NEW-YORK AT THE FAIR. THE ASSEMBLY VOTES TO HAVE HER EXHIBIT CLOSED ON SUNDAYS.

THE WORLD'S FAIR BILL AFTERWARD LAID ASIDE, ON MOTION OF G. H. BUSH—THE GENERAL APPROPRIATION BILL.—FROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.

Albany, Feb. 19.—Those citizens of this State who are opposed to the opening of the World's Fair in Chicago upon Sunday will have some encouragement that their view will prevail when they read the proceedings of the Assembly to-day.

No one had any other thought when the World's Fair bill was announced, appropriation $300,000 for the Fair, than that it would be passed in a few minutes, without opposition. Mr. Devoe, a Republican, of Broome County, however, introduced an amendment to the bill providing that the New-York building and the New-York exhibit should be closed on Sunday.

Mr. Devoe's amendment was, in fact, a motion to amend the bill so that it should be so amended as to provide that the New-York building and the New-York exhibit should be closed on Sunday. And he expressed the opinion that the people of this State wish the World's Fair closed on Sunday.

Those who were in constant attendance upon him assert positively that during that time the old man did not take a drop of nourishment, and could only be induced to moisten his lips at long intervals with water. His mind seemed perfectly clear and he understood that he was committing suicide in refusing to eat.
