

NEWS FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

OUTGROWTHS OF THE EGYPTIAN WAR.

ORGANIZING THE ARMY OF EGYPT—ARRIVAL OF BORGHOZES IN LONDON FROM THE EAST—MR. PARNELL AND HIS FOLLOWERS—ARCTIC EXPLORATION.

Baker Pacha's scheme for the reorganization of the Egyptian Army has been approved by the Council of Ministers. A large number of the staff officers of the Army are to be British.

REORGANIZING THE AFFAIRS OF EGYPT. CAIRO, Oct. 20.—The Council of Ministers has adopted the preliminary scheme of Baker Pacha for the reorganization of the Egyptian Army.

THE GEOLOGY OF AMERICA. WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The report of the Director of the Geological Survey for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1882, is now nearly complete.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 20.—General Wolsley has arrived here from Cairo, and has reviewed the troops.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—A dispatch to The Times from Geneva says that the men enrolled in Switzerland for the Egyptian gendarmerie are destined to form the nucleus of a foreign military legion for the Khedive.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The Cairo correspondent of The Times telegraphs that he has reason to believe that the military will constitute the chief counts of the incident against Arabi Pacha.

DUBLIN, Oct. 20.—Mr. Parnell has invited his supporters to meet in the conference room of the House of Commons previous to the reassembling of Parliament, when business of great importance, including the imprisonment of E. Dwyer Gray, will be discussed.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 20.—At the final sitting to-day of the International Arbitration Conference, Herr Lasler, member of the German Reichstag and one of the delegates to the Conference, declared that Germany, especially liberal Germany, was at heart pacific.

THE PRUSSIAN ELECTIONS. BERLIN, Oct. 20.—In all the great towns where Catholics do not predominate the elections have resulted in favor of the Liberals.

EXPLORING VESSELS IN THE ICE. LONDON, Oct. 20.—From a report made by the commander of the steamer Louise, a trading vessel which endeavored to reach the mouth of the Yenesei River in company with the Dutch Arctic Expedition ship Varma, it is ascertained that both the Varma and a vessel of the Danish Arctic Expedition are in a dangerous position.

FOREIGN NOTES. The Emperor William of Germany has entirely recovered from his indisposition.

A CANDIDATE ASSAULTED. CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 20.—W. H. Bailey, Democratic candidate for Congress from Mecklenburg County, was assaulted this evening by A. B. Gillespie, Revenue Agent, and badly wounded.

COLLECTING ILLEGAL PENSION FEES. BOSTON, Oct. 20.—The Grand Jury for the October term of the United States Circuit Court reported before Judge Lowell this afternoon. Two indictments were found against Frederick E. Abbott, of Worcester, charging him with receiving more than the legal fee of $10 in two cases where he acted as pension agent.

THE MAINE REFORM SCHOOL. PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 20.—In an examination of charges made against the management of the State Reform School, by Governor Plaflet, Superintendent after being shot by one of them was beaten to death. No attempt was made to rescue them, and not more than fifty negroes from whom violence was expected were in the fort. A detachment of military from Meade were present for protection.

GENERAL POLITICAL NEWS.

WM. WADE NAMED FOR ALDERMAN. William Wade has been nominated as an Independent Republican candidate for Alderman in the XIIIth Assembly District.

GENERAL SHERMAN ON THE DRAMA. WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—General Sherman has written a characteristic letter to Manager Ford, of the city, expressing his regrets that he will not be able to attend a complimentary benefit to be given in commemoration of the thirtieth anniversary of his career as a soldier.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES FOR CONGRESS. The Irving Hall and Tammany Hall Conventions of the XIXth Congressional District nominated John Hardy for Congress last night.

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST IN OREGON. SALEM, Ore., Oct. 20.—The "Stalwarts" in a conference held last night, decided to stand by Mr. Mitchell for United States Senator to the end of the session.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS. BUFFALO, Oct. 20.—The VIIIth Judicial District Democratic Convention to-day nominated George C. Green, of Lockport.

NOMINATIONS FOR CONGRESS. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 20.—The Anti-Filley Republican Convention of the IXth Congressional District, this city, nominated Dr. I. H. McLean for the long term, and George Bain for the short term.

CONFERENCES OF CLERGYMEN. UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 20.—The Presbyterian Synod of New-York adjourned to-day to meet in New-York on the 22d inst.

MR. SCOVILLE'S FAMILY TROUBLE. CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—In the Scoville insanity case to-day the court-room was crowded with cranks and sight-seers.

NOT CURED BY KINDNESS. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—George W. Hubble, an ex-traveling mail agent, who was arrested at York, Penn., yesterday on the charge of defrauding the Government by collecting money on fraudulent bills for printing, was sometime ago sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment for pilfering from the mails while acting as mail agent, but after serving a few months was pardoned by the President.

RIFLES FOR THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 20.—The Turkish Government has demanded of the Providence Tool Company 48,617 rifles, with bayonets and scabbards, manufactured by the company, and as alleged, held in store for the Turkish Government.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES—BY TELEGRAPH. TAKING PARIS GREEN FOR RESPONSIBILITY. SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 20.—Mrs. Richard Burns of Springfield was robbed by a burglar last night. The cause of the act was despondency.

A CONDUCTOR'S FATAL FALL. PLAINFIELD, N. J., Oct. 20.—A railway conductor of a train on the Camden and Philadelphia road fell from his train as it was passing through this city this evening and was submerged in the river. The loss is estimated at $80,000.

