

NOW FOR CROKER'S STORY.

WHAT WILL HE SAY ON THE WITNESS-STAND?

A BIG CRUSH EXPECTED TO-DAY AT THE SESSION OF THE SENATE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

It is expected that there will be a great crush of Tammany followers of high and low degree, chiefs and common braves, in Part II of the Superior Court this morning, to hear the Big Chief of the Wigwam tell the story of Mayor Grant's present of $10,000 to "Flossie" Croker and what was done with the money.

Whether or not any other witness than Mr. Croker will be called upon to testify could not be learned from either Mr. Boardman or Mr. Ivins. They may not see fit to call any one to answer the story which Croker may tell.

JUSTIFYING HIS ACTION.

A TALK WITH THE COMMANDER OF THE FRENCH WARSHIP INDIRE.

NO VIOLENCE USED, HE SAYS, IN REMOVING BRITISH NETS—HOW THE LAW WAS CONSTRUED—FISH IS FISH, SAYS HE.

Haffax, N. S., June 22.—An interview with the commander of the French warship Indire is published at St. John's, Newfoundland. It was from this vessel that an officer went on shore at Bay St. George to compel British subjects to take up their nets to make room for French fishermen.

"Are the accounts of the friction which recently took place on the French shore as reported true?" "There is a germ of truth in them, but they are fearfully exaggerated and overdrawn. One of these accounts states that an armed crew landed, patrolled the shore and took up fishermen's nets. Only one officer went on shore for the purpose, and he acted as quietly as possible."

"Did you think you were exceeding your rights, as allowed by the treaty, in thus ordering British subjects to remove their nets?" "No, as I translate it, the first and principal right of fishing belongs to the French, and it is perfectly within the province of French rights to order the removal of nets of any British subjects that may interfere with them."

"On the contrary they had strict instructions to act quietly, though firmly. They felt they had a duty to perform, to uphold what they considered a national right, and though they could not be deterred from doing that duty they did it with as little discomfort and inconvenience to British subjects as possible."

"No, there was really no reason for sending those messages in which there were reported outrages?" "No. The position this spring was neither better nor worse than ever before. French fishermen only claimed the same right as always—a right which France will resist to the end."

"The Emperor's Garden Party." Berlin, June 22.—Emperor William had an evening garden party on Plauen park, at which Chancellor von Capri, the cabinet ministers, the President and Vice-President of the Reichstag and many deputies were present.

"RETURN OF THE ROYAL TRAVELLERS." London, June 22.—The Duke and Duchess of Connaught landed at Liverpool from the steamer sardinia this morning and proceeded to Windsor. The Queen, Princess Beatrice and Prince Henry of Battenberg, the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke of Cambridge and the children of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught were assembled at the station to greet the royal travellers, and upon their arrival there was a general embracing. A family dinner was given at the castle to-night.

"THE STEAMER DEVONIA DISABLED." Glasgow, June 22.—The Anchor Line steamer Devonian, Captain Craig, which sailed hence for New York June 19, has returned to the Clyde, her high-pressure piston having become disabled.

"MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS IN ROME." Rome, June 22.—The municipal elections passed off in an orderly manner. It is expected that the entire Liberal list will be successful.

RAILROAD INTERESTS.

DIVIDING THE R AND O STOCK. PROVISIONS OF THE RECENT DEAL CARRIED OUT—THE GARRETT'S STILL IN CONTROL.

Baltimore, June 22 (special).—It is learned that at a meeting yesterday afternoon at the office of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, George De B. Keim, of the Reading, and E. R. Bacon and the Finance Committee of the Baltimore and Ohio, the allotments of the Baltimore and Ohio stock recently acquired from the city and Johns Hopkins University were made in accordance with the provisions of the deal.

The Garrett's did not take any more stock, and it was thought best to distribute it among new people. The banking house of John A. Hamilton & Co. was prominent in making the disposition successful. All the parties are friends of the present management, and the Garrett interests, with President Vaux, the head, and the Garrett family, are in control.

"THE R AND O IN WEST VIRGINIA." Baltimore, June 22 (special).—The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, in its contemplated extension and connection South and West, will pay special attention to the development of its line in West Virginia.

"TO SECURE THE BERKSHIRE AND SOUTHERN." St. Paul, Minn., June 22 (special).—Though President Hill, of the Great Northern Railroad, has repeatedly denied it, there is reason to believe that he and his friends are quietly purchasing Burlington and that the stock is to be in a joint acquisition with the Pacific Coast extension is contemplated to open a through line from Chicago to North Pacific Coast ports.

"FROM DOVER, N. J., TO NEW-YORK." Dover, N. J., June 22 (special).—The sum of $25,000 has been subscribed by non-interest in purchasing the right of way for the proposed railroad from Dover to New York. The project is being pushed forward in the hope of the increasing of the new road, which, when completed, makes an air line route from Dover to New York.

