

NO RECEIVER IN POSSESSION

GEORGE V. SIMS HAS NOT YET CARRIED OUT HIS THREAT. HE SAYS HIS COURSE TOWARD THE MINING EXCHANGE WILL BE GOVERNED BY HIS COUNSEL—WHAT THE PRESIDENT HAS TO SAY.

The New-York Mining Exchange was open for business as usual yesterday. George V. Sims, the original organizer of the concern, who was deposed as a director on charges of failure to account for funds and irregularities in stock transactions, had been threatened to put a receiver in possession. In addition to his deposition as a director, he was at the close of the afternoon call suspended from membership for not meeting his obligations incurred on the floor of the Exchange.

THE LEVY CASE ON TRIAL AGAIN.

TESTIMONY OF THE MAN WHO IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN INRANELY IN LOVE. The second trial, to determine the mental condition of Daniel Levy, an advertising agent, was begun yesterday in Trial Term IX of the Supreme Court, before Justice Bischoff and a jury.

POPULAR SHIRTS AND COLLARS.

H. C. Curtis & Co., of Troy, the manufacturers of men's fine dress shirts and fine linen collars and cuffs, say that there is a special call just now among those who are recognized as excellent judges of the correct thing to wear.

TRIED TO DECEIVE THE INSPECTOR.

The Excise Board has under consideration an application by Charles Willersdorf for a renewal of his saloon license at No. 1,027 First-ave. The saloon is within 200 feet of the synagogue of the Congregation Adas Israel, in First-ave., near Fifty-seventh-st.

POLICEMEN BEGIN TO DRILL.

The police force was resumed yesterday at the 12th Regiment Armory. From now until March 20 only captains, sergeants and drummers will take part in the drills. After the 20th the patrolmen will also be drilled.

SUBJECTS OF PRESENT INTEREST.

The following reports will be considered at the meeting of the Board of Trade and Transportation at 2:30 p. m. to-day in its rooms, No. 202 Broadway: Report of Executive Committee favoring Senate bills Nos. 74, 76 and 78, known as the Decker, Hays and Clegg bills, for the transportation of "Better Country Roads and How to Procure Them."

HOME NEWS.

PROMINENT ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS. EYREHETT—John R. Procter, of the United States Civil Service Commission, FIFTH AVENUE—Charles S. Hamlin, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury; Governor John W. Briggs, of New Jersey; Louis Tevis, of San Francisco, and ex-Governor Jacob A. Sargent, of New York; General Jacob A. Sargent, of Corning, and ex-Secretary Harvey J. Donaldson, of Ballston, N. Y.; HOFFMAN—General Albert Ordway, of Washington, and Samuel R. Beardsley, of Utica; MARLBOROUGH—General R. N. Nelson, of Hartford; MURRAY HILLS—William George W. Peterkin, of West Virginia; WALLGREN—Ex-Congressman Augustus Brandegee, of Connecticut; WINDSOR—Paymaster J. J. Brice, United States Navy.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

Westchester Home Investigation, White Plains. Agents' Commissioners' meeting, 3 p. m. Mayor's reception, Chickering Hall, 4 p. m. Funeral of Richard Irvin, No. 12 West Thirty-sixth-st., 9:30 a. m. Squadron A athletic games, armory, 8:30 p. m. Paint, Oil and Varnish Club, St. Denis Hotel, 8 p. m. Brooklyn Bicycle Show, Armory Hall. Dr. Henry M. Leppiger's lecture, No. 5 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st., 8 p. m. Brooklyn Yacht Club, No. 6 Willoughby-st., Brooklyn, 8 p. m.

NEW-YORK CITY.

The North Side Board of Trade on Monday night passed resolutions opposing the Pavey School bill, and advocating the continuance of the system of school trustees. The Metropolitan Museum of Art is open free to the public from 10 a. m. to sunset on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; on Sunday afternoons from 1 o'clock to sunset, and on the evenings of Mondays and Fridays. On Mondays and Fridays from 10 o'clock until sunset, while the art students and members of the Museum only are admitted, other persons have to pay an entrance fee of 25 cents on these two days.

