THE SAN FRANCISCO MURDER.

NO PAMPHLET ISSUED BY DE YOUNG. THE DOCUMENT PUBLISHED BY A KANSAS EDITOR—YOUNG KALLOCH SILENT—NO PUBLIC EXCITEMENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The De Young tragedy is the theme of universal comment on the street. The citizens deplore such recourse to violent means of redress. They believe that the provocation in this case was altogether inadequate, more particularly as Mayor Kalloch, who was the object of the Chronicle's assault, is amply capable of fighting his own battles; but there is not noticeable any marked expression of grief or indignation except on the part of the personal friends of the deceased man.

On being asked what he considered the causes leading to the shooting, he replied that he did not know. Referring to the circulation of the pamphlet about Kalloch, he said: "I do not know it was his grievance or not. He certainly had no reason to think that my brother had anything to do with the pamphlet. We had nothing to do with it, and I am sure that it was not in circulation until some one or other of my friends in the city sent it to him."
