

TAMMANY STILL SURLY.

PLAYING THE CONCILIATION FARCE. MR. KELLY BRINGS HIS STATE COMMITTEE TOGETHER AT SARATOGA—HE WITHDRAWS HIS ELECTORAL TICKET, BUT ISSUES A BITTER ADVICE EXCITING IN THE OVERTHROW OF ROBINSON AND TILDEN—TAMMANY SEEKING "REGULARITY."

The electoral ticket nominated by the Tammany or Shakespeare Hall Convention at Saratoga in April was withdrawn at the meeting of the State Committee of the same Democratic faction yesterday in Saratoga. An address full of venom toward the Tilden Democrats was adopted, and a committee of five members was appointed to confer with the regular State Committee in regard to a State Convention. John Kelly was at the head of the committee which prepared the address.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE ELECTORAL TICKET EFFECTED—A WAR WHOOP AT TILDEN'S DEFEAT—SEEKING "REGULARITY" AGAIN. SARATOGA, N. Y., July 23.—The State Committee of the Tammany Democrats met here at 11 o'clock to-day, and was called to order by John H. Colby, chairman. Every member was present or represented by a substitute. William Sawyer appeared for Augustus Schell, F. L. Westbrook for P. J. Flynn, E. J. Moynihan for Erastus Corning, C. B. Freeman for C. H. Batchelder, Peter Hozan for G. J. Magee, Edward Kearney for S. T. Arnold, and Edward Newcomb for John Walls.

Secretary Skeels said that he had resignations from all the candidates for electors nominated at Saratoga. Mr. Page, of Oswego, moved their acceptance. Mr. Cowen, of Saratoga, thought it better to appoint a committee of five to confer with other organizations before accepting the resignations. No action was taken on the question.

On motion of John Kelly, the chairman appointed a committee of five to act with the chairman and Secretary of the Committee to prepare an address. The following were the names of the committee: John Kelly, William W. Wright, E. S. Jemmy, Alanson S. Page, and F. L. Westbrook. The committee took a recess till 4 o'clock.

When the committee reassembled, the following resolution, offered by E. S. Jemmy, of Saratoga, was adopted: "Resolved, That while our constituents had no part in the nomination of the electoral ticket headed by the Hon. Abram S. Hewitt, we recognize in the national candidates that they will vote for our national candidates, and our success would be jeopardized by retaining two electoral tickets in the State, as has been done by the Shakespeare Hall Convention, and determine that the union and harmony of the Democracy will be best secured by withdrawing our electoral ticket."

A committee, consisting of the Hon. John Kelly, W. W. Wright, E. S. Jemmy, A. S. Page, F. L. Westbrook, John H. Colby and R. M. Skeels, presented the following address to the Democracy of the State, which was adopted:

FELLOW-DEMOCRATS OF NEW-YORK: The Democratic State Committee chosen at the Convention held in Shakespeare Hall, Saratoga, September 10, 1879, congratulate you upon the action of the Democratic National Convention, in nominating General Winfield S. Hancock for President and General John A. Logan for Vice-President of these United States. The occasion calls for gratitude and inspires unbounded confidence and enthusiasm in our party and the best hopes of the Democracy of the Union are realized in having for their chosen leaders men of such distinguished patriotism, talents and ability, and of such universal respect and honor to their election, as the champions and representatives of sound Democratic principles let all the energies and efforts of the Democracy of this and all the States be united in the support of this and all the States on a glorious victory.

BEASTING OVER THE BELL.

It is needless for us to recount the circumstances which led to and necessitated our organization. They have become matters of history. The step taken and those which followed it have been completely justified by the result. An organized and democratic attempt to use the power and prestige of a great party for personal ends, and to the injury of a portion of that party, which had always been loyal and faithful to its principles and cause. That protest was effectual. The ballots of 77,566 Democratic citizens, who had moral courage to resist and resist a great wrong, have taught officials, who would have yielded to a party government, that they cannot use their authority to trample upon members of their own party in defiance of right and reason; that the "machine" has no place in a Democracy; that the best hopes of the Democracy must never arise in any party, but they should be dealt with in an open and honorable way, and never should individuals be broken down in reputation and estate on account of differences honestly held and courteously maintained.

THE GUMBLETON GRIEVANCE AGAIN.

Official power conveyed to do wrong, to remove officers without just cause or a fair hearing, to crush individuals and entail expensive litigations upon municipalities. The protest made at the polls in behalf of Democratic principles and methods has had the salutary effect of pointing out the line beyond which official authority cannot venture with impunity. The action of 1879 will not need repeating. The nomination of Hancock, the soldier-statesman of Pennsylvania, has hit the whole party above embarrassing local and State distractions to a broad national ground, and has letted out past alienations by a grand hope. There is now one party, one work, one way, in which all Democrats should heartily unite, and to which they should devote their utmost zeal. Let past alienations be forgotten. Bared forever, let the Democratic party be united in the support of Hancock and Logan, and let those who should cooperate, sacrifice personal preferences and ambitions on the altar of a reunited party.