The Museum of Natural History is open on Wednesdays from 9 to 10 o'clock. On Tuesday and Saturday evenings from 8 to 10 o'clock the public is admitted free. On Sundays it is open from 1 to 5 o'clock. Admission is charged on Mondays and Tuesdays. "The Government Ownership of Railroads" will be the subject in Professor Guntton's free lecture course at the School of Social Economics, No. 31 Union Square, this evening. The principal address will be made by Professor Frank L. McVey.

Ex-Judge Charles P. Daly will lecture on "Songs and Song Writers" to-morrow evening in the vestry-rooms of the Temple Emanuel-EI before the Young Men's Hebrew Association. A petition was circulated among the members of the Produce Exchange yesterday, asking the Board of Managers to favor the locating Green site for the proposed new Custom House.

In the vestry-room of the Temple Emanuel-EI at 125 o'clock on Monday evening, ex-Judge Justice Charles P. Daly, of the Court of Common Pleas, will lecture before the Young Men's Hebrew Association upon "Songs and Song Writers." After the lecture Henry Morrison will explain to the audience a matter in connection with ex-Judge Daly's service in the Mason-Siddell incident in the Civil War never before made public. The trial of Le Bruto Colliogera, of No. 191 Elizabeth-st., for the murder of Salvatore Marsalli on September 1 last, before Justice Smyth, in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court, yesterday resulted in a verdict of manslaughter in the first degree. The shooting took place in the street near Colliogera's home.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

The Young Women's Christian Association of the City of New-York will hold a mass-meeting at Carnegie Hall on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock, to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the association. Brief addresses on the different aspects and advantages of this work for young women will be made by Hamilton W. Mabie, president; the Rev. Mrs. Burrell, Pauncefote, Greer, Hall and Lonnare, Chaucery M. Dewey, General Wager Swayne and Colonel George E. Waring, Jr. Tickets may be had, free of charge, on application at the association building, No. 7 East Fifteenth-st.

Merrill Edward Gates, president of Amherst College, will speak on "Fratricides in Time of Peace," at the Amherst College, on Friday evening next, at 8 o'clock. The lecture will be under the auspices of the Patria Club.

The Catholic Club will on Monday evening next give a reception for Colonel George Hines and Frederic H. Couderc, in acknowledgment of their services as counsel to the Catholic charities of the State before the Constitutional Convention.

Fredrick William Hollis will deliver on March 17 at 8 o'clock a lecture upon "The Government of Cities of the Third Class in the State of New-York," in Hamilton Hall, Columbia College.

The Schoolmasters' Association will meet on Saturday at 10:30 a. m. in Hamilton Hall, Columbia College, to hear the reports of several conferences on uniform entrance requirements.

The March dinner of the Medico-Legal Society will be held to-night at the Marlborough Hotel. The bill abolishing the Coroner's office will be discussed.

Next Saturday afternoon will be "ladies' day" at the Harlem Republican Club, No. 147 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st.

There will be an informal meeting of the Phi Beta Kappa Alumni Association at the Waldorf on Friday evening, at which Principal William Peterson, of McGill University, Montreal, will read on "Relations of English-Speaking Peoples."

The American Authors' Guild will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the Windsor Hotel. Some of the subjects to be discussed are a permanent guild home, an authors' mortuary fund, an associated authors' publishing company, and an entertainment for the benefit of the guild.

The Board of Aldermen met as the Board of County Canvassers yesterday, and made the formal declaration that in the recent special election held in the XVth Assembly District Francis J. Goodman (Tam. Dem.) had been duly elected.

LOCAL BUSINESS COMPLICATIONS.

The Sheriff has received an attachment against Charles Stern, money broker, of No. 66 Canal-st., for $1,017 in favor of Knauth, Nachod & Kuehne, bankers, who accuse him of obtaining that amount from them on a worthless check. They say that on March 5 Mr. Stern purchased 250 Austrian florins and gave them his check on the Merchants' National Bank for $1,017. The check was returned the next day, there being no money in the bank to meet it. A clerk was sent to Mr. Stern's office, where he was informed by the person in charge that Stern had suddenly gone away and could not be found. The clerk was told at Stern's house, No. 38 Market-st., that Stern had disappeared, taking with him a satchel filled with money. Stern has not been at the office since Friday. He left a safe, which has been seized by the Marshal. It is reported that he obtained considerable money from other persons before he went away.

