THE COMMITTEES AT LAST.

TAMMANY PUNISHED SEVERELY. THE OBSTRUCTIONISTS GIVEN A BACK SEAT—TAMMANY WELL TREATED—SOME GOOD APPOINTMENTS.

In the Assembly committees, which the Speaker announced yesterday, the Tammany members were severely punished, and their opponents were placed on the Committee on Cities. The Committee on Canals will favor the free canal amendments. Some of the committee appointments are deemed excellent.

SPEAKER PATTERSON'S SELECTIONS. (FROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.) ALBANY, Feb. 14.—Tammany was presented with a valentine which was not a "love's message" by Speaker Patterson in the committee list that was read this morning. The circumstances that led to the sending of the message were as follows: It was on the 1st of February that J. W. Higgins, the late Mayor of Lockport, who had come to serve his first term in the Legislature, arose in the Democratic Assembly caucus and said that he thought that the Tammany members had been ill-treated, and if proper concessions were made to them, they would vote for Charles E. Patterson, the caucus nominee for speaker. Mr. Higgins the week before had said that he would "crawl home on his hands and knees" to Tammany, but, of course, he did not crawl to the caucus, when he was given a way to tempt the Tammany members into voting for Patterson. There was another Democrat who had the same view, Mr. Keyes, of Westchester County, formerly a Methodist minister, but now a lawyer. He saw Tammany dwelling in brotherly love with all the other Democratic factions if only further advances were made to it. Mr. Higgins and Mr. Keyes were appointed a Harmonizing Committee. The same night they brought Mr. Patterson and the other members of the Tammany caucus, Messrs. Spindler, Nichols and Keegan, together at the residence of Mr. Patterson. Before morning Mr. Patterson had promised that the Tammany members should have "fair treatment" and in return the agents had promised that the Tammany members should vote for him for speaker the following day. The Tammany members fulfilled their part of the bargain; Mr. Patterson was duly elected Speaker by their votes on February 1st.

MINISTER LOGAN'S VIEWS. WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—A letter from Cornelius A. Logan, United States Minister to the Central American States, in reply to ex-Secretary Blaine's dispatch concerning a general Congress of American Republics, was sent to the Senate to-day. In the letter, which is dated December 10, 1881, Mr. Logan says that three of the five States which he has accredited are determined to accomplish the union of all under one Government, and Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras, perhaps Costa Rica also, may consider the invitation as a practical, if not intended, defeat of their purposes. While he has no hope of genuine cooperation, he thinks the several States will agree to send commissioners and assume outwardly an appearance of sincere cooperation.
