COMPLETING GLADSTONE'S VICTORY. LOUIS BLANC ON THE LIBERAL TRIUMPH—TALK OF A TORY-PARNELL ALLIANCE—BEACONSFIELD OUT OF FAVOR WITH THE QUEEN—LOUD CALLS FOR GLADSTONE AS PREMIER.

London, Saturday, April 10, 1880. Louis Blanc condenses the result of the election into a phrase declaring that the Liberal victory is a triumph of political morality. The English Tories, calculating their own country, circulate the wildest fictions in explanation of their defeat, even alleging that constituencies have been bought with Russian gold.

THE NET LIBERAL GAINS. The net Liberal gains, excluding Home Rulers, exceed a hundred seats. The clear Liberal majority, over Tories and Home Rulers combined, is about forty. Not since 1835 have the Tories been so weak numerically and so discredited morally.

MR. PARNELL'S ATTEMPT AT IRISH DIKTATORSHIP COLLAPSES, NOTWITHSTANDING HIS PERSONAL TRIUMPH AT CORK. The successful attacks made by a few opponents elsewhere present results which forbade a decrease in the whole number of Home Rulers. It is doubtful whether Mr. Parnell's personal followers will exceed a dozen.

THE IRISH ELECTIONS. Mr. Parnell's attempt at Irish dictatorship collapses, notwithstanding his personal triumph at Cork. The successful attacks made by a few opponents elsewhere present results which forbade a decrease in the whole number of Home Rulers.

THE TORIES TRYING TO EXPLAIN. The Tory journals devote themselves to inventing ingenious theories to account for the defeat. Degeneration in trade, bad harvests, democratic caprice, Liberal misrepresentations and many other fictitious causes are assigned.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN THE FRENCH CAPITAL—COURTESIES TO NORDENSKJÖLD—MADAME ADAM'S RECEPTION. Paris, Saturday, April 10, 1880. The Prince of Wales is being making the round of the theatres and studios. He sat yesterday for his portrait to Bastien Lepage, who is authorized to do copies for the Princess Hagan and other ladies.

THE FARMERS JOIN IN THE UPRISING. Lord Beaconsfield's overthrow, which was completed by the English boroughs and the subsequent Liberal county victories, turned frequently on the farmer's intense dissatisfaction at the predominance of landlordism in the Tory councils.

THE QUEEN ANGRY WITH BEACONSFIELD. Demonstrations in favor of Mr. Gladstone as Premier are daily increasing. Both sides agree that this is his victory. The country followed his lead and insists on the right to demand that he shall relinquish personal reluctance and resume the leadership.

THE WORK OF CONGRESS.

WONDERFUL DEMOCRATIC SELF-CONTROL. THE ARMY BILL BEFORE THE HOUSE—DEBATE ON THE "RIDER"—THE TREATY OF KELLOGG'S GREAT—HEWITT'S UNWELCOME LETTER.

The House yesterday considered the Army bill; the Republicans severely denounced the "rider" in regard to troops at the polls, but the Democrats restrained themselves, and refused to defend their work. The Democratic Senatorial caucus is undecided when to take up the Kellogg-Spofford case, and the subject has been temporarily laid aside.

DEBATE ON THE ARMY BILL. EXTRAORDINARY EXHIBITION OF DEMOCRATIC SELF-RESTRAINT—SPEECHES CONFINED TO THE REPUBLICAN SIDE—MR. ROBESON'S AMENDMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Surely never before in the history of the American Congress did the members of the dominant party in that body show such an example of self-restraint as was exhibited by the Democratic members of the House of Representatives throughout the session of to-day, which was devoted to the consideration of the Army bill.

FOR THE TIME BEING EVERY ONE OF THEM PERFORMED THE OFFICE OF "TALL HOLDER" FOR HIMSELF. They could not have been more silent if the threat uttered by Mr. Sparks, of Illinois, the other day had been in earnest that if any Democrats should undertake to debate the political section of the Army Appropriation bill, they would "shoot him on the spot."

THE DEMOCRATS SEEM AT LEAST TO REALIZE THAT THE LEAST THEY SAY THE BETTER IT WILL BE FOR THEM. In vain did General Hawley, Mr. Robeson, General Keifer, Mr. Frye and others to-day try to gild the effusive Mr. Cox and the loquacious Mr. Blackburn into saying something. They remained as mute as statues.

THERE WERE ONLY TWO EXCEPTIONS TO THE GENERAL DEMOCRATIC SILENCE. One was when Mr. Cox went up to the clerk's desk and had read a passage from "Georgia scenes," which created much merriment, and operated as a safety valve for the repressed feelings of his political associates.

MR. SPARKS DECLARED THAT HE WAS NOT SATISFIED WITH THE AMENDMENT. He said "this tame, cowardly amendment does not come up to the standard of legislation I would adopt. Had I the power, I would insist upon something much stronger. I would wipe out this un-American, un-republican, un-democratic, villainous statute, which owes its existence to the inspirations of fanaticism, and the era of hate and insult to the sovereign people of this country."