Joel I. Hart and Samuel Josephine, composing the firm of Joel I. Hart & Co., manufacturers of trousers, at No. 14 Lafayette Place, made an assignment yesterday to Charles L. Cohn, of No. 271 Broadway, giving preferences to Pauline Josephine for $2,500 and to Hannah Hart for $3,200. The business was established thirty years ago by Mr. Hart's father, who died about two years ago, and the son, who had been in partnership with the father, continued the business until the present firm was formed on December 23 last. Cohn was returned to the creditors will be held in a few days. Pauline Josephine received an assignment against the company recently for $2,750 in favor of the American Trust Company. The company was incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000, which was increased to $20,000, and bonds of $50,000 were also issued. Pauline Josephine is a widow, and has a son, Herbert Parsons, assignee of Theodore Rieckecker, manufacturer of perfumery, at No. 35 Maiden Lane, filed an assignment against the company against the assets would not exceed $50,000.

THE TAMSEN CASE HEARING.

Ex-Judge William H. Robertson, who is the referee appointed by Governor Morton to take testimony in the matter of the charges of Henry Grosse and others against Sheriff Tamsen, will begin his hearing on Monday, March 22. The testimony will be taken in the Supreme Court rooms of the County Court House.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS. The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent. Mr. Holter, who resigned as a Police Commissioner, and Mayor Deane nominated Hall H. Waring to fill all the vacancies. John Evers was nominated to succeed him as Water Commissioner, and both nominations will come up for action at the next meeting of the Council. John F. Brennan tendered his resignation as one of the Morris Street Commissioners, and the City Attorney was directed to apply to the Supreme Court for the appointment of his successor. The Committee on Public Baths recommended the purchase of a lot at Park and Jefferson streets, on which to erect the bathing house.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

YONKERS.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

The meeting of the Common Council on Monday night was one of the longest sessions on record. After a heated discussion a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the Council that the resolution adopted on January 11, 1896, authorizing the leasing, with the privilege of buying for park purposes, a certain parcel of land situated at No. 86 Van Cortlandt Park-ave., should be annulled, and that the resolution be forwarded to the owner, Frank T. Holter, asking his consent.

A Whole Library of Bicycle Information. The Columbia Catalogue is not a mere price-list. It gives convincing reasons why all who love pleasure and comfort in bicycling should select... COLUMBIA Bicycles. STANDARD OF THE WORLD. $100 to all alike. Your knowledge of bicycle making will grow by reading this interesting book. Free if you call. POPE MANUFACTURING CO. 12 WARREN STREET. Boulevard and 60th Street. Columbia Riding Academy, Renting, Storage.

COWPERTHWAIT'S RELIABLE CARPETS. Carpeting and Upholstery. 101 WEST 141ST STREET.

GRAHAM MADAM ARRESTED. UNDER INDICTMENT IN CONNECTION WITH BOGUS LLOYDS AFFAIRS. OTHER MEN WHO ARE SAID TO BE UNDER INDICTMENT NOT YET CAUGHT—THE PRISONER COMMITTED BY JUDGE NEUBURGER.

A WHITE MAN SUSPECTED. POLICE SEARCHING FOR EVIDENCE AGAINST VAN COTT FOR POWELL'S DEATH.

NEW-ROCHELLE. E. Lyon, of 61 Elm-st., is reported to have purchased the house and lot, on Elm-st., adjoining the C. H. Nixon property.

WHITE PLAINS. Hope Engine Company elected Cornelius Donovan, foreman; John McNeil and John Flaherty, assistants; John Cooley, recording secretary; Edward Scodell, financial secretary, and Charles Levisner, treasurer, at its annual meeting, on Monday evening.

