

AIZPURU MADE A PRISONER.

FIRING ON THE REBELS AT PANAMA. ONE KILLED AND THREE WOUNDED—THE CITY IN THE HANDS OF THE REBELS.

KNOCKING DOWN REBEL BARRICADES.

INSURGENTS RECALLED TO THE BARRACKS—J. N. VAN WESSON'S LOSS AT COLON.

HOSTILE ATTITUDE OF FRANCE.

SUSPENDING RELATIONS WITH EGYPT. THE GOVERNMENT REFUSES TO SANCTION THE FINANCIAL CONVENTION.

SWIFT STEAMSHIPS AS CRUISERS.

ALTERATIONS TO BE MADE—HOW THEIR COAL FACILITY MAY BE INCREASED.

WAITING FOR A DECISION FROM EGYPT.

THE BRITISH MINISTER INSTRUCTED TO SUPPORT NUBAR PACHA.

CAIRO, APRIL 24.—Diplomatic relations between Egypt and France have not been broken.

NEW-YORK, APRIL 24.—A telegram from Alexandria to the Exchange Telegraph Company, states that the French Charge d'Affaires has informed the Khedive and the Egyptian Foreign Minister of his instructions to suspend official relations with Egypt.

PARIS, APRIL 24.—The breaking off of official relations between France and Egypt, the announcement of which rupture was made here this morning, was entirely unexpected by the people, and the news has created a great sensation.

ALEXANDRIA, APRIL 24.—There is much excitement here over the French-Egyptian question.

CAIRO, APRIL 24.—Diplomatic relations between Egypt and France have not been broken.

NEW-YORK, APRIL 24.—A telegram from Alexandria to the Exchange Telegraph Company, states that the French Charge d'Affaires has informed the Khedive and the Egyptian Foreign Minister of his instructions to suspend official relations with Egypt.

PARIS, APRIL 24.—The breaking off of official relations between France and Egypt, the announcement of which rupture was made here this morning, was entirely unexpected by the people, and the news has created a great sensation.

ALEXANDRIA, APRIL 24.—There is much excitement here over the French-Egyptian question.

CAIRO, APRIL 24.—Diplomatic relations between Egypt and France have not been broken.

NEW-YORK, APRIL 24.—A telegram from Alexandria to the Exchange Telegraph Company, states that the French Charge d'Affaires has informed the Khedive and the Egyptian Foreign Minister of his instructions to suspend official relations with Egypt.

PARIS, APRIL 24.—The breaking off of official relations between France and Egypt, the announcement of which rupture was made here this morning, was entirely unexpected by the people, and the news has created a great sensation.

ALEXANDRIA, APRIL 24.—There is much excitement here over the French-Egyptian question.

CAIRO, APRIL 24.—Diplomatic relations between Egypt and France have not been broken.

NEW-YORK, APRIL 24.—A telegram from Alexandria to the Exchange Telegraph Company, states that the French Charge d'Affaires has informed the Khedive and the Egyptian Foreign Minister of his instructions to suspend official relations with Egypt.

PARIS, APRIL 24.—The breaking off of official relations between France and Egypt, the announcement of which rupture was made here this morning, was entirely unexpected by the people, and the news has created a great sensation.

ALEXANDRIA, APRIL 24.—There is much excitement here over the French-Egyptian question.

CAIRO, APRIL 24.—Diplomatic relations between Egypt and France have not been broken.

NEW-YORK, APRIL 24.—A telegram from Alexandria to the Exchange Telegraph Company, states that the French Charge d'Affaires has informed the Khedive and the Egyptian Foreign Minister of his instructions to suspend official relations with Egypt.

PARIS, APRIL 24.—The breaking off of official relations between France and Egypt, the announcement of which rupture was made here this morning, was entirely unexpected by the people, and the news has created a great sensation.

ALEXANDRIA, APRIL 24.—There is much excitement here over the French-Egyptian question.

CAIRO, APRIL 24.—Diplomatic relations between Egypt and France have not been broken.

THE WAR CLOUD OVER ENGLAND.

BRITISH TROOPS NOT NEEDED AT HERAT. THE AMERABLE ABLE TO DEFEND THE TOWN—DEBATE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

WINNIPEG, APRIL 24.—A Clarke's crossing messenger, just returned from the North, brings the following particulars of the fighting at Herat.

ST. PAUL, MINN., APRIL 24.—A Winnipeg dispatch to the Pioneer-Press from Colonel Otter, of the 1st Cavalry, which reached there about noon today, contains the following particulars.

