

NOMINAL FINES FOR ALL.

THE DIGGER'S NEWS SAYS THE REFORMERS WILL BE LIGHTLY PUNISHED.

LITTLE REALLY KNOWN AS TO CEILL RHODES'S TRUE POSITION TOWARD THE COLONIAL OFFICE—KRUEBER SYMPATHIZES WITH MR. CHAMBERLAIN IN HIS DILEMMA.

Chamberlain in his dilemma. Johannesburg, May 6.—The Digger's News says that the sentences imposed upon the members of the Reform Committee will be reduced to nominal fines, that part of the sentence prescribing imprisonment and subsequent banishment being revoked.

London, May 6.—Nothing is known with certainty here as to the relations existing between the Government and Cecil Rhodes and other persons connected with him. There are numerous rumors in circulation, but nearly all of them are conflicting.

The Globe publishes a dispatch denying the statements made by "The Standard" that Cecil Rhodes has telegraphed Mr. Chamberlain, Colonial Secretary, that he places himself in Mr. Chamberlain's hands unreservedly; that Mr. Chamberlain resigns his membership in the Privy Council and to retire from the directorship of the British South Africa Company, and that he is to return to England at once if Mr. Chamberlain advises him to do so.

The facts are, "The Globe" says, that the Board of Directors of the British South Africa Company already hold the resignations of Cecil Rhodes and Alfred Beit, but have