THE LATEST IN SPRING BONNETS. James McCroery & Co. opened yesterday at their store, in Twenty-third-st., near Sixth-ave., a charming display of spring millinery novelties.

DELAY ON THE BRIDGE. A train at the New-York end of the Bridge shipped its cable at the busiest time of the day, last evening, and it took nearly an hour to get the cable on the bridge.

THE MARRIAGE DAY IS SET. From the Washington Star. One of the most interested persons in the United States Supreme Court room on Monday last was a young man, who had been in the habit of reading the opinion of the court in the Stanford case since was anxious to hear every word of it.

THE FARMERS' CLUB FLOWER SHOW. The Farmers' Club of the American Institute, gave a special exhibition of spring flowers and ornamental plants in their rooms in the American Institute Building, No. 113 West Thirty-eighth-st., last night.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE. MINIATURE ALMANAC. Sunrise 6:18; Sunset 6:02; Moon rises at 5:54; Moon's age 28.

Ceill's Dress Goods. Imported Novelties. Mohairs, Sicilienne, Brillantine, Glacé, Florentine, Grenada, Coating and Dresden. Grenadines, English and Scotch Suitings. Lord & Taylor. Here are a few Special Prices that should interest every Housewife: Polished Antique Oak Rockers, saddle seat, carved back, same as above cut, and actually worth 5.00, on sale at 2.98. Gilt Reception Chairs, rush seat, 2.19. Dining Chairs of antique oak, high backs carved, with fluted posts, cane seats, 1.48. Chiffoniers of antique oak, 5 drawers, carved top and front, 5.98. White Enamel Steel Beds, heavy curved brass rail and mounts, all sizes, woven wire spring, 10.48.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE. Odd Pieces—New Prices. If you want last fall's designs at greatly reduced prices, buy now. Our spring mark-down sale has greatly changed the figures. Graceful shapes they are, in the best of woods, with the finest finish—and sold at a quarter less than the manufacturing prices. We mean to get rid of them. "BUY OF THE MAKER" GEO. C. FLINT & Co. 43, 45 and 47 West 23rd St. NEAR BROADWAY. FACTORY: 154 and 156 West 10th Street.

Mattings! Mattings! Our Importation the Largest in the City. In many New and Novel Effects. China Mattings from $1.50 per roll of 40 yards. Japanese (Genuine) Mattings a Novelty, just received. RUGS! RUGS! RUGS! Extensive Line, both Foreign and Domestic. All Wool "Sakai" Rugs, Reversible, all sizes (we guarantee them), at about the price of the worthless Jute Japanese.

SHEPPARD KNAPP & CO. SIXTH AVE. 13TH AND 14TH STS. ...THE... HONEST, FAIR, FEARLESS AND ACCURATE.

ALMANAC. A curious testimonial to the value of THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC is afforded by the fact that, for several years, a resident of this city, with a mind for figures, a lawyer we believe, made a deliberate study of THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC every year, ferreting out every error and favoring THE TRIBUNE with his friendly but unsparing conclusions.

MEMBERS OF PATRIOTIC SOCIETIES and those desiring to join them will find in this number the names of the officers of all the leading Societies of every kind in the United States. 25 CENTS A COPY.

