

PLAYS AROUND THE TOWN

NUMEROUS CHANGES AT THE THEATRES OF THE CITY.

There will be many changes of bill among the theatres this week. A new imported attraction is to be seen for the first time in this country at the Fifth Avenue Theatre to-morrow night. Mme. Eleonore Duse, who has evaded all efforts to bring her personally into publicity, will accept the necessity by appearing on Friday night at the Manhattan Opera House on Tuesday night when "Bochelli" will be sung for the first time in this country. Mr. Hammerstein has made extensive preparations to give it an elaborate and worthy production. The opera will be repeated on Friday night, on Wednesday evening and Saturday afternoon. "Carmen" will be sung on "The Bohemian Girl" on Saturday night.

The "School for Scandal" will have only one more performance at Daly's Theatre, that of to-morrow night. On Tuesday evening Mr. Daly will revive "The Yeomen of the Guard" which was the chief attraction of his season of last winter. Arthur Bourchier will be seen for the first time as Robin Hood, Miss Helen will play Maid Marian, and the rest of the cast will be nearly the same as last season. "The Yeomen" will be followed by "The Taming of the Shrew."

There will be no necessity for a change of opera at the Grand Theatre for some time to come. Miss Lillian Russell and her associates in "The Mountebanks" will, from present indications, continue with that attraction until the spring. The current engagement of this company will give New-Yorkers the only opportunity of hearing Miss Russell until next winter, when she will sing during the summer in the Metropolitan. She has had an offer from the composer, to sing in Paris, which she is considering.

Miss Minnie will appear at the Star Theatre to-morrow night. Her repertoire for the week will be as follows: Monday, "The Hunchback"; Tuesday, "Inez"; Wednesday, "As You Like It"; Thursday, "The Lady of Lyons"; Friday, "Romance and Juliet"; Saturday matinee and Saturday night, "Inez"; and "The Boy of the West" on Sunday. Arrangements have been made for engagements at two other New-York theatres before the present theatrical season closes, "The Grand Theatre" and "The Manhattan Opera House." Mr. William H. Crane is to produce at the Grand Theatre on January 30, has been called by the manager a "cosmopolitan comedy," because the characters are of so many different nations. It was done here at a special matinee some time ago, but has been considerably changed since then.

"Americans Abroad" is still showing all the attractive power that could be expected of it at the Lyceum Theatre. In fact, the bill of the city theatres are doing as well as any bill of the city theatres for the present and none is likely to occur in some time.

J. M. Hill's Opera Comique Company in "The Fencing Master" begins the eleventh week of its engagement at the Casino to-morrow evening. Receipts are still reported to be large. Miss Marie Frenzy is still singing with much enthusiasm, and is never absent from the cast. "The Fencing Master," Mr. Hill feels assured, could run for six months longer at the Casino.

One of the interesting occurrences of this week will be the production of "Friend Fritz" by the Manhattan Opera House at Hermann's Theatre on Thursday evening. Aside from the attention which may be drawn to a new venture on the part of this company, there is an interest in what will be the first attempt in America to present the Erkmann-Chatrain play "L'Ami Fritz" which is known as one of the successes of recent years at the Theatre Francaise. The stage direction of M. Maris is thoroughly familiar with the company.

The production and personally directed the production in London. The musical numbers written for "Friend Fritz" by Julian Edwards will afford scope for the abilities of Miss Marsh, which are thoroughly appreciated by the public, as well as for those of Mr. Mason, which are not so well known.

The Frenzy Comique Opera Company will play short engagements in some of the principal cities of the West after its run at the Amberg Theatre. Mr. Vogelzand's "Der Vogelhändler" will be presented at all. "Der Vogelhändler" will be played this week and the production of Millocker's "Des Sontagskind" is put off for a time.

Bronson Howard's "Aristocracy" will be continued for only two weeks more at Palmer's Theatre. The audiences have been large for the last week and an advance sale is said to indicate a prosperous engagement. The play will be continued until the close of the engagement. After the close of the New-York engagement it will be presented for a week in Cincinnati and another in Baltimore. It will then go to the Columbia Theatre, Chicago, for an extended run.

