

LOCAL MISCELLANEA.

EXCEEDING AN ORDER TO SELL.

The suspension of J. O. Stephens & Co., stock brokers at No. 24 New-st., was announced at the Stock Exchange just before the close of business yesterday.

TRICHINOSIS IN HOBOKEN.

A fatal case from eating raw meat. A case of death from trichinosis came to light in Hoboken yesterday, the victim being Mrs. Adolph Hornholtz, a young woman living at No. 124 Washington-st.

LEASING PIERS AND BULKHEADS.

The leases of twenty-eight lots of pier and bulkhead property at auction sale by the Board of Commissioners, at No. 111 Broadway, yesterday, but eight lots did not bring the expected price.

THE PILOT COMMISSIONERS' ACTION.

At the meeting of the Pilot Commissioners yesterday, Pilots Noyes, Bailey, Mapes and Anderson, whose efforts to force the Commissioners to rescind their action against the employment of steam in the pilot service have been defeated.

ALLEGED BRIBERY OF ALDERMEN.

It was stated that $30,000 of yesterday that there were rumors that $30,000 had been divided among the members of the Board of Aldermen to secure the passage of the ordinance adopted at the last meeting of the Board, giving the right of erecting lamp-posts and laying their apparatus through the streets.

THE AUTHOR OF NO. 27 NOT DISCLOSED.

At the Whitaker Court Martial yesterday, Major Gardiner presented his objections to the question which was put to Captain Sears on the day before, concerning the authorship of standard No. 27.

ERRAND BROTHERS' DISHONEST CLERK.

Erhard Brothers about six years ago took to their employ as wagon clerk Joseph Ryder, then thirteen years old. The boy was so faithful that he was gradually promoted until he was given the position of credit clerk.

SPRING SALES OF FLOWERS.

The first sale of plants grown for the spring trade took place yesterday at the Horticultural Auction Rooms, No. 12 Cortlandt-st.

LIGHTS UNDER THE ELEVATED STATIONS.

Alderman McClave yesterday presented a resolution to the Board of Aldermen to amend an ordinance passed last year. By the provisions of that ordinance the elevated railroad companies were compelled to place glass lamps in their structures at the intersection of each cross street, but they have not done so.

WAGES OF THE CITY'S EMPLOYEES.

Alderman Kennedy offered a resolution yesterday at the meeting of the Board, that the Commissioners be requested to increase the wages of the mechanics and laborers in their employ to a standard to conform to the wages paid for like services by employers in the leading branches of business in the city.

A NEW STAGE ROUTE.

The Mayor yesterday laid out to the Board of Aldermen the proposition of Abraham Wood to establish a new stage route from Barclay and West-sts., through Chambers, New-Chambers and South-sts., to Fulton Ferry.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES TO BLAME.

A letter was received by THE TRIBUNE yesterday from a person in Boston, stating that the teachers in the public school in West Twenty-eighth-st., in this city, had not been paid since December, be-

THE SEAWANAKA'S BOILERS.

THEIR CONDITION AFTER THE DISASTER.

THE BOILERS CORRODED, BURNED AND SPILT—ONE OF THEM IN A DANGEROUS CONDITION FOR SIX MONTHS.

The trial of the United States Local Inspectors of Steam Vessels, Messrs. Mathews and Jayne, for manslaughter in connection with the Seawanaka disaster, was continued yesterday before Judge Benedict.

DEATH OF A BOILER MAKER.

Robert S. Anderson, a boiler maker, was killed yesterday at the Seawanaka. He was working on the boiler when it exploded.

STREET CLEANING METHOD.

The Grand Jury continued its investigation of the Street Cleaning Bureau yesterday. The committee reported that the facilities for dumping refuse at the piers, and the idea of the Bureau that its work was hampered by the street cleaning.

A POLICEMAN'S ALLEGED NEGLIGENCE.

Coroner Hill, of Newark, began an inquest yesterday in the case of Joseph J. Fery, who died Saturday from a knife wound in the back.

PREFERRING TO WALK ON ENGLISH SOIL.

A council of the Congregational Churches of New-York and Brooklyn was called by the East Congregational Church of Brooklyn yesterday.

INSTALLING A PASTOR.

A council of the Congregational Churches of New-York and Brooklyn was called by the East Congregational Church of Brooklyn yesterday.

NOT THAT KIND OF A CAT.

John Hanna, age eleven, was tried yesterday in the Third District Court for stealing the cat of Mrs. Emma Morgan of No. 161 Adelphi-st., Brooklyn.

WALSH'S DEATH WARRANT.

The death warrant of James F. Walsh, condemned to be hanged in Brooklyn May 29 for the murder of Barbara Groszback, has been signed by Judge Pratt, of the Supreme Court, and Associate Judges of Sessions Rogers and Groves.

MARRIAGE OF W. B. TUTHILL.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Corwin, Miss Henriette, was married to William Burnett Tuthill at No. 102 Montgomery-st., Newburg, N. Y., Monday, March 28.

HOME NEWS.