THE MOVEMENTS OF STEAMERS. FOREIGN PORTS. Steamer Hobbs (Br.), Robinson, from New-York February 23 for Letth, passed Lewis Island March 9. Steamer Holben (Br.), sailed from Santos for New-York March 9. Steamer Bolla (Br.), sailed from Rio Janeiro for New-York March 9. Steamer Havel (Br.), Anderson, sailed from Shields for New-York March 9. Steamer Maroon (Br.), Bingham, sailed from Shields for New-York March 9. Steamer Maroon (Br.), Bingham, sailed from Shields for New-York March 9. Steamer Maroon (Br.), Bingham, sailed from Shields for New-York March 9.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that on or about March 21, 1896, the red sector in the North channel entrance to Tampa Bay will be discontinued, and there will be established two narrow red sectors, of which the northern one will cover Tampa Bay Southwest Channel Bar, Bay, black and white perpendicular stripes, and the northern one will cover Tampa Bay, North Channel Entrance Whistling buoy, black and white perpendicular stripes.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that, on February 28, 1896, the lower and upper gas-lighted buoys, the lights on which had some waxing, were replaced by new gas-lighted buoys, charged with gas and the lights re-established as heretofore. The stations of the buoys were not changed. Buoy is moored in 22 feet of water, in line with the lighted beacons marking the E side of the lower reach of the dredged channel, the lower buoy being about 2 miles and the upper buoy about 1 mile 88-100 from Lower Channel Beacon.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that, on February 28, 1896, the lower and upper gas-lighted buoys, the lights on which had some waxing, were replaced by new gas-lighted buoys, charged with gas and the lights re-established as heretofore. The stations of the buoys were not changed. Buoy is moored in 22 feet of water, in line with the lighted beacons marking the E side of the lower reach of the dredged channel, the lower buoy being about 2 miles and the upper buoy about 1 mile 88-100 from Lower Channel Beacon.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that, on February 28, 1896, the lower and upper gas-lighted buoys, the lights on which had some waxing, were replaced by new gas-lighted buoys, charged with gas and the lights re-established as heretofore. The stations of the buoys were not changed. Buoy is moored in 22 feet of water, in line with the lighted beacons marking the E side of the lower reach of the dredged channel, the lower buoy being about 2 miles and the upper buoy about 1 mile 88-100 from Lower Channel Beacon.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that, on February 28, 1896, the lower and upper gas-lighted buoys, the lights on which had some waxing, were replaced by new gas-lighted buoys, charged with gas and the lights re-established as heretofore. The stations of the buoys were not changed. Buoy is moored in 22 feet of water, in line with the lighted beacons marking the E side of the lower reach of the dredged channel, the lower buoy being about 2 miles and the upper buoy about 1 mile 88-100 from Lower Channel Beacon.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that, on February 28, 1896, the lower and upper gas-lighted buoys, the lights on which had some waxing, were replaced by new gas-lighted buoys, charged with gas and the lights re-established as heretofore. The stations of the buoys were not changed. Buoy is moored in 22 feet of water, in line with the lighted beacons marking the E side of the lower reach of the dredged channel, the lower buoy being about 2 miles and the upper buoy about 1 mile 88-100 from Lower Channel Beacon.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that, on February 28, 1896, the lower and upper gas-lighted buoys, the lights on which had some waxing, were replaced by new gas-lighted buoys, charged with gas and the lights re-established as heretofore. The stations of the buoys were not changed. Buoy is moored in 22 feet of water, in line with the lighted beacons marking the E side of the lower reach of the dredged channel, the lower buoy being about 2 miles and the upper buoy about 1 mile 88-100 from Lower Channel Beacon.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that, on February 28, 1896, the lower and upper gas-lighted buoys, the lights on which had some waxing, were replaced by new gas-lighted buoys, charged with gas and the lights re-established as heretofore. The stations of the buoys were not changed. Buoy is moored in 22 feet of water, in line with the lighted beacons marking the E side of the lower reach of the dredged channel, the lower buoy being about 2 miles and the upper buoy about 1 mile 88-100 from Lower Channel Beacon.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that, on February 28, 1896, the lower and upper gas-lighted buoys, the lights on which had some waxing, were replaced by new gas-lighted buoys, charged with gas and the lights re-established as heretofore. The stations of the buoys were not changed. Buoy is moored in 22 feet of water, in line with the lighted beacons marking the E side of the lower reach of the dredged channel, the lower buoy being about 2 miles and the upper buoy about 1 mile 88-100 from Lower Channel Beacon.

NOTICE TO MARINERS. Notice is given that, on February 28, 1896, the lower and upper gas-lighted buoys, the lights on which had some waxing, were replaced by new gas-lighted buoys, charged with gas and the lights re-established as heretofore. The stations of the buoys were not changed. Buoy is moored in 22 feet of water, in line with the lighted beacons marking the E side of the lower reach of the dredged channel, the lower buoy being about 2 miles and the upper buoy about 1 mile 88-100 from Lower Channel Beacon.