

RUSIES' FATAL FIRST.

HE LET THE ORIOLES GET A LEAD WHICH COULD NOT BE OVERCOME. THE NEW-YORKS MADE A STRONG RALLY IN THE NINTH, BUT THE GAME WAS ALREADY LOST—HOW IT ALL HAPPENED.

GAMES YESTERDAY. Baltimore 12, New York 9. Washington 4, Philadelphia 1. Boston 12, Cleveland 1. Pittsburgh 9, Louisville 6. Cleveland 2, St. Louis 1.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. Baltimore, Aug. 10.—The Orioles clean, snappy batting and perfect indifference to Rusie's swift curves and incoherent, coupled with errors by Ward and Doyle and poor throwing by Fuller, made it easy for the home team to win to-day's game.

As a matter of fact, the Orioles put a convincing argument on the game when they sailed for the first time in the inning and touched Amos Rusie up for five runs and six hits. The Giants could not do anything to help themselves, and Rusie was not slow in the ninth, while the Orioles played slovenly ball, his record would not show more than ten hits.

The Orioles had their eyes upon the ball. They batted for five runs and six hits in this fashion: Kelley went to first, being hit by a pitched ball. He reached third on Keeler's double left, and after Brothers went out, Rusie to Doyle, Kelley and Keeler scored on McGraw's single to right on Brodie's single. McGraw went to third, and Brodie stole second. McGraw and Brodie, Robinson singled, scoring Jennings to third, and on Gleason's single to right, Jennings scored. Kelley fled out on a wild throw.

An error of Keeler's in letting Farrell's drive get away from him was responsible for Ward and Murphy scoring in the second. Ward having singled to right, and Murphy having made a clean single to right, Doyle, Van Halten and Rusie scored on Keeler's single. Kelley reached third, Kelley scored on Brodie's fly to right. It was one, two, three for New York in the third. Rusie pitched to the Orioles in a single, and Brodie was added to first on Fuller's high throw of his grounder, and to third on Keeler's single. Brodie scored on Ward's single. Robinson scored on Brodie's fly to right. Kelley scored on Brodie's fly to right.

At Saratoga Springs, the Orioles were again on the fourth reaching first on a clean hit to left, and advancing to second on Ward's single, reaching third on Keeler's single. Kelley scored on Brodie's fly to right, and on Gleason's single to right and scored on Brodie's fly to right. Brodie scored on Keeler's single. Kelley scored on Brodie's fly to right. Kelley scored on Brodie's fly to right.

NEW-YORK. Baltimore, Aug. 10.—The Orioles scored in the eighth inning, but were unable to score in the ninth. The Orioles scored in the eighth inning, but were unable to score in the ninth. The Orioles scored in the eighth inning, but were unable to score in the ninth.

AN EASY VICTORY FOR BOSTON. BROOKLYN'S GENERAL LISTLESSNESS AND KENNEDY'S INEFFECTIVENESS LOST THE GAME. About 1,500 people were present to witness the game between the Boston Red Sox and the Brooklyn Dodgers. The game was a rout for Boston, with the Red Sox leading from the first inning.

When it was seen that Kennedy was to pitch for Brooklyn, and that two of the Boston team's best men were not to play, every one was justified in believing that the home team had the best of the argument. Duffy and the rest of the team were covered by the extra catchers, Terry and Conough, and the Dodgers, according to the score card, certainly had a splendid chance to win the colors of the champions. But the unexpected occurs frequently in baseball.

Kennedy, who has been doing such good work of late, pitched like a novice, the champion batting his curves all over the field, making scoring eleven runs. It was about as dismal a record as Kennedy has made this year. His support was, of course, of the worst possible sort, the home players fumbling everything that came their way. As for team work, there was not a vestige of this quality necessary to success upon the green diamond, and each player seemed bound to outdo his comrades in his mad career of blundering. The spectators felt angry at the play, and a riot was expected, but the game was eventually let to proceed in a thoroughly disgusted condition.

Duffy, who was given his notice of release the night before, and who has been called upon to pitch in nearly every game the team has played, was shorted and left to pitch in the ninth. The little fellow pitched splendidly, and of the entire Brooklyn team he is the only player who deserves any credit. Duffy went into the ninth with the score 11 to 2 against his team. He held down the champions to a 10-0 lead for the remainder of the game, and only for a fraction of an inning was he troubled by the champions who had not made another run.

MAHON, IF HIS ARM IS BETTER, WILL PITCH FOR BALTIMORE.

The Brooklyn Club has recalled the release of Daub. The work of the little fellow of late certainly justifies this course. The new pitcher recently signed by Brooklyn will have his first try to-day.

GAMES IN OTHER CITIES. Washington, Aug. 10.—Merzer won his game against the Phillies to-day by pitching great ball and by knocking out a home run in the seventh inning. It was an pitchers' battle between Merzer and Carney, and the former came out with flying colors. Weather clear. Attendance 34,000.