THREE MEN ROBBED. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 20.—The safe of the County Court, also those of J. H. West, a merchant, and several London Loan, were robbed by burglars last night and over $3,000 was stolen.

TWO WORKMEN KILLED BY A FALL. LEWISTON, Me., Oct. 20.—Patrick O'Connell and Matthew Conner, of Lewiston, working in Hoston's cranberry factory at Lewiston, were killed by falling from the top of a building when they were cutting a distance of thirty feet, and were instantly killed.

FATALITY HIT IN A QUARREL. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—At an early hour this morning, during a row at a dance house at Ninth and Sansbury streets, Richard J. Kelly, a young man, was killed by a blow on the head with a brick thrown by John M. O'Rourke, a young man of the same name.

A WOMAN RUN OVER BY A TRAIN. TOWNSEND, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Miss Turner, eldest daughter of a farmer, was killed by a New-York and Western Railroad being run over by a New-York train last night.

VIRGINIA POLITICS.

GENERAL MAHONE'S VIGILANCE. THE MANASSAS, VA., POSTMASTERSHIP—REMOVAL OF MRS. PINE—DISCHARGING DEPARTMENT EMPLOYEES WHO HAVE NO INFLUENCE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—In a conversation with a TRIBUNE correspondent a few days ago, a prominent friend of the Administration who has been paying considerable attention to the Virginia campaign, remarked: "Mahone is one of the best political organizers I have ever met. His vigilance is sleepless, and nothing escapes him."

The story of the Manassas, Virginia, post office, which was concluded by the action of the President and members of his Cabinet this afternoon, illustrates the fact that nothing escapes Mahone. Since 1873 Mrs. L. Adella Pine has been the postmistress at Manassas, an office which yields a compensation of about $350 per year.

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 20.—The "Stalwarts" in a conference held last night, decided to stand by Mr. Mitchell for United States Senator to the end of the session. Mr. Mitchell, in an open letter, says he is in favor of the "Stalwarts" and that he will not support any other man.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 20.—The Presbyterian Synod of New-York adjourned to-day to meet in New-York on the 22d inst. The morning session was devoted to reading reports. The synod appointed the first Sunday after the day of prayer for colonies as a day to make an effort to raise an endowment fund for Hamilton College.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—At to-day's meeting of the Universalist General Convention, the resignation of G. H. Robinson, of New-York, as a member of the Board of Trustees, was accepted. A resolution was offered by the Board of Trustees, and the motion carried, that they will not acknowledge any candidate for the abolition of slavery, and that they will not support any candidate for the abolition of slavery.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—In the Scoville insanity case to-day the court-room was crowded with cranks and sight-seers. Mr. Scoville testified to traces of insanity in the Giltinan family, from the grandfather down to the present day.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—George W. Hubble, an ex-traveling mail agent, who was arrested at York, Penn., yesterday on the charge of defrauding the Government by collecting money on fraudulent bills for printing, was sometime ago sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment for pilfering from the mails while acting as mail agent, but after serving a few months was pardoned by the President.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—At an early hour this morning, during a row at a dance house at Ninth and Sansbury streets, Richard J. Kelly, a young man, was killed by a blow on the head with a brick thrown by John M. O'Rourke, a young man of the same name.

TOWNSEND, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Miss Turner, eldest daughter of a farmer, was killed by a New-York and Western Railroad being run over by a New-York train last night.

THE NEW-YORK CAMPAIGN.

PHASES OF LOCAL AND STATE POLITICS. TRYING TO SET THE CITIZENS' MOVEMENT ON ITS FEET AGAIN—NOMINATIONS FOR CONGRESS IN THE CITY—ACCEPTANCE OF MR. CARROLL—ACTION OF BROOKLYN DEMOCRATS.

An effort was made last night to revive the citizens' movement, but several of the most prominent citizens withdrew from the meeting. William L. Strong was nominated for Congress yesterday by the Republicans of the XIIIth District, and John Watts Russell was named in the VIIIth District.

THE CITIZENS' MOVEMENT. AN EFFORT TO RESUSCITATE IT—MEETING OF THE MEN WHO STARTED THE MOVEMENT—A COMMITTEE OF FIFTY TO BE NAMED.

The fifty and more citizens who met at the home of D. Willis James on the night of October 11, to take measures to nominate a citizens' ticket for municipal officers were called together again last night to hear the report of the Committee of Twenty-one, of which Morris K. Jessup was chairman.

LEAKY TELEGRAPH SERVICE. BELVIDERE, N.J., Oct. 19.—The story of a telegram is just now exciting much comment in the IVth Congressional District of this State. The Republican Convention which nominated Colonel Howe in opposition to Henry S. Harris met at Somerville on October 6.

DYING ON THE WAY TO THE HOSPITAL. The sharp crack of a pistol and the clatter of a swiftly moving carriage attracted the attention of Officers Larkin and Burns, of the VIth Precinct, in Central Park, about 10 o'clock last night.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—J. A. Vail, D. Vandegard and Francis Corbush were to-day arrested by Constable Barrett for illegal use of the mails. Their plan was to write to persons for merchandise or for live stock under the name of Lee & Co.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—An organization to be known as the Stateeas has been started in this city. Its purpose is to encourage and aid in the promotion of agriculture and stock raising in this State.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—The National Cotton Planters' Association to-day resolved to hold a world's central lat cotton exposition in 1884. The association also decided to establish a cotton insurance company.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—The Japanese Embassy in charge of Dr. W. Stevens, arrived this afternoon over the Burlington road. The party is composed of Terakoya Munemasa, Minister to Washington, and Josida Kamekazu, Minister to Vienna, and their suites.