

SEYMOUR TAKES THE OATH.

HE BECOMES MAYOR OF NEWARK IN PLACE OF LEBKUECHER.

REORGANIZATION OF THE COMMON COUNCIL AND THE BOARD OF WORKS—SUNDAY CLOSING IGNORED IN THE ANNUAL MESSAGE.

James M. Seymour, who was elected Mayor of Newark last month, was inducted into office at noon yesterday with ceremonies which, though brief, were impressive.

At 11 o'clock the Mayor and his successors moved aside, forming a line, down which they marched to the desk. Without further ado the Mayor-elect sat at the desk and signed his name in the archives of the city.

When the cheering ceased Mayor Lebkuecher turned to his successor, congratulated him and formally transferred to him all the city property over which he has for two years had control.

Mayor-elect sat at the desk and signed his name in the archives of the city. He then arose, and amid the wildly enthusiastic cheering of the crowd Mayor Lebkuecher administered the oath of office.

When the cheering ceased Mayor Lebkuecher turned to his successor, congratulated him and formally transferred to him all the city property over which he has for two years had control.

This brief speech was received with enthusiastic cheering and an informal reception followed. After a few moments of consultation with the new Mayor-elect, Mayor Lebkuecher left the City Hall to retire to private life.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

The Board of Works reorganized at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Commissioners Stainsby, Joralemon, Van Duyn, Bailey and Burkhardt being present.

ALDERMEN IN A DEADLOCK.

REPUBLICANS IN THE PATERSON COUNCIL FINALLY WIN.

MAYOR BRAUN IN HIS ANNUAL MESSAGE TOUCHES ON THE RECENT OUTBREAK OF CRIME AND MAKES RECOMMENDATIONS.

Paterson, May 4 (Special).—Politicians of every degree elbowed their way about the City Hall this afternoon, in the meeting of the new Board of Aldermen and the annual election of city officers.

Interest was heightened by a deadlock in the organization, eight Republicans, seven Democrats and a Socialist-Labor representative appearing to answer roll-call.

When Mayor Braun called for nominations for president, Alderman John Boylan, of the Eighth Ward, was named by the Democrats.

The deadlock was broken on the second ballot by the Democrats, who elected John Boylan.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

ALDERMEN IN A DEADLOCK.

REPUBLICANS IN THE PATERSON COUNCIL FINALLY WIN.

MAYOR BRAUN IN HIS ANNUAL MESSAGE TOUCHES ON THE RECENT OUTBREAK OF CRIME AND MAKES RECOMMENDATIONS.

Paterson, May 4 (Special).—Politicians of every degree elbowed their way about the City Hall this afternoon, in the meeting of the new Board of Aldermen and the annual election of city officers.

Interest was heightened by a deadlock in the organization, eight Republicans, seven Democrats and a Socialist-Labor representative appearing to answer roll-call.

When Mayor Braun called for nominations for president, Alderman John Boylan, of the Eighth Ward, was named by the Democrats.

The deadlock was broken on the second ballot by the Democrats, who elected John Boylan.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

The Mayor's message was read by the Mayor-elect, John Boylan, and he made a number of recommendations.

QUERIES FOR FERRY COMPANIES.

BLUE LAWS DID NOT WORK. THOMPSON ACQUITTED OF SWEARING AT A MARSHAL.

FIRST MOVE IN THE FREERHOLDERS' ATTEMPT TO REGULATE TOLLS.

The Hudson County Board of Chosen Freeholders discovered recently that an act was passed in 1873 giving the county body, then called the Board of Supervisors, power to regulate ferry tolls.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

BLUE LAWS DID NOT WORK.

THOMPSON ACQUITTED OF SWEARING AT A MARSHAL.

FIRST MOVE IN THE FREERHOLDERS' ATTEMPT TO REGULATE TOLLS.

The Hudson County Board of Chosen Freeholders discovered recently that an act was passed in 1873 giving the county body, then called the Board of Supervisors, power to regulate ferry tolls.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, after a long session, passed an ordinance fixing ferry rates between Jersey City and New York.

THE BOARD OF WORKS—SUNDAY CLOSING IGNORED IN THE ANNUAL MESSAGE.

THE BOARD OF WORKS—SUNDAY CLOSING IGNORED IN THE ANNUAL MESSAGE.

THE BOARD OF WORKS—SUNDAY CLOSING IGNORED IN THE ANNUAL MESSAGE.

THE BOARD OF WORKS—SUNDAY CLOSING IGNORED IN THE ANNUAL MESSAGE.

THE BOARD OF WORKS—SUNDAY CLOSING IGNORED IN THE ANNUAL MESSAGE.