

THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT. LONDON, Nov. 25, 1868. Rampant hatred of the Irish, the Tory cause, and the Tory crew, have done their work, and Mr. Gladstone is not member for South-West Lancashire.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Includes Gladstone (13,704), Disraeli (10,304), and others.

At the election in 1865, when S. E. and W. V. voted together as the South Lancashire, Mr. Gladstone was third on the poll; the vote being, Egerton 9,171, Turner, 8,506, Gladstone, 8,286; and he had just 310 votes more than his next lowest opponent.

And the remark ought to be repeated here which I have made with reference to Westminster and other constituencies where the Liberal majority has not been brought to the poll. The Liberal organization is loose, and the Liberals throw away many a battle from imperfect discipline.

FRANCE.

DEATH OF PROMINENT MEN—BARON ROTHSCHILD AND ROSSINI—WEALTH OF THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD.

PARIS, Nov. 20.—On the 12th of this month died Ha-vin, the Director of the Stock newspaper, born in 1796. On the 13th died Rossi, the composer, born 1792. On the 15th, died James, last of the five sons of Mayer, founder of the financial empire of Rothschild.

Of the six persons who spoke at the cemetery in eulogy of the deceased, two, the Grand Rabbi of Paris, Albert Kohn, and Isidore, the Grand Rabbi of France, especially emphasized his benevolence and even amiability of nature.

At the election in 1865, when S. E. and W. V. voted together as the South Lancashire, Mr. Gladstone was third on the poll; the vote being, Egerton 9,171, Turner, 8,506, Gladstone, 8,286; and he had just 310 votes more than his next lowest opponent.

MEXICO.

THE MEXICAN QUESTION AT LARGE.

MEXICO, Nov. 5.—He would be bold who, after a brief experience of Mexico, would care to venture prediction as to the interior fate of its strange people. This problem has been given up to hope and to doubt, neither quite unmingled.

As to the first class of opinions described, it may be well contended that, whatever the resulting condition of things under Juarez, the state of Mexico under Maximilian would in all probability have been far worse.

As to the first class of opinions described, it may be well contended that, whatever the resulting condition of things under Juarez, the state of Mexico under Maximilian would in all probability have been far worse.

CUBA.

PERUVIAN IRON-CLADS AT NEW-ORLEANS—PERUVIANS AND ENEMIES OF SPAIN PLOTTING AT NEW-YORK—BALMASEDA AND THE PEACE PROPOSITIONS—BATTLE BETWEEN THE SPANIARDS AND INSURGENTS AT COBRE—THE FORMER UNDER ORDERS OF GEN. MUÑOZ.

HAVANA, Nov. 30.—There is some apprehension felt about these Peruvian iron-clads now lying at New-Orleans. The Cuban belief is that these vessels will be found about Neuva. Well informed residents in Havana, and who belong to neither of the contending parties, believe that the Peruvians are principally directing the insurrectionary movements in this island.

Gen. Muñoz, Commander at St. de Cuba, forwards the official report of the battle of Cobre to the Captain-General. The engagement took place in the town of Cobre, which is near St. de Cuba. This is in the heart of the copper mines country.

The Philadelphia Mint turned out during November, 5,625 gold pieces, worth $180,754 77; 167,700 silver pieces, worth $42,700; and 2,465,000 pieces of base coin, worth $12,800.

PERUVIANS AND ENEMIES OF SPAIN PLOTTING AT NEW-YORK—BALMASEDA AND THE PEACE PROPOSITIONS—BATTLE BETWEEN THE SPANIARDS AND INSURGENTS AT COBRE—THE FORMER UNDER ORDERS OF GEN. MUÑOZ.

HAVANA, Nov. 30.—There is some apprehension felt about these Peruvian iron-clads now lying at New-Orleans. The Cuban belief is that these vessels will be found about Neuva. Well informed residents in Havana, and who belong to neither of the contending parties, believe that the Peruvians are principally directing the insurrectionary movements in this island.

Gen. Muñoz, Commander at St. de Cuba, forwards the official report of the battle of Cobre to the Captain-General. The engagement took place in the town of Cobre, which is near St. de Cuba. This is in the heart of the copper mines country.

The Philadelphia Mint turned out during November, 5,625 gold pieces, worth $180,754 77; 167,700 silver pieces, worth $42,700; and 2,465,000 pieces of base coin, worth $12,800.

PERUVIANS AND ENEMIES OF SPAIN PLOTTING AT NEW-YORK—BALMASEDA AND THE PEACE PROPOSITIONS—BATTLE BETWEEN THE SPANIARDS AND INSURGENTS AT COBRE—THE FORMER UNDER ORDERS OF GEN. MUÑOZ.

HAVANA, Nov. 30.—There is some apprehension felt about these Peruvian iron-clads now lying at New-Orleans. The Cuban belief is that these vessels will be found about Neuva. Well informed residents in Havana, and who belong to neither of the contending parties, believe that the Peruvians are principally directing the insurrectionary movements in this island.

Gen. Muñoz, Commander at St. de Cuba, forwards the official report of the battle of Cobre to the Captain-General. The engagement took place in the town of Cobre, which is near St. de Cuba. This is in the heart of the copper mines country.

The Philadelphia Mint turned out during November, 5,625 gold pieces, worth $180,754 77; 167,700 silver pieces, worth $42,700; and 2,465,000 pieces of base coin, worth $12,800.