar, frightened about the consequences of his act, fled from the room, leaving his stock of lamps behind. Coroner Collins will hold an inquest to-day.

Mr. Charles H. Hall, who has been nominated by the United States Senate for the position of Assessor in the XXXIII Collection District, is a son of the late Archibald Hall, who served in both branches of the Common Council in this city, and was Controller of the Port during the administration of Governor Morgan. The nominee for Assessor is a clerk to Justice Hogan in the Tombs Police Court, and resides in Madison-st. in the Seventh Ward. In politics he is identified with the Conservative Republicans, and was, and probably is, a secretary of the General Association.

The closing exercises of the female evening school in the Thirtieth Ward were held last night in the Methodist Church in Willet-st. The church was crowded and not even standing room left. The exercises were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Smith, and a solo, "Sing me to rest," was very nicely rendered by a pretty little girl, who afterwards took part in a dialogue.

Mrs. Farnsworth, who is happily married, is long and sung very nicely by a little girl in a scarlet garb, and a reading given by the senior class, which was a fair amount of proficiency in reading, and they were reading about an unusual thing among children.

The arrangements made in obedience to the instructions of the Commissioners of Charities and Correction for feeding and suffering poor has been completed, and yesterday morning a multitude of poverty-stricken women and children received a warm and comfortable meal. The relief is intended for station-house lodgers who have no homes; but many women with children, and included, are released with their children, and have been unemployed for some time, but that their husbands allowed them to remain in their rooms, although they were in arrears for rent, were among the number.

The great Liederkranz ball to-night promises to be the grand affair of the season. The costumes throughout the city have been entirely changed, and the dress-makers are so crowded with eager purchasers, that fashionable ladies have ordered their own dresses, apparently regardless of expense, determining to appear in an appropriate manner to the press for tickets has been unparalleled. The procession of Prince Carnival to move about 11 p. m. The music is to be furnished by the Liederkranz orchestra, and the entertainment will be replete with humor and jollity.

In the trial of the Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, the case has been left in the hands of the court, who are to report their decision on the charges in writing, whether guilty or not guilty, and if guilty specify the punishment to be inflicted. A copy of this decision is to be placed without delay in the hands of the accused, and a second copy in the hands of the prosecuting attorney, in the case, to be sent to the bishop of the diocese. It will then remain with the bishop to affirm or annul the sentence, and to modify the punishment fixed by the court, but has no power to increase it. If convicted, the court has no power to increase it. It is expected, however, that the court will have at least three clerical, and as many others as care to be present.

The evening form schools of the city closed last evening, with appropriate exercises at each of the various schools. The programmes of exercises were of all the same general character, embracing recitations, declamations, singing, reading, and other exercises.

As in the case of the day schools, the exercises were filled with the friends of the pupils and others interested in the cause of education, all of whom were present in large numbers, and great interest was manifested by the pupils. At the Seventh Ward school, of which Mr. A. T. Gallagher is principal, addresses were delivered by the Messrs. W.

H. Thrall, Dennis J. Twigg, James Collins, Dennis Dunn, and others. At the Seventeenth Ward school, attended by the Messrs. Messrs. Frohlicher and Steinbrener. The exercises at the Tenth Ward school, in which an exhibition of musical talent was given, were varied and attractive, and was carried out in a manner which evidently had been planned for the occasion. The exercises were given to do honor to the occasion. Some dramatic dialogues were exceedingly well rendered, and evoked frequent bursts of applause from the audience.

The closing exercises of the Fifth Ward Evening School for males, Mr. Thomas W. Conklin, Principal, were held in the North Moore-st. Public School, on Monday evening last. The large assembly-room, which had been handsomely decorated for the occasion, was packed with the pupils of the school, and the exercises were conducted by one of the pupils of the school, and surrounded by a beautiful fire.

The project of the plan of the school, which was interspersed with singing by a large German Glee Club, composed mainly of pupils from the German class connected with the school, which was conducted by Prof. Louis Warner. The exercises concluded with the distribution of 150 certificates. This school, always one of the largest in the city, has been better attended this winter than ever before.

Every seat and almost every available standing place in the large hall of St. Francis Xavier College was occupied last evening by a throng of men and women, and young people of both sexes, who were present to attend the semi-annual literary exercises of the Debating Society attached to the college. The subject discussed was "The Progress of Science," by Messrs. E. O'Hare, W. C. F. Orr, J. S. Colton, P. Condon, and L. E. Hostler, who respectively selected as their "Progress of Science," "Progress of Artistic Discovery," "Progress of Physical Astronomy," and "Dangers of Progress of Science." The exercises were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Archbishop McElwee, who presided over the meeting. The College choir, accompanied by Noll's band, sung selections from the works of the more eminent and popular composers.

An adjourned meeting of the New-York Holt Education Association was held last night in Room No. 24 Cooper Institute, to perfect the organization and to discuss the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. A meeting of this Association was held at the Astor House on the 12th inst., at which a committee was appointed to suggest a plan of operations, present a report, and submit a series of by-laws for consideration. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling, of the debt which she had inherited from her husband. But the Holt family in conclusion last night seemed very sanguine, and each representative paid his $25 with a degree of confidence and ease which was refreshing. The annual meeting of the association is to be held at an early day.

The Board of Education met last evening at 5 o'clock, in the presence of the Commissioner of Education, Wilson Smith, presiding. The two Committees on the Commission of Studies and Teachers, were appointed a joint committee to report on the subject of the consolidation of the Holt estates in England. The committee reported last night to the great satisfaction of the numerous outpouring of the Holt family. The estates to which they lay claim are those of the late John Holt, Chief-Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Holt, nee Laneshire, and a very considerable amount of money in the High Court of Chancery, which she had inherited from her husband, the memory of whom runs unbroken to the contrary, it has been a matter of great difficulty to extract proof, shilling by shilling,