"THE UPLAND COUNTY YIELD CROP." Kingston, N. Y., June 22 (special).—The outlook for an abundant fruit crop in the Hudson River Valley is not so favorable as it was a few weeks ago. The strawberry crop, which will practically all be gathered at the close of the present week, was large and fair in quality on the whole, but poorer than last year, and the loss by wet weather and lack of sun, which has been considerable, has been considerable.

"JUDICIAL HALLS TRAINING THE NEWSWAPERS." Madison, Wis., June 22 (special).—Justice Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court, is to lecture before the Law College of the University of Wisconsin on "Constitutional Law," giving the following compliment to the press of the country: "Nor shall Congress make any laws abridging the freedom of the press. This is a wise provision. There are some things which I think you may see in the newspapers, which would favor a law that would place the press of the country under a censor. But the press is the best friend of the people, and it is the duty of the government to protect it."

"THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE TO MEET IN CALIF." Jacksonville, Fla., June 22.—A dispatch from President Rogers, of the Florida Farmers' Alliance, at present in Washington, addressed to John F. Dunn, of Ocala, Fla., states that the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union will hold its next annual convention in Jacksonville, Fla., on the 27th inst. at the Hotel of the National Alliance at the meeting at St. Louis last December.

MR. BLAINE'S POSITION.

HIS VIEWS ON THE SUGAR AND OTHER SCHEDULES OF THE TARIFF BILL.

ANXIOUS TO SECURE CONCESSIONS FROM THE SUGAR-GROWING COUNTRIES OF SOUTH AMERICA—THE RECENT INCIDENT IN THE APPROPRIATION COMMITTEE ROOM.

Washington, June 22.—William E. Curtis, the executive officer of the recent International American Conference and now an attaché of the State Department, to-day sent out the following as an authorized explanation of the incident in the Senate Appropriation Committee's room last Thursday and of Mr. Blaine's views on the sugar and other schedules of the proposed tariff bill: "There is no reason why the expressions of Mr. Blaine in the room of the Senate Committee on Appropriations last Thursday concerning the tariff bill, or his letter to the Senate of the same day, should have caused any surprise at the Capitol, or certainly to the Ways and Means Committee of the House, for he has been trying to impress that committee with the same views all winter."

"The political committee of the Central Labor Union is weighted down with the responsibility which has been thrust upon it by its parent body of reporting to the Central Labor Union's assembled delegates its impartial opinion respecting the advisability of the Central Labor Union sending delegates to the meeting at the so-called Hotel to-morrow night to organize a so-called 'citizens' movement for the purification of municipal politics by non-partisan nominations.'"

CENTRAL LABOR UNION SPLIT AGAIN.

SOCIALISTIC UNIONS ARE EXPELLED AND REFORM THE CENTRAL LABOR FEDERATION.

The Central Labor Union has once more quarreled with itself and become disorganized, and at its meeting in Clarendon Hall yesterday over forty unions left it and formed a new central body. For several years there has been more or less trouble in the Central Labor Union on account of the Socialist proclivities of many of the delegates, and as the Socialist doctrines spread among the workmen in this city, the trouble grew until early in 1889 there was a fight in which blows were exchanged and the Socialist organizations withdrew from the Central Labor Union and formed a new union under the name of the Central Labor Federation, which held meetings at No. 193 Bowersy until last winter, when it once more became amalgamated with the Central Labor Union and surrendered its charter to the American Federation of Labor.

Since this amalgamation the Socialist element has gained in strength, and with the idea of assuming the balance of power in the Central Labor Union, brought charges against James P. Archibald, a leader of the conservative element, saying he had been bribed by the Democrats with $2,100 to use his influence with the Central Labor Union in a political way. A committee was appointed to investigate the charge, and ex-organized Archibald of this charge, but condemned him for taking $50 to go to Albany to speak before a meeting of workmen. Archibald, who was recording secretary of the Central Labor Union, resigned that office two weeks ago. The Socialists still assert that Archibald accepted a bribe, in spite of the report of the investigating committee, and it was on this point that the split occurred yesterday, and the Socialists rejoined the Central Labor Federation.

James McKim was elected chairman of the meeting of the Central Labor Union yesterday at Clarendon Hall, and a resolution was introduced saying that as certain organizations had met in secret session and had voted to disrupt the Central Labor Union, the Central Labor Union request that the unions which had voted should withdraw. A debate followed the introduction of this resolution, and lasted for two hours, during which many plain words were spoken. Finally Mr. McKim put the resolution to vote, and it was carried almost unanimously, and the following unions were practically expelled from the Central Labor Union, several more than left it at the last disruption: Newspaper Printers' Union No. 1, Cigar-makers' Progressive Association, Boot and Shoe Workers' Association, Economic Engineers No. 1, Firemen's Union of Progress, Central Labor Union, Progressive No. 1, United Coat Operatives, Tailors' Progressive No. 11, Cigar-makers No. 90, Robert Fulton Association of Journeymen Ironers, Ironers, Aviators, Bricklayers and Builders, Upholsters,
