

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS. WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

Candidates for Mayor are now being discussed, and it is expected that the spring campaign will be the liveliest which York has known for years.

YONKERS. The special committee of the Board of Village Trustees will on Wednesday night report to the Village Board the result of their investigation as to whether the property owners are willing to have an electric railroad constructed in White Plains.

MOUNT VERNON. Cyrus D. Jones, sixty-five years old, a New-York shirt manufacturer, who lived at No. 47 South Third-ave, Mount Vernon, was found dead in his coach in his residence yesterday afternoon by his wife.

NEW-JERSEY. JERSEY CITY. There was general rejoicing in Jersey City yesterday over the fact that justice had overtaken the men who have so long set at defiance the laws.

EVANGELICAL MEETINGS TO BE HELD. The series of evangelistic meetings begun last week under the auspices of a central committee of ministers will be continued this week, at noon in the Association Hall, at 4 p. m. in the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, and in the evenings in a number of churches.

THE MEMORIAL ARCH ILLUMINATED. The Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial Arch at Prospect Park plaza was illuminated with electric lights for the first time last evening since its dedication in connection with the Columbian parade on October 21, 1892.

TO DECIDE ON OFFICIAL BONDS. The Board of Aldermen will hold its second meeting this afternoon. The official bonds of the heads of departments under Mayor Joseph Bonomi are to be approved, as well as the bond of Joseph Bonomi as City Clerk.

ELIZABETH. A daring robbery and what nearly proved a murder was committed at Elizabeth on Saturday night. The victim was Gustave Korn, a jeweler, who was assaulted and left for dead in his store, No. 29 Broad-st., which was robbed by two unknown men.

HOME NEWS. PROMINENT ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS. BRUNSWICK—Bradley H. Smalley, of Vermont, CAMBRIDGE—Count de Langier-Villars, French Minister to Haiti.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY. Instruction drill of officers, 8th Battalion Army, evening. Meeting of Hospital Association, St. Luke's Hospital, 4:30 p. m.

NEW-YORK CITY. A historic sermon, entitled "Two Years as a Free Church," was preached to a large congregation in the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, at Madison-ave, and Fifty-third-st., by the Rev. Dr. Charles L. Thompson, pastor, yesterday morning.

THE Higher Duty of the Educated Citizen. The speaker paid a graceful tribute to Mr. Sanger's memory, and dwelt upon the lessons to be drawn from his life.

Charles F. Wingate, the well-known sanitary engineer and secretary of the Twilight Club, delivered an address, "The Evolution of the City," before the Science Sermons Society in the lecture-room of the church of the Messiah, at Park-ave, and Thirty-fourth-st., last evening.

The moon and Jupiter formed a tolerable star and crescent in the western sky last evening. Only the crescent was nearly a semi-circle and Jupiter was too far off to be precisely neighboring.

A new handrail has been placed on the stairway by which people descend directly from the Bridge station to the street. It is a needed improvement; the next thing should be to light this stairway better.

The milliners are said to be rejoicing over the early coming of Easter, for "Easter bonnets" will have to be replaced a few weeks later by head-gears more appropriate to the spring season.

Sandy Hook towboat captains, who have hitherto been kept fairly busy, are beginning to feel the effects of the general depression of business, as ship captains are using coal instead of steam power to come into the harbor.
