

Amusements.
THEATRE—8—Remia.
DAILY THEATRE—8—The Taming of the Shrew.
DOUGLASS—8—Mistral.

Index to Advertisements.
Page. Col.
Amusements..... 7 6
Announcements..... 7 6

Business Notices.
TRIBUTE TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
Price Five Cents.

New-York Daily Tribune.
FOUNDED BY HOBACRE GREELY.
TUESDAY, MARCH 29, 1887.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.
FOREIGN.—Introduction of the Irish Cession bill in the House of Commons.

DOMESTIC.—Testimony of an informer in the Essex City assassination case.
Two gamblers shot in Boston.

THE WEATHER.—Indications for to-day: Fair and colder.
Temperature yesterday: Highest, 47; lowest, 29; average, 30 1/2.

A sample of the bogus economy of the last Congress was the refusal to appropriate money to sheath with copper the bottom of the new steel vessels.

The formal challenge of Mr. Bell to the New-York Yacht Club for the America's Cup has now been received, and will doubtless be formally accepted to-night.

The good people of Rahway, N. J., are greatly excited over the murder committed there last Friday night, but, at the same time they are not sufficiently moved to propose a liberal reward for the discovery of the murderer.

The Mayor has stirred up the Health and the Street Cleaning departments to some effect.
Commissioner Coleman now announces that the ashes and garbage of the Nineteenth Precinct (the old Twenty-ninth) will hereafter be removed between midnight and 7 a. m.

The Salisbury Government in England have promulgated their Coercion bill in the House of Commons.
It abolishes trial by jury in Ireland, giving to magistrates power to inflict a maximum penalty of six months' imprisonment for offences such as boycotting, conspiracy, rioting and the like, or inciting to the same.

judges to hang men according to their own sweet will and despite the testimony.
The bill to prevent bankrupts from giving preferences to creditors when they fail is a measure which the Assembly should consider carefully when it comes up for debate to-night.

THE WONDERFUL RACE.
When a complete history of the experiences of the Coronet and the Dauntless has been written, a remarkable story of thrilling adventure, heroic endurance and brilliant seamanship will certainly be added to the literature of the sea.

A study of the route taken by the yachts shows that their skippers fully appreciated the fact that they were engaging in a race.
Even when the storm raged in its mightiest fury they did not lose sight of the stakes.

THE RHODE ISLAND ELECTION.
As the campaign in Rhode Island advances, the prospect of the Republicans electing their ticket by an emphatic majority continues to improve.

A WHINDLING MAJORITY.
The Unionist majority in the Commons is rapidly dwindling.
When the elections were closed last July there were 316 Conservatives and 75 Liberal-Unionists, against 191 Gladstonian Liberals and 85 Parnellites.

THE TOOLS OF THE RIM POWER.
The attitude of the Democrats at Albany toward the High-License bill is a striking illustration of the extent of the rim power's influence in politics.

Saloon politics, of course, produce legislators after their kind.
The men who work through the saloons, and buy their support, and take their pledges, are in no sense representatives of the people. They are, in fact, retained to oppose the most important popular interest, and so clearly do they themselves recognize this that they are now openly pleading the impracticability of doing any public duty which clashes with the policy of their real constituents.

Now that there is a likelihood of "Joke" Sharp being placed on trial, there will be a notable advance in the market price of the famous Sharp brand of Anti-Memory Milk [warranted if used according to directions].

Gilliam has an admirable cartoon in the current number of The Judge, illustrating the popular view of the attitude taken by the Prohibitionists toward the Crosby High License bill.

"The Evening Post" and "The Times" are very hearty in their approval of the new American biography.
Why they should abuse the biographer for mentioning the most important fact in the venerable clergyman's life we cannot imagine.

Six hundred convicts in Sing Sing Prison and several hundred more at Auburn are crying for Warren Braw says that if these fine men are not furnished with employment some of them will go insane.

Sketches are prepared by Private Secretary Lamont and sent out from Washington of every person appointed to any important office by the President.

PERSONAL.
The Old Fellows of Indianapolis have selected a site for the statue of Schuyler Colfax which is presently to be erected there.

GRAMMARIAN, PARSE THYSELF.
Behold! The glory of The Sea has given warning and may be expected to depart by an early train.

When The Sea was similarly called to account five days ago it threw the blame upon a typographical misarrangement.
Will that plea serve it now? It might, if the faulty phrase stood alone, or occupied a position of less damaging prominence.

But boldly paraded in duplicate form, arm in arm as it were, each mistake upholding the other, it cannot hope to escape sharp comment.

