

Amusements Co-Night

Table listing various theatrical performances and their venues, including 'The American Institute', 'The Comedy Theatre', and 'The National Academy of Design'.

Index to Advertisements

Table listing various advertisements and their corresponding page numbers, such as 'Amusements', 'Business Notices', and 'The Tribune'.

Business Notices

ADAMSON COUGH BALM is a speedy relief and permanent cure for Coughs, Colds and Asthma. 10 cents. Best of all. Dr. F. H. HASKINOVIC makes a specialty of the business extraction of teeth at 1215 Broadway.

TRIBUTE TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS

TRIBUTE TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS. Single copy 5 cents. 1 Year, 6 Months, 3 Months. Daily, without Sunday, $2.00. Daily, with Sunday, $2.50. Sunday Tribune, 10 cents.

Advertising Rates of the Tribune

ADVERTISING RATES OF THE TRIBUNE. Daily, per line, 50 cents. Weekly, per line, $2.50. Monthly, per line, $7.50. Quarterly, per line, $22.50. Half-yearly, per line, $42.50. Yearly, per line, $82.50.

New-York Daily Tribune

FOUNDED BY HORACE GREELEY. NEW-YORK, SATURDAY, FEB. 21.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING

FOREIGN.—Sir Redvers Buller's force is reported to be surrounded by the Mahdi's forces at Abu Klea Wells. The reserves and militia of England were ordered to prepare in view of the anticipated conflict in the Sudan.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate the Agricultural Appropriation bill was passed and the Post Office Appropriation bill was discussed.

DOMESTIC.—The striking miners in the Hocking Valley are running short of money.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.—A reception to Senator-elect Evans by Yale alumni.

THE WEATHER.—Tribune local observations indicate fair weather, slightly moderating.

THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE will have the pleasure of laying before its readers to-morrow an article by the son-in-law of Queen Victoria, the Marquis of Lorne, on "Canada and her Relations to the United States."

As the Assembly has decided not to investigate the abuse of power by Judges in the issue of injunctions, it ought at once to proceed with legislation which will make impossible in future scandals of the same kind.

The latest reports from the Sudan are of such a character as to create great alarm in England. Not only is General Buller's force hemmed in, but even Wolseley and Brackenbury are said to be in danger.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party.

what a busy place the Brooklyn Navy Yard would be during the next canvass.

If the Democrats who are pushing the River and Harbor bill in the House had shown anything like the same zeal in behalf of measures free from jobs, the record of that body would not be so barren. But it is only when there are private ends to serve that this particular class of members take much interest in legislation.

The Democrats in the Legislature are pursuing their former tactics of preventing any action which will provide employment for the convicts in the State prisons. When they had control of the Legislature they evaded the question, and since the Republicans got control the Democrats have been able, with the assistance of the Governor, to defeat every measure intended to provide a suitable substitute for the contract system.

For corporations enjoying franchises of great value, from which the city derives no revenue, the gas companies assume rather a defiant air before the Senate investigating committee. The assumption that the public has no right to know anything of their financial affairs will hardly be found tenable.

PAYING CIPHER ALLEY DEBTS.

Probably Mr. Cleveland does not expect a great deal of advice from THE TRIBUNE, but we can give him a little without charge, which will be of considerable value to him if he acts upon it. That he probably will not act upon it is his misfortune, and not our fault.

If Mr. Cleveland attempts to act as assignee in bankruptcy for the estate of Tilden, Weed and the other coparceners of Cipher Alley, his Administration is going to run out of funds, so to speak, at a very early date.

Possibly it does not occur to him, but the selection of Mr. Manning for a place in the Cabinet suits Mr. Tilden's grudges perfectly, and does not suit Mr. Bayard. Whether Mr. Bayard and Mr. Manning can get on tolerably in the same Cabinet, Mr. Cleveland has apparently never thought to inquire.

GENERAL STEWART'S DEATH.

Each of the retreating columns in the Sudan returns without his commander. General Stewart, like General Earle, has fallen a victim to the English policy of overtaxing the resources of a small standing army.

General Wolseley has been criticised for dividing his force and flinging his flying column across the Bayuda desert. What else could he do when he learned upon his arrival at Korti that General Gordon was in extreme peril?

Mr. Randall's principles are apparently of an elastic nature, easily changed to suit the exigencies of the Democratic party. Herefore he has steadily opposed anything approaching an indefinite appropriation; on the plea that Congress should not grant money for any purpose until definite and precise information was before it.

dispatched General Stewart's column; and the advance guard never paused until it was under the guns of the Government building in Khartoum—too late by forty-eight hours. The leader of this feeble band of rescuers had volunteered a year before to conduct 500 cavalrymen from the sea coast to Berber and to relieve the beleaguered garrison.

SLANDERING REPUBLICANS.

Never weary of vilifying prominent Republicans, The New-York Times takes occasion to utter the meanest insinuations in regard to many of them in connection with the bills providing for forfeiture of land grants to railroads.

There are certain journals, of which The Times appears to be one, that have been hired for years to do the work of the wreckers in Wall Street, who have been enriching themselves by assailing the property of other people.

BURNABY'S TEST.

A rather cool idea of poor Colonel Burnaby was that of the "Foolometer" test, as he called it, by which he sought to anticipate the verdict of the public on his writings.

THE REFORMERS AT WORK.