UTICA VETERANS FOR GARFIELD.

A LARGE SOLDIERS' CLUB ORGANIZED—AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING. (BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

UTICA, N. Y., July 23.—The soldiers of Utica made up their minds a few days ago that they would show the people how the veterans stand toward General Garfield. So they organized the largest soldiers' club ever formed in the State.

THE REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS.

The bright sun of yesterday had the effect of adding largely to the number of callers at the Republican headquarters; and the mail was very much larger than on any previous day since the rooms were opened. A letter was received from the Indiana Republican State Committee's headquarters, in which the writer states:

"This State is better organized to-day than it ever was at any period in any former canvass; but notwithstanding that is the fact we feel that we are not yet fully organized to work. Our active canvass will begin again on Monday. We are holding a number of meetings now, but the canvass will be heavy from and after the middle of August."

HITTING AT TILDEN.

For years there has been a growing tendency in the Republican party, and unfortunately to some extent in our own, to use organizations formed for, and devoted to, public objects for selfish personal ends. Too much have our conventions been left to the control of committees and irresponsible combinations. The time demands that the people shall take their own and control the action of the party through their chosen delegates, without official interference or personal intervention. The action of 1879 taught this important lesson.

grand old party of Jefferson and Jackson wavered. We struck a blow at political despotism, which was used to injure a people, to ruin faithful Democratic officers, to throttle our principles and imperil the result of the National election this year. There is something higher and grander than regularity when regularity is obtained by corrupt means—the principles of our party, the public good, justice and honor. We struck, not to wound, but to save, and our sturdy blows made a National victory possible. We have achieved our purpose by contributing to the nomination of a Presidential ticket that will be elected. We heartily commend the electors chosen at our recent State Convention held at Saratoga for their voluntary resignations in favor of the electoral ticket headed by the name of the Hon. Abram S. Hewitt. Let everything be done to show brother Democrats in this and other States our supreme devotion to the great cause all true Democrats have at heart and the result will meet our most sanguine expectations.

Henry D. Parroy then offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

"Whereas, The wise and patriotic action of the Democratic National Convention recently assembled at Cincinnati, in placing before the people of the United States as candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States, General Winfield Scott Hancock and the Hon. William H. English, has settled all differences which have divided the Democratic party upon National issues in this State; therefore,

Resolved, That with a view of having a convention in this State wherein all members of the Democracy of this State may be fully and properly represented, a sub-committee of five be appointed by the chair to confer with the Democratic State Committee of which the Hon. Lester K. Faulkner is chairman, and that the sub-committee be clothed with full power in the premises.

The chairman appointed as the committee Patrick H. Cowen, of Saratoga, Robert W. Edmonds, of Westchester, Anthony Barrett, of Kings, and Gardner Lloyd of Albany, and Edward J. Morgan, of Albany. The committee then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

GENERAL POLITICAL NEWS.

JUDGE MCCRYRY'S OPINION OF GARFIELD.

A LETTER IN WHICH HE PAYS A HIGH TRIBUTE TO THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE—HIS THOROUGH KNOWLEDGE AND HIGH ESTIMATION OF GARFIELD'S CHARACTER. (BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Hon. George W. McCrary, late Secretary of War and now Judge of the United States Court for the Eighth Circuit, has written a letter to a friend in this city which deserves publication, not only because of the ability and high character of the writer, but because of his special acquaintance with the subject matter. Judge McCrary was a member of the Poland Committee of the House of 1873. He states with precision the judgment of the Committee, and places the question, so far as it can touch General Garfield, beyond the reach of unfriendly criticism. The letter is as follows:

KEOKUK, IOWA, July 17, 1880. To the Hon. CHARLES BARNES, Washington, D. C. My dear Sir: I have just received from St. Paul a copy of your inquiry, I say, without qualification, that I regard General Garfield as a man of thorough integrity, of a high moral character, of a high intellect, and of a high character of mind. I am glad to find you favor of the 16th ult. awaiting me. In reply to your inquiry I say, without qualification, that I regard General Garfield as a man of thorough integrity, of a high moral character, of a high intellect, and of a high character of mind. THE SITUATION IN VIRGINIA.

THE REPUBLICANS HOPEFUL OF ELECTING FIVE MEMBERS OF CONGRESS—BITTER FEELING AMONG DEMOCRATS. (BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

WASHINGTON, July 23.—An ex-member of Congress from Virginia has just made an extended tour through that State. He tells his friends here that the feeling between the rank and file of the two factions of the Democratic party is much more bitter than between the leaders. He says that a compromise between the leaders would not carry their followers. The divisions are very sharp and the breach is growing wider every day. He looks for the election of five Republican members of the House next November, if there is even fair work on the part of the Republicans.
