NATIONAL CAMP MEETING.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS—A MARRIAGE ON THE CAMP GROUNDS—ARRIVAL OF THE CAMP FINDING THE LOSING SALVATION—RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE AFFECTED BY RAISING HOFS AND BY CARTING MILK ON SUNDAY.

ROUND LAKE, July 5.—Yesterday, breezy and entirely agreeable, ended in tears. At nightfall rain began to descend leisurely in huge drops, which gradually developed into an old-fashioned, orthodox rain for the night. Services were held in the tabernacle and were said to be full of interest. Considerable shouting and praying were kept up within the circle of tents, to which my ears can bear testimony. The rain came out brilliantly, the birds carried a gentle breeze shook the rain drops off the trees, and everything gave radiant promise, which has been fully realized. Arrivals have been constant and large in numbers. One young man and maiden came with the express purpose of being united in the bonds of matrimony. They brought a blank marriage certificate with them from Saratoga. Parson Inskip performed the ceremony, and your correspondent had the honor of being applied to for pen and ink with which to "make out the papers." The bridegroom, who was a gentle breeze, a very composed manner while the bride was finishing the business. Happy pair, to have escaped the trials and vexations, the actually demoralizing preliminaries and supplicatives of a fashionable wedding. God bless them!

THE KUK-KUX.

THE CONGRESS INVESTIGATION—MORE "CONSERVATIVE" TESTIMONY—AN OUTRAGE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The Ku-Klux Investigating Committee to-day examined Judge Pettis and Col. Pugh of Alabama. Their testimony was similar to the evidence previously given by Governor Lindsay and other Conservative witnesses, that no good organization or respect for the law prevail in that State. Col. Pugh at the outbreak of the war was member of Congress from Alabama and was afterwards a member of the Rebel Congress from the same State. J. M. Justice ofutherford County, North Carolina, a prominent native Republican member of the Legislature of that State, was examined at great length prior to the examination of Messrs. Pettis and Pugh, and gave very direct testimony in relation to affairs in his section. He testified that some five weeks ago a party of 40 or 50 armed and disguised men came to his house, took him out of bed, and in the presence of his family, beat him fearfully with clubs and pistols. They then carried him into the woods, and, threatening his life, made him promise not to come to Washington to testify before the Committee concerning various outrages which had been previously committed in that vicinity. They then left him, and he managed to get home, where he was confined to his bed for three weeks from the effect of severe internal injuries caused by his beating. Justice swore he believed this and similar outrages were part of a regular system of political intimidation, and were not merely neighborhood quarrels. He believed firmly in the existence of the Ku-Klux Klan in North Carolina.

PROGRESS OF THE TRIALS IN MISSISSIPPI—TEN OF THE PRISONERS RELEASED ON BAIL.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 6.—A special dispatch from Oxford, Miss., last evening, to The Associated Press, in the Ku-Klux cases, the closing argument by the defense was resumed by Col. Dowd. He contended that an indictment found on the preliminary power in the Constitution was a violation of the law. He contended that Congress on the Civil Rights bill and the Enforcement Act was directed to the protection of citizens of the United States and not to persons.

A YOUNG MAN SHOT BY A HORNAMULLIST.

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Somerset P. Robinson, son of the Third-st. banker, was seriously wounded this morning by a pistol shot fired by his friend Harry W. Bartol, while the latter was in a somnolent state. The two friends slept together at Bartol's residence during the absence of the family in the country. Some time after the house was entered by burglars, and since that time Bartol has kept a pistol by his bedside. Just previous to retiring last night the friends were conversing on the subject of the burglary, and it is supposed that while dreaming on the same subject he rose in his sleep and discharged the pistol. A hearing before the magistrate took place this morning. Bartol is necessarily in custody to await the result of the injuries of his friend.

AN ALLEGED MURDERER HANGED BY A MOB.

CHICAGO, July 6.—A dispatch from Waukegan, Illinois, says that a mob of citizens of that town and the surrounding country, to the number of about 100, including men, women and children, proceeded to the jail in that place last night, and took therefrom Martin Mera, charged with the murder of his son, a lad of 10 years. Mera was taken to a convenient place near at hand, where, after giving him 20 minutes to pray, a rope was placed around his neck, thrown over a limb of a tree, and hundreds of ready hands hauled him up, and held him there until he was dead. The mob's leader was Dr. Daniels of Gilman, and his associates included a man named Mera, who had been charged with manslaughter, and for that reason they were justified in putting the murderer beyond the reach of mercy.

A TORNAO IN WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, West Va., July 6.—A terrible storm of wind and rain, accompanied by fearful lightning, passed over Moundsville, 12 miles below Wheeling, this afternoon. The stockade and one prisoner escaped. Penitentiary was unroofed, fences demolished, and great quantities of grain destroyed.

HOW THE WIND BLOWS IN WISCONSINA.

CHICAGO, July 6.—During the storm in Nebraska, last night a train on the Fremont and Blair Railroad was lifted from the track and blown 20 feet from the rails. An infant was killed, the mail agent was fatally wounded, and 12 other persons were more or less hurt. Gen. Belknap, Secretary of War, is in the city.

PROPELLER ASHORE.

WOOD'S HOLE, Mass., July 6.—A schooner-rigged propeller, bound for Boston, and supposed to be from Philadelphia, ran ashore on Middle Ground at high water this afternoon. A schooner is alongside carrying out the anchor. The wind is southwest and light.

HOW GERMAN EMIGRANTS ARE SWINDLED.

Jacob Otto, alias Othenheimer, one of a gang of swindlers at the head of which was yesterday arrested, was charged with defrauding A. Engler, a German, out of $200 in gold. Nearly four months ago Engler and his friend F. Baden came to this city on their way to Germany. They were induced by a stranger to visit Othenheimer's office, and have their currency changing into gold. The coin was placed in belts, amounting to it as they found they had been defrauded. Engler, a German, returned to his native land, and was unable to find the swindler. He was induced by a stranger to visit Othenheimer's office, and have their currency changing into gold. COOLIE SERVANTS HAVE DRAWBACKS WHICH THE CAUCASIAN FINDS IT DIFFICULT TO OVERGET.

A St. Louis household which has for some time enjoyed the orderliness and celebrity of an almond-eyed Celestial, was thrown into consternation the other morning at prayers by the perplexing antics of the "China" boy. The Celestial, a native of the family by rapturous and piously worshipping the brass-and-iron at the fireplace, and what is more perplexing, the previous troupe of his spiritualizing four months ago.