Hubert O. Thompson is apparently already looking out for his confirmation for some place under Mr. Cleveland. The telegraph reports him as sending cipher dispatches to Democrats in Oregon directing them how to vote on the question of electing a United States Senator.

MR. CLEVELAND'S TROUBLE.

The following observations in The Sun indicate that Mr. Cleveland has rough weather ahead, and that storm signals ought to be displayed along his route.

BLUNDERING BLAND.

Mr. Bland, it appears, clings to the idea that the continued coinage of silver will bring the standard dollar to par in gold. It is curious how much ignorance a single phrase will sometimes disclose.

A SIGNIFICANT FACT.

In these days of industrial depression, it is especially satisfactory to note that some of the cotton mills have been doing a very successful business. The reports of the Biddeford Mills are especially satisfactory.

REDUCING THE TIME OF CABLE MESSAGES.

We have reduced the time for calling to London to the minimum. Although the cable is called to London to the Thames from thirty seconds to a minute and a half after the New-York operator has begun sending it, the answer is received as quickly.

A PARADISE FOR CHILDREN.

Professor Gardner, of the Tokyo Episcopal Mission School, Japan has rightly been called a "paradise for children." In no other country are the young people treated with such consideration.

artificial increase in the cost of production in this country which the tariff causes. The manufacture, free-traders say, is so developed that it can produce a far greater quantity of goods than the home market can take, and unless a foreign market can be found for the surplus the manufacture must be strangled.

The manufacturers of Biddeford, and others who are doing an equally successful business, find the cost of production enhanced for them as much as for anybody else.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

THE TALK OF THE DAY.

In China they have recently introduced a new tea for summer drink which is called "Yu Tsu Lam," or fish eggs tea, from the fact that the seeds extracted from the flowers resemble fish eggs in shape and size.

WHY NEWSPAPERS MAKE MEN UNSOCIAL.

C. S. Briggs, school book publisher, Cincinnati, sometimes thinks that newspapers make men unsocial. I know they do. Now no longer do we each other for information, but look for it in the newspaper.

SPECULATING IN PETROLEUM.

W. H. Lewis, secretary New-York Petroleum Exchange and Stock Board, says the Exchange has been unusually successful during the past year.

BIG SOWN DEBITS AND LITTLE TRADE.

S. B. Brown, commercial traveler, says he has been on the road for ten years, and has traveled over the New York Central road winter after winter.

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

RETRAIT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"Retreat is impossible," he wrote, "unless we abandon the employes and their families, which the general feeling of the troops is against."

be calling him the late "Chin" Gordon, and then assuming that the case is settled.

If the testimony introduced by the defence in Captain Williams' trial affords any basis of judgment, we are not so sure but that Washington will have to vacate his hitherto unchallenged place as "first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Mr. Oscar Wilde has recently developed a tendency to talk profound sense. Referring to the statements that such and such colors would be the fashionable ones for the coming season, Wilde remarked with some scorn: "Think of a musical paper announcing that B flat or A natural would be the fashionable note for the music of this winter!"

Of course there is no telling what advice Uncle Sammy really did give Cleveland. But if he did not counsel him to beware of Smith M. Weed, then Mr. Cleveland ought to beware of Uncle Sammy.

In their expressions of opposition to the proposed stoppage of silver coinage, the silver advocates unwittingly furnish an argument against the present silver dollar of 412 1/2 grains, affectionately known as "the dollar of the fathers."

Mr. Manning is to go into the Cabinet not so much as the watch-dog of the Treasury as Mr. Cleveland's political watch-dog.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

Some friends of O'Donovan Rossa say that although "many other great men" have sought to reap a golden harvest in the lecture field, he will show his superiority to them all by manfully resisting the temptation.

with curved blocks of wood under the neck which sit on the neck so nicely that the collar hair is not disturbed. They are dressed exactly like their mothers as soon as they are able to walk and are treated like little women.

NEEDS OF THE HOME MISSION FIELD. The Rev. Dr. W. O. Roberts, secretary of the Protestant Board of Home Missions, says that the mission field is enlarging very rapidly. The demands were never more urgent nor have the prospects ever been brighter than now.

SEWERAGE AT CONEY ISLAND. Colonel John E. Culler, chief engineer of Prospect Park, says that for a number of years he has urged the consideration of the important question of sewerage at Coney Island.

Invited to deliver the St. Patrick's Day oration this year before the Irishmen of Ottawa, Canada, Mr. John Boyle O'Reilly, of Boston, has been asked to deliver the English language oration. He has declined to do so, saying that he has no objection to giving the oration in his own language, but that he has no objection to giving the oration in his own language.

PERSONAL.

The late Mrs. James Russell Lowell was a relative of the distinguished Senator, William Pitt Fessenden.

Speaker Carlisle is making a collection of the most curious communications received, such, for instance, as a letter from Minnesota Bontion who wanted an appropriation by Congress to provide him with a good sleep.

A Boston lady recently invited Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes to one of her small receptions, and then apologized to him, fearing he might think the invitation was inspired by a double motive.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.

Dr. Holab writes from South Africa that he is amassing a collection superior to that made in his former seven years' tour in that country.

The Very Rev. Edward Henry Bickersteth, who has been promoted to the Bishopric of Exeter to succeed Dr. Temple, who has been made Bishop of London, is the son of the late Rev. John Bickersteth, the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Commissioner Albert Fish on Wednesday, while leaving the Murray Hill Hotel, his place of residence, slipped on the ice and badly jarred his leg, which was made lame about a year ago by an attack of rheumatism.</