CHICAGO, APRIL 24.—A dispatch from London to the News says: Military preparations continue unabated, and the reserves are rapidly mobilizing.

ST. PETERSBURG, APRIL 24.—It is reported here that the Russian troops are not to be recalled.

CONSTANTINOPLE, APRIL 24.—The batteries on the Bosphorus are being hastily repaired.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 24.—T. B. Peterson & Brother, in answer to an advertisement published in the American press, for sending a book called "Nana's Daughter" under his name, say that their firm was the first to publish the book in this country.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—A young woman who called herself Lizzie Evans, applied at the Thirteenth Ward Police Station for lodging.

PROVIDENCE, APRIL 24.—It is alleged that an attempt was made to wreck a train near Kingston Station.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—The mines of the New-York and Cleveland Gas Company were all started this morning at the oil prices.

TRENTON, APRIL 24.—Arbor Day was celebrated in this city only by the school children, who planted maple, cedar, oak and ash trees in their play grounds.

LEBANON, PENN., APRIL 24.—The friends of James Sullivan, who died recently in the almshouse, are indignant that his body should have been sent to Philadelphia for dissection at a medical college.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

MIDDLETON ENGAGES THE ENEMY.

THE REBELS SURROUNDED IN A RAVINE. MONTANA INDIANS JOINING RIFLE-VOLUNTEERS STARTING.

WINNIPEG, APRIL 24.—A Clarke's crossing messenger, just returned from the North, brings the following particulars of the fighting at Herat.

ST. PAUL, MINN., APRIL 24.—A Winnipeg dispatch to the Pioneer-Press from Colonel Otter, of the 1st Cavalry, which reached there about noon today, contains the following particulars.

CHICAGO, APRIL 24.—A dispatch from London to the News says: Military preparations continue unabated, and the reserves are rapidly mobilizing.

ST. PETERSBURG, APRIL 24.—It is reported here that the Russian troops are not to be recalled.

CONSTANTINOPLE, APRIL 24.—The batteries on the Bosphorus are being hastily repaired.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 24.—T. B. Peterson & Brother, in answer to an advertisement published in the American press, for sending a book called "Nana's Daughter" under his name, say that their firm was the first to publish the book in this country.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—A young woman who called herself Lizzie Evans, applied at the Thirteenth Ward Police Station for lodging.

PROVIDENCE, APRIL 24.—It is alleged that an attempt was made to wreck a train near Kingston Station.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—The mines of the New-York and Cleveland Gas Company were all started this morning at the oil prices.

TRENTON, APRIL 24.—Arbor Day was celebrated in this city only by the school children, who planted maple, cedar, oak and ash trees in their play grounds.

LEBANON, PENN., APRIL 24.—The friends of James Sullivan, who died recently in the almshouse, are indignant that his body should have been sent to Philadelphia for dissection at a medical college.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH, APRIL 24.—Mrs. Foggie, age fifty, on Mount Washington yesterday, after her husband and son had gone to work, eloped with a man twenty years her junior.

TRENTON, N. J., APRIL 24.—A wire rope 34,500 feet long, one and a quarter inches in diameter, was broken in two, yesterday.

THE CITY OF MEXICO'S VOYAGE.

CAPTAIN O'BRIEN ARRIVED. TESTIMONY BY HIS MATE, CAPTAIN M'GARTHY, OF MARY HOGAN FAME.

Captain John O'Brien, the defendant, and Captain J. H. McCarthy, the prosecution's principal witness in the case of alleged violation of the neutrality laws, set near each other yesterday in Commissioner Shields' court room.

John G. Austin, a member of the firm of Lord & Austin, the manager of the City of Mexico, was the first witness. In answer to questions by Mr. O'Brien, he said that the City of Mexico was chartered by S. Perez and his partner for a voyage which began on March 12.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. O'Brien testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

Mr. McCarthy testified that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered. He said that he was in the City of Mexico on the day that the City of Mexico was chartered.

SPOLIING THE PLANS OF A SYNDICATE.

DISCLOSURE OF THE PLOT TO SEIZE THE WINNEBAGO RESERVATION.

St. Paul, April 24 (Special).—A dispatch from Fargo, Dak., says that just before the opening of the Crow Creek and Winnebago Indian Reservation, the Territorial Secretary, James H. Teller, went to Washington to see the President.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M. H. Day, member of the National Democratic Convention for Dakota, Teller and his friends bought a large amount of scrip, Day who was in Washington, took some of the scrip and started for the West.

Mr. Teller, in the interest of a syndicate, prominent in which was M