PROMINENT ARRIVALS.

Hoffman House—Ex-Senator Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio, Nicholas—Senator Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio, Hoffman House—Ex-Senator Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio.

NEW-YORK CITY.

Easter lilies are plentiful in florists' windows.

The "Korrigan" is a practically new wrap for summer wear.

The drapery of Broadway was burning in many places yesterday.

An alleged "bribe" of an Indian" calls a crowd in front of a Broadway store.

The upper part of Sixth-ave. was cleaned yesterday for the first time in months.

The collection of paintings now on exhibition at the Kirby Gallery, No. 845 Broadway, which will be sold on Thursday and Friday evenings.

WARNED AGAINST A SWINDLER.

The superintendent of the New-Haven Line warns the public against a swindler who is obtaining money by representing himself as connected with the line.

A BOAT FOR THE HARBOR POLICE.

The Board of Aldermen yesterday authorized the Police Department to purchase a steamboat for the Harbor Police.

DEATH OF A RETIRED POLICE CAPTAIN.

Ex-Police Captain James Z. Bogart died Monday night at No. 121 East 105th-st., aged seventy-two.

MANSLAUGHTER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

John Green, colored, indicted for killing Benjamin Smith, colored, in the West 77th-st. car, Monday.

ADDITION TO THE BROWN-STONE COURT HOUSE.

The Board of Aldermen yesterday authorized the addition to the brown-stone Court House in the City Hall Park.

BURGLARY IN A BROADWAY STORE.

Burglars broke into the store of John R. Terry, No. 884 Broadway, Monday night, and stole $100 worth of goods.

A NOVEL USE FOR A BOAT.

A slenamer at Broadway had adopted a novel mode of advertising. A large dog stands in front of his store, holding a basket filled with business cards.

LETTING INTENDMENT ALONE.

At the Ministers' Meeting held in the parlors of the Broadway Church Monday, a paper was read on "How to Deal with Intendments to the Bible from the 'Pulpit'."

TWO FATAL ACCIDENTS.

Michael Curran, age thirty-five, a painter, of No. 216 East Fifty-sixth-st., was poisoning a dog on the top of a seven-story building on West 42nd-st.

RETURNING TO CONTINUE WORK.

The silk-reavers in the employ of H. Walters, in West Forty-sixth-st., have quit work on account of the refusal of their employer to dismiss a superintendent whose discharge they demanded.

HORSES FREE FROM DISEASE.

Investigation shows the car-houses of this city to be in a more than usually good state of health.

SELLING BONDS FOR THE MAY FESTIVAL.

The sale of bonds for the May Music Festival took place yesterday afternoon at the Hall of the City of New-York.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS.

A civil service examination was held yesterday in the Post Office Building for admission to the Post Office Service.

COLEMAN, THE FUGITIVE FROM LONDON.

Superintendent Walling has received a dispatch from London, dated yesterday, in reference to the fugitive Coleman, one of the men charged with attempting to blow up the Mansion House, March 17, and who is supposed to be on his way to New-York on the steamer Australia.

POLICE DEALER HELD TO ANSWER.

Joseph L. Parker, who lives in New-Jersey and keeps a cigar store at No. 463 Third-ave., was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Smith, of the 10th Precinct, for having sold lottery tickets to John G. Smith, of No. 194 East Broadway, on March 21 and 28.

THE WORK OF PUTTING UP THE FLOOR BEAMS FOR THE ROADWAY OF THE EAST RIVER BRIDGE IS GOING ON.

Two ladders have been attached to the suspension ropes on each side of the New York tower. Many of the suspension ropes have been attached to the bands in the cables, all of which are in place.

THE TWENTH WARD REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION HAS TENDERED A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF ASSOCIATE JUDGE ROGERS, WHO IN THE COURT OF ORIGIN AND BY THE COURT OF APPEALS WAS JOINED WITH ASSOCIATE JUDGE GUBNER IN LETTING JAMES DUNN OFF WITH A FINE FOR HIS BRUTAL ASSAULT ON THE CHURCH OF THE ASSASSINATION.

EDGEMONT—A bill is before the Legislature to amend the law in relation to the sale of liquor by some of the members of the club to Colonel Ingersoll.

STATEN ISLAND.

EDGEMONT—A bill is before the Legislature to amend the law in relation to the sale of liquor by some of the members of the club to Colonel Ingersoll.

RECEPTION IN FIFTH AVENUE.

A large and fashionable reception took place last evening at the house of William Tracy, No. 326 Fifth-ave.

MUSICAL AT MR. MUSGRAVES.

One of the largest musical receptions of the season occurred yesterday afternoon at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Musgrave, No. 535 Fifth-ave.

SYMPHONIC OLD LADY (giving money to a penniless old lady).

MINIATURE ALMANAC.

SHIPING NEWS.

PORT OF NEW-YORK—MARCH 29, 1881.

ARRIVED.

DEPARTED.

RECEIVED.

THE MOVEMENTS OF STEAMERS.

FOREIGN PORTS.

RECEIVED.

RECEIVED.