

Index to Advertisements. Amusements, Announcements, Real Estate, etc.

Business Notices. Keop's Dress Shirts to measure, 6 for $9.00.

TRIBUTE TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS. Single copy, 5 cents.

FOREIGN POSTAGE. To all foreign countries (except Canada and Mexico) 3 cents a copy.

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

Brooklyn Offices. 245 5th Ave., N. Y. C.

FOUNDED BY HORACE GREELEY. SUNDAY, APRIL 15, 1894.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING. Foreign.—Mello and his 1,500 troops have surrendered to the Uruguayan authorities.

Congress.—Both branches in session. The Senate: Mr. Quay delivered a speech on the tariff bill.

Domestic.—The jury in the Pollard-Breckinridge case awarded a verdict of $15,000 to the plaintiff.

City and Suburban.—The Lexow Committee adjourned until the close of the session of the Legislature.

The baseball season of 1894 will be formally inaugurated next Thursday. The Giants will open the season in Baltimore.

The bright, sunny weather yesterday and the promise of equally favorable atmospheric conditions to-day have reawakened the interest in bicycle riding.

Brooklyn loses by the death of General Slocom one of its most eminent citizens and the Nation one of its most gallant soldiers.

Although people are in a measure accustomed to the distinctly sulphuric character of the atmosphere that has prevailed in and around our City Hall ever since Tammany has obtained control of Manhattan Island, yet so powerful was the odor there yesterday that the building was almost completely deserted.

Brooklyn loses by the death of General Slocom one of its most eminent citizens and the Nation one of its most gallant soldiers.

Although people are in a measure accustomed to the distinctly sulphuric character of the atmosphere that has prevailed in and around our City Hall ever since Tammany has obtained control of Manhattan Island, yet so powerful was the odor there yesterday that the building was almost completely deserted.

was due to the fumigation to which the place was subjected for the purpose of destroying any smallpox germs that may have been lurking about the headquarters of our municipal government since one of the Mayor's clerks developed a case of that malady a couple of days ago.

THE MUNICIPAL INVESTIGATION. The brief and unprofitable sessions of the Senate Investigating Committee on Friday and Saturday were productive of some unnecessary excitement and some regrettable complications.

THE VERDICT. The verdict in the Breckinridge case will undoubtedly meet general approval. Opinions may differ as to the amount of damages which should have been awarded the plaintiff.

THE ROSEBURY GOVERNMENT. The Rosebury Ministry is displaying considerable dexterity in carrying water on both shoulders. In order to hold its supporters together it is compelled to make large concessions simultaneously to the Radicals and to the Nationalists.

ARE MISSIONS A FAILURE? An interesting controversy has sprung up as to whether Christian missions in India are successful. It was first started by certain delegates from India in the World's Parliament of Religions.

YELLOWSTONE PARK. Mr. Lacey's bill for the protection of game in the Yellowstone National Park passed the House on Tuesday. Under its provisions the Park is added to the United States Judicial District of Wyoming.

DOBY ON THEIR KNEELS. Mr. Reed is entitled to feel some little satisfaction in the final surrender of the Democrats at Washington. His instincts are not cruel, and he will undoubtedly behave in this hour of his signal triumph with all the dignity, gentleness and modesty that distinguish him in every situation.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

to the Park, so that it now has practically the boundaries laid down in the bill which Senator Vest struggled to pass so many years in vain.

THE VERDICT. The verdict in the Breckinridge case will undoubtedly meet general approval. Opinions may differ as to the amount of damages which should have been awarded the plaintiff.

THE ROSEBURY GOVERNMENT. The Rosebury Ministry is displaying considerable dexterity in carrying water on both shoulders. In order to hold its supporters together it is compelled to make large concessions simultaneously to the Radicals and to the Nationalists.

ARE MISSIONS A FAILURE? An interesting controversy has sprung up as to whether Christian missions in India are successful. It was first started by certain delegates from India in the World's Parliament of Religions.

YELLOWSTONE PARK. Mr. Lacey's bill for the protection of game in the Yellowstone National Park passed the House on Tuesday. Under its provisions the Park is added to the United States Judicial District of Wyoming.

DOBY ON THEIR KNEELS. Mr. Reed is entitled to feel some little satisfaction in the final surrender of the Democrats at Washington. His instincts are not cruel, and he will undoubtedly behave in this hour of his signal triumph with all the dignity, gentleness and modesty that distinguish him in every situation.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

THE TRIBUNE. The Tribune Building, New York. Main office at the Tribune Building, New York.

chiefs consisted of the youngest and plumpest of the chieftain's wives, whom he had seen full of life and laughter earlier in the day. What added to the prelate's dismay was the fact that when casually asked by the chief, during the course of the morning, which of the wives he thought the most attractive, the right reverend father, with heedless politeness, had pointed to the very woman who was later served up, cooked and dressed, as the "plat d'honneur." The same newspaper, which is the official organ of the Roman Catholic missions under the control of the Propaganda Fide, gives extracts from the report of a priest on the River Ubange, in Africa, who relates that slaves there are sold alive on the public market for use as butchers' meat.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

THE TALK OF THE DAY. "The Long Island Star," a new paper just started in Huntington, L. I., thinks that Long Island should be an independent State.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.

PERSONAL. Professor Booker T. Washington, himself a colored man, and the principal of the Tuskegee (Ala.) Normal and Industrial Institute, thinks that the solution of the race problem lies in the hands of the colored people.