

THE DEMOCRATIC MUDDLE.

WILL IT BE CLEVELAND AND McDONALD? THE CHANCES OF THE NEW-YORK CANDIDATE—LITTLE ENTHUSIASM SHOWN YET.

CHICAGO, July 4.—So far has little change in the political situation here since yesterday. In the corridors and public rooms of the Palmer House there were more animated and some parts of the day there were more animated signs of the great crowds that will cram the hotels forty-eight hours hence.

At intervals one or two excited individuals delivered impromptu free-trade speeches in the lobby or engaged in wordy controversy with main body of who, like Francis Kernan, believe in letting the tariff alone until we elect a President and get possession of both branches of Congress.

Today the Cleveland men were busy trying to make everybody believe that their favorite Tilden's political heir, and that Daniel Manning and Manton Marble are the custodians and executors of his last political will and testament.

McDONALD, BAYARD AND RANDALL. The McDonald "boom" arrived early this morning in charge of Henry Watterson and to-night the Delaware delegation came in bearing the Bayard "boom."

QUARRELLING OVER CANDIDATES. MR. WATTERSON BELIEVES A WESTERN MAN SHOULD BE CHOSEN—TRYING TO WORK UP "BOOMS."

CHICAGO, July 4.—The Democratic delegates and visiting statesmen who have arrived in Chicago are having a good time. The friends of each candidate for the nomination are zealously engaged in the congenial occupation of showing that none of the other candidates, if nominated, would have the ghost of a chance to be elected.

IS TILDEN FOR CLEVELAND? MR. MANNING SAYS HE IS—HIS FRIENDS NOT AFTER OFFICES.

CHICAGO, July 4.—Is Mr. Cleveland the political heir of Tilden? The supporters of Mr. Cleveland are declaring that he is, and that Tilden's hand will be felt in Cleveland's behalf in all the proceedings of the convention.

GENERAL BUTLER IS DENOUNCED IN UNMEASURED TERMS BY THE WESTERN DEMOCRATIC LEADERS GENERALLY, NOT MUCH BECAUSE THEY BELIEVE THERE IS ANY DANGER THAT HE WILL SECURE THE NOMINATION FOR HIMSELF, BUT BECAUSE THEY FEAR THAT THE NOMINATION, WHEN MADE, WILL BE FOUND ESPECIALLY AGREEABLE TO THE EX-GOVERNOR.

THE CHOLERA IN EUROPE.

SEVEN MORE DEATHS IN TOULON. NO CASES REPORTED IN PARIS—PRECAUTIONS IN OTHER PLACES.

TOULON, July 4.—It is thought that the disease has not reached its height point. It will probably continue with lessened effect during the hot weather. There were seven deaths here to-day.

PARIS, July 4.—The Prefect of Police makes the official announcement that there are no cases of cholera in this city. Mr. Rochard, Admiralty Inspector, reaffirms his belief that the disease was not introduced into France by any transport returning with troops from the East.

IRISH OPPOSITION TO CLEVELAND. EX-SENATOR KERNAN WORKING FOR THE GOVERNOR—HIS STRENGTH IN NEW-YORK.

CHICAGO, July 4.—A tall, gray-haired man with closely-cut, gray side-whiskers and features of a Celtic cast, registered the name "Francis Kernan, Utica, N. Y.," at the Grand Pacific Hotel to-day.

IN THE COMMONS AND LORDS. LONDON, July 4.—In the House of Commons to-day Lord Edmund Fitzmaurice, Under-Secretary of State, announced that the movements of Mr. Sheldon, the Englishman who was reported to have been captured by outlaws in Kansas and held for ransom, had not been discovered.

DE LESSEPS AND THE PANAMA CANAL. PARIS, July 4.—With reference to the report of Lieutenant R. M. G. Brown to the secretary of the United States Navy in regard to the condition and progress of the work on the Panama Canal, M. de Lesseps declared emphatically that the Panama company never intended to relinquish the assistance of any government, an enterprise purely industrial and worked on a concession from the independent government of Colombia.

NEWS NOTES FROM LONDON. ANTISEMITIC RIOTS.—A conflict took place June 23 between Jews and Americans at Tiflis, in southern Russia. The Cossacks succeeded in restoring order.

THE FRANCO-CHINESE DIFFICULTY. LONDON, July 4.—The Times, referring to the trouble between France and China, says: "Complications threaten the trade of America, England and Germany."

INCIDENTS IN THE DOMINION. HAMILTON, Ont., July 4.—G. Dillabough, a newspaper correspondent, was to-day committed for trial on the charge of conspiring against the dignity of the Queen in aiding and abetting the destruction of public buildings here. He was refused. He sent the following letter to the contractor for new public buildings:

THE HARBOR NEGLECTED.

NO PROVISION FOR A BOARD OF SUPERINTENDENCE. WORK OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON THE RIVER AND HARBOR BILL—NO ONE ON THE COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE CITY'S INTERESTS.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—The River and Harbor bill, as finally agreed upon by the Conference Committee to-day, appropriates $13,899,700 or $1,813,500 more than the House voted originally. The hope that the conferees would adopt the provisions in the interest of New-York Harbor, introduced by the Senate Committee on Commerce but ruled out afterward in the Senate on a point of order raised by Senator Morgan, have only been partially fulfilled.

CHANGES IN THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE. MR. KASSON NAMED FOR THE BULGARIAN MISSION, AND JUDGE TAYLOR FOR THE POST AT ST. PETERSBURG.

QUICK WORK WITH PENSION BILLS. THE SENATE CLEARS THE CALENDAR OF PRIVATE PENSION BILLS WITHOUT REFERENCE TO THEIR MERITS.

THE CHANCES FOR ADJOURNMENT. IT IS EXPECTED THAT THE LEGISLATIVE BILL WILL DELAY THE HOUSE.

FLAMES CAUSED BY FIREWORKS. A quantity of fireworks on a street stand at Third-st. and Fifty-third-st. was ignited by accident yesterday morning, and a brilliant display was the delight of a number of school boys and the curiosity of the passer-by.

FLAMES FROM AN UNKNOWN CAUSE. A fire, the cause of which was not known, broke out in the frame house No. 253 Bushwick-ave., Brooklyn, the dwelling of Matthew Koch, who was using a candle in his room.

A QUARREL WITH FATAL RESULT. A quarrel with a fatal result took place last evening in front of No. 107, Flushing-ave., Brooklyn. Thomas Taylor, aged forty-five, William Flannigan, age thirty-nine, and his daughter, Mary, age seventeen, all of that name, and Mary Hayes, age seventeen, of No. 33 Taylor-st., had been drinking beer together all day, and had become very excited.

KNOCKED OFF A FREIGHT CAR. Early yesterday morning a twelve-year-old boy, while riding on one of the freight cars of the Harlem Railroad on its way from the freight depot, in Central Islip, to the Grand Central Depot, was struck by one of the cars of the Elevated Railroad at Third and Fourth-aves. and the bowery, and was thrown from the top of the car to the ground.

PLACES FROM AN UNKNOWN CAUSE. A fire, the cause of which was not known, broke out in the frame house No. 253 Bushwick-ave., Brooklyn, the dwelling of Matthew Koch, who was using a candle in his room.
