

OVERMATCHED DEMOCRATS

REPUBLICAN SENATORS SCORE A VICTORY.

VOZING ON THE TARIFF TO BEGIN JANUARY 31.—THE HOLIDAY RECESS SHORTENED—FREE TRADE LEADERS ANGRY.

Washington, Dec. 20 (Special).—The Senate made fair progress with the tariff bill today, the minority having agreed to the proposition that debate on the substitute and all the amendments to it shall be confined to the floor.

Mr. Vance objected to the specification of $20 per head on horses and mules, and said that the revenue would be increased $3,000,000, to which Mr. Hancock replied that such increase of revenue was based on pure imagination.

Mr. Aldrich replied that no interest would suffer by the exclusion of the cheap spiced animals that could be imported for the duty on the head.

Mr. Jones, of Kansas, opposed the duty on olefins to the encouragement of manufactured adulterations of food.

Mr. Aldrich retorted: "The Democratic platform of St. Louis puts olefins on the free list."

Mr. Jones then said: "When I was in the Senate, the Florida Senators, most consistent and aggressive Free Traders heretofore, both suddenly blossomed out as ardent Protectionists."

Mr. Aldrich asked whether he regarded oranges as one of the necessities of life.

Mr. Call replied in the negative.

Mr. Aldrich retorted: "I think it ought to be increased to bananas and oranges."

Mr. Aldrich sympathized with the Senator from Florida, but thought that the Senator should be a little more moderate.

Mr. Aldrich expressed his surprise that the Senator from North Carolina (Mr. Vance) had been deaf while in the Senate.

Mr. Aldrich retorted: "Up to this time the Senator from North Carolina has not contented himself with voting."

Mr. Aldrich retorted: "I think it ought to be increased to bananas and oranges."

ALDERMEN IN A QUILT.

ANGRY WORDS OVER THE ELECTRIC MOTOR QUESTION.

THE MOTION.

The principal subject under discussion at the adjourned meeting of the Board of Aldermen yesterday was the resolution known as General Order No. 392, 1, originally presented by Mr. Fitzsimons, chairman of the Railroad Committee, May 29, 1887, and since then the cause of frequent fiery debates in the chamber.