Mr. Hanley has made arrangements with Company G, 7th Regiment, to visit Hermann's Theatre on Wednesday evening to witness Mr. Harrigan's musical comedy production, "The Mulligan Gander's Ball." The local production, "The Mulligan Gander's Ball," which is the play which has attracted thousands of people since the beginning of the season will doubtless be equally endorsed by the delegation from the regiment. "Cordelia's Aspirations," which will follow the present attraction will not be presented in some weeks.

Mrs. Robert Livingston Cutting, Jr., heroine known on the stage as Miss Minnie Seligman, will appear at the Standard Theatre to-morrow night. My official time in New-York since her marriage. My official time in New-York since her marriage. My official time in New-York since her marriage.

The popular farce "Jane" will be presented at the Grand Opera House to-morrow night, with Miss Johnstone Bennett in the title part, supported by George W. Leslie, E. R. Colton, Joseph Allen, Schmitz, Seymour Hess, Master Joseph Wooten, Miss Gardner and Mrs. M. A. Fisher. Between the first and second acts the "Jane Waltz" will be played for the first time in this city. It was composed by George W. Leslie, who plays the leading male part in the piece, and is dedicated to Miss Bennett.

One week remains of the engagement of Joseph R. Grimmer and Miss Phoebe Davies in "The New Society" at the Broadway Theatre. That the play will be well received on the "Broadway" is a foregone conclusion. A professional matinee will be given on Thursday, at which there will doubtless be a large gathering of actors and actresses. "Ninety Days," by William Gillette, which is to be presented for the first time on any stage at the Broadway Theatre on Monday evening, January 30, will be given on an elaborate scale. Over 200 people will be employed in the production. On Sunday evening, February 12, Colonel Robert G. W. Wood will give his lecture on Abraham Lincoln at the Broadway.

The programme at Tony Pastor's Theatre this week offers the usual array of attractions. Besides Tony Pastor himself there are Mlle. Paquerette, French character singer; J. W. Kelly; Miss Vesta Victoria, English character artist; Miss Bonnie Thornton; the Buckley Trio (Irish, Turk and Randall), in an acrobatic act entitled "Nobody at Home"; the Majors (Marcelle, Antoine and Lilly), French "follies dancers"; the Ryders and their educated monkey, "Little Chimp"; "A Circus Reunion," Melrose and Goodrich; expert dancers, David Nelson and Minnie Belle; and Frederick J. Watson, who will introduce his educated dog.

All the attractions of "A Society Fad" are continued with slight changes at the Bijou Theatre. Miss Amelia Glover's dances are, as always, among the most popular features of the performance.

For the coming week "The Black Crook" at the Academy of Music will entertain theatre-goers with a "Carmen de la danse" dance, which will be performed by the "Variation dancers," Signor Guerra, a male dancer, trained in the most difficult specialties. Jules Levy will have a benefit at this theatre on Sunday evening, February 5, when many of his professional friends will participate.

MUSICAL COMMENT

NOTES ON CHURCH MUSIC—THE POPULAR CONCERTS—ANNOUNCEMENTS.

A service unique in kind and occasion was recently celebrated in Newark. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. W. W. Boyd, and the organist, E. M. Bowman, of the Pottier Memorial Church, have been colleagues for fifteen years, their association having had its beginning in St. Louis. This unique association and occasion was celebrated in Newark. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. W. W. Boyd, and the organist, E. M. Bowman, of the Pottier Memorial Church, have been colleagues for fifteen years, their association having had its beginning in St. Louis. This unique association and occasion was celebrated in Newark. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. W. W. Boyd, and the organist, E. M. Bowman, of the Pottier Memorial Church, have been colleagues for fifteen years, their association having had its beginning in St. Louis.

The performance of "Carmen" will be made most interesting by the introduction of a new solo, which will be sung by Miss Lucretia Bellini, the Euridyce of the cast. The programme will also include the contest act performed by Martelli, who appears as a monster lizard; Mlle. Yvonne, the French singer, in new songs; and Lou Delbe's one-act opera, "The Miller's Daughter." One of the principal features of the programme at the concert to-night will be the appearance of Mlle. Yvonne.

The company will play a return engagement at the Imperial Music Hall this week. This company will play a return engagement at the Imperial Music Hall this week. This company will play a return engagement at the Imperial Music Hall this week.