In Missouri the Democratic Legislature has tried to wipe out the National Guard altogether by trying to make an appropriation for it.

The striking metaphor about being between the devil and the deep sea will not begin to describe the situation in which Governor Hill will be after the Senate passes the High-License bill.

"The Evening Post" and "The Times" are very hearty in their approval of the new American biography.
Why they should abuse the biographer for mentioning the most important fact in the venerable clergyman's life we cannot imagine.

Six hundred convicts in Sing Sing Prison and several hundred more at Auburn are crying for Warren Braw says that if these fine men are not furnished with employment some of them will go insane.

Sketches are prepared by Private Secretary Lamont and sent out from Washington of every person appointed to any important office by the President.

PERSONAL.
The Old Fellows of Indianapolis have selected a site for the statue of Schuyler Colfax which is presently to be erected there.

GRAMMARIAN, PARSE THYSELF.
Behold! The glory of The Sea has given warning and may be expected to depart by an early train.

When The Sea was similarly called to account five days ago it threw the blame upon a typographical misarrangement.
Will that plea serve it now? It

THE DRAMA—MUSIC.

SARAH BERNHARDT AS THEODORA.

The engagement of Mrs. Bernhardt at the Star Theatre, which is to close with the present week, was dignified last night by her presentation of "Theodora," the most beautiful melodrama of the longest, fullest and most dramatic of Mrs. Bernhardt's productions.

The striking metaphor about being between the devil and the deep sea will not begin to describe the situation in which Governor Hill will be after the Senate passes the High-License bill.

"The Evening Post" and "The Times" are very hearty in their approval of the new American biography.
Why they should abuse the biographer for mentioning the most important fact in the venerable clergyman's life we cannot imagine.

Six hundred convicts in Sing Sing Prison and several hundred more at Auburn are crying for Warren Braw says that if these fine men are not furnished with employment some of them will go insane.

Sketches are prepared by Private Secretary Lamont and sent out from Washington of every person appointed to any important office by the President.

PERSONAL.
The Old Fellows of Indianapolis have selected a site for the statue of Schuyler Colfax which is presently to be erected there.

GRAMMARIAN, PARSE THYSELF.
Behold! The glory of The Sea has given warning and may be expected to depart by an early train.

When The Sea was similarly called to account five days ago it threw the blame upon a typographical misarrangement.
Will that plea serve it now? It

GLIMPING OUT THE STEWART COLLECTION.

EXHIBITION OF THE STEWART COLLECTION.

The sale of the European ceramics and miscellaneous objects of the Stewart art collection was held at the American Art Association rooms yesterday afternoon.
The number of pieces sold was 287 and they brought $14,500.

DR. NEWBERRY ON THE TRIASSIC PERIOD.
The Fauna and Flora of the Trias of New Jersey and the Connecticut Valley illustrated with specimens and drawings by Dr. Newberry, Columbia College, last evening before the New-York Academy of Sciences, at Hamilton Hall.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY.
Mr. and Mrs. Chaucey M. Dewey entertained the members of the Lenox Club at their home, No. 22 East Forty-fifth-st., last evening.

SINGING TO AID THE DIET KITCHEN.
Among the charities of the city the Diet Kitchen Association is one that has always commended itself to the public because of the loftiness of its purpose and the modesty and wisdom of its management.

ROSE COGHAN AT THE CAPITAL.
WASHINGTON, March 29.—Miss Rose Coghlan and her company will be at the Metropolitan Opera House a series of old English comedies, which promise to be one of the best theatrical attractions offered to the Capital this season.

MRS. AGNES BOOTH UNABLE TO ACT.
Mrs. Agnes Booth was unable to appear last night in her accustomed part in "Jim, the Penman" at the Madison Square Theatre.

RECORDED TROTTER BETTER.
WASHINGTON, March 28.—The condition of Mr. Trotter, the Recorder of Deeds, was somewhat improved to-day, but he is by no means out of danger.

THE CURTAIN WENT UP ABOUT 11 O'CLOCK.
Owing to a delay in the arrival of the scenery for the performance of the "Black Crook" at the Brooklyn Theatre last evening the curtain did not go up until 9:45.

PROFESSOR BOYSSON ON TENNYSON.
Professor Boysson read a small but most interesting address facing his presentation of the Tennyson collection at the Lyceum Theatre.

OPPOSING THE PROPOSED PROTECTORY.
The Evangelical Alliance has introduced a vigorous campaign in this city against the bill introduced in the Legislature by Senator Murphy with regard to the proposed Catholic Protectory and its proposed compulsory over-homes for children.