AT THE CLOSE OF MR. SPARKS'S REMARKS, HE WAS ASKED BY SEVERAL REPUBLICANS TO EXPLAIN THE MEANING OF THE AMENDMENT HE HAD OFFERED. This he declined to do, and curtly refused to answer any questions whatever. He had something to say about the Democratic anxiety to get through with this bill so that the House could go on and pass other measures.

GENERAL HAWLEY MADE THE FIRST SPEECH ON THE REPUBLICAN SIDE TO-DAY. He warned the Democrats that they could not stifle debate on this question by simply voting to say nothing themselves. The debate was even in progress, and it would not close until the people themselves were ready to vote upon this and other questions next November.

MR. COX FOUND IT ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE TO KEEP STILL, AND ONCE HE WENT SO FAR AS TO INTERRUPT GENERAL HAWLEY WITH A QUESTION. The answer which he received was very satisfactory to the House, if not to Mr. Cox himself.

MR. ROBESON MADE AN ARGUMENT WHICH WOULD HAVE CONVINCED ANY MAN EXCEPT A DEMOCRAT. He covered nearly the same ground and repeated many of the arguments which he used in his great speech in the extra session. Mr. Robeson made one very strong point, under which the more conservative Democrats visibly winced, and several of them appeared to be almost ready to answer his appeal to them for an explanation.

TOWARD THE CLOSE OF THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS THE DEMOCRATS MADE SEVERAL ATTEMPTS TO REACH AN UNBROKEN POINT. The first was a motion to adjourn until to-morrow. Mr. Clymer, who it is said, is going away next Monday in order to be married, was especially anxious that a vote should be taken to-day. The Democrats, however, resolutely refused to make any arrangements until all who desire to speak have an opportunity to do so, and, as usual, the Democrats were obliged to retreat.

THE HOUSE TO-DAY CONCURRED IN THE APPOINTMENT OF A JOINT COMMITTEE TO TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION THE ALLEGED LOSS OF REVENUE ARISING FROM THE EVASION OF THE TAX ON CIGARS AND OTHER ARTICLES SUBJECT TO EXCISE DUTY.

COLONEL E. R. CHAPMAN, CHIEF OF THE STAMP DIVISION, HAS ACCEPTED AN APPOINTMENT AS INTERIOR ASSISTANT AGENT. Colonel A. H. Holt has been assigned to duty as Chief of the Stamp Division, and General W. S. Clark has been appointed Chief Clerk.

THE CONSTRUCTED ROAD OF THE CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE AND ST. PAUL RAILWAY COMPANY FROM ALGONA WESTWARD TO SHELDON, IN THE STATE OF IOWA, WAS NOT BUILT UPON THE BASIS OF A CONTRACT FILED IN THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT IN 1869. The Secretary of the Interior has decided that the engineering difficulties to contend with warranted the slight deviation, and the land grant is consequently not affected thereby.

THE EXODUS COMMITTEE EXAMINED A LARGE NUMBER OF WITNESSES TO-DAY, PRINCIPALLY FROM SHREVEPORT, LA., AND MANY OF THEM COLORED, WHO SAID THERE WAS NO TROUBLE BETWEEN THE COLORED PEOPLE AND THE WHITES. Many of the colored witnesses testified to owning property, and that industrious, frugal members of their race had not been molested. Mr. Blair asked the chairman had not summoned the most prosperous members of the race, but got no answer.

A SOUTHERN RAILROAD UNION. LOUISVILLE, April 10.—There was a special called meeting of the directors of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad to-day. The president placed before the board the contract and alliance, perfected with the Georgia Central, Georgia and Western and Atlantic Railroads.

WHEN TO STEAL KELLOGG'S SEAT. DEMOCRATS UNDECIDED ABOUT THE BEST TIME TO ACT—DIVISION OF SENTIMENT ON THE SUBJECT. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The Democratic Senators have spent four hours in caucus to-day and have again failed to agree to any definite line of policy in regard to the Kellogg-Spofford case, and for the present they have given up the effort.

THIS IS REALLY NO DECISION AT ALL, AND THE TIME WHEN THE KELLOGG-SPOFFORD CASE WILL COME BEFORE THE SENATE FOR ACTION, WHETHER DURING THE PRESENT SESSION OR UNTIL NEXT DECEMBER, IS STILL A QUESTION OF CONSIDERABLE DOUBT, WITH THE PROBABILITIES IN FAVOR OF ITS CONSIDERATION DURING THIS SESSION.

ONE VERY IMPORTANT FACT HAS BEEN DISCLOSED DURING THE SERIES OF CAUCUSES, AND THAT IS, MANY DEMOCRATIC SENATORS HOLD THE OPINION VERY POSITIVELY THAT THE SENATE HAS NO RIGHT TO REOPEN THE KELLOGG-SPOFFORD CASE AT ALL. Among those who are known to be of this opinion are Senators Thurman, Bayard,