Frederick Ward will come to the Star Theatre next week for four weeks, beginning in the latter part of the week. He will play "The Hunchback," "Inez," "As You Like It," "The Lady of Lyons," "Romance and Juliet," "Saturday Matinee and Saturday Night," "Inez," and "The Boy of the West" on Sunday. Arrangements have been made for engagements at two other New-York theatres before the present theatrical season closes, "The Grand Theatre" and "The Manhattan Opera House."

After the cover show at the Madison Square Garden in April Mr. and Mrs. J. Hook Wright will give at the Metropolitan Opera House a series of recitals for the benefit of the Manhattan Dispensary and Hospital. An entertainment will also be given in the Metropolitan Opera House in the latter part of the season.

Rehearsals for "The Outsider" are being on commencing at the Park Theatre, where it is to be produced. After the cover show at the Madison Square Garden in April Mr. and Mrs. J. Hook Wright will give at the Metropolitan Opera House a series of recitals for the benefit of the Manhattan Dispensary and Hospital.

Stuart Robson has begun preparations for his four-weeks engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday evening, January 21, at the Manhattan Opera House, and will be continued for a limited period every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Stuart Robson has begun preparations for his four-weeks engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday evening, January 21, at the Manhattan Opera House, and will be continued for a limited period every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Stuart Robson has begun preparations for his four-weeks engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday evening, January 21, at the Manhattan Opera House, and will be continued for a limited period every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Stuart Robson has begun preparations for his four-weeks engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday evening, January 21, at the Manhattan Opera House, and will be continued for a limited period every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Stuart Robson has begun preparations for his four-weeks engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday evening, January 21, at the Manhattan Opera House, and will be continued for a limited period every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Stuart Robson has begun preparations for his four-weeks engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday evening, January 21, at the Manhattan Opera House, and will be continued for a limited period every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Stuart Robson has begun preparations for his four-weeks engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday evening, January 21, at the Manhattan Opera House, and will be continued for a limited period every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Stuart Robson has begun preparations for his four-weeks engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday evening, January 21, at the Manhattan Opera House, and will be continued for a limited period every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Stuart Robson has begun preparations for his four-weeks engagement at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Monday evening, January 21, at the Manhattan Opera House, and will be continued for a limited period every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening, starting every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

A WESTERN DIAGNOSIS.

JAMES S. NORTON'S SPEECH AT THE YALE DINNER.

The interest of the hour when it was delivered prevented its publication in yesterday's Tribune of the following keen and witty speech by James S. Norton, of Chicago, at the Yale Alumni dinner on Friday night.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

Let me thank you, gentlemen, for the evidence of your interest in me. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men. I have done my duty, and I have done it with a growing catholicity of spirit, a deeper concern for all sorts and conditions of men.

A PLEA FROM MRS. HARRIS.

SHE WANTS A NEW TRIAL FOR HER SON.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

The mother of Carlyle W. Harris, whose conviction for murder in the first degree for poisoning his wife has just been confirmed by the Court of Appeals, has written the following letter to be read in his boy's behalf at the previous term. It was a boy that deluded in all boyish sports—cock fighting, fish and hunt; but he became passionately sensitive, and a few days later he was shot by a bullet which he had fired at a man.

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE SHOULD NOT MEET BEFORE JULY.

HE THINKS THAT THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE SHOULD NOT MEET BEFORE JULY.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the Republican National Executive Committee, who is at the Plaza Hotel to-day, said that he could not say at present what would be the date of the National Committee's meeting, and he also repeated the assertion that he was not in the race for the Montana Senatorship. He is here with his brother, Hall Carter, on private business, but during the three or four days which he will spend in New-York he says that he will incidentally dispose of all of the unfinished committee work he can. Mr. Carter is in much better health at present than when he was suffering with a severe attack of indigestion, but he has entirely recovered from that complaint, and has also succeeded in making up the rest by losing the exciting time of the campaign.

REORGANIZATION IS A QUESTION THAT SHOULD NOT BE TOO HAUSTILY PASSED UPON.

REORGANIZATION IS A QUESTION THAT SHOULD NOT BE TOO HAUSTILY PASSED UPON.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.

The result of the election has to no way changed the policy of the Republican party. The party still believes in the protective policy, is for pure and honest elections, believes in the industrial independence of the American people, and is not ashamed of the record it has made. The action of the wool men's union, however, is not an indication that they are not in sympathy with the Republican party. Many plans have been talked over, but we have had no time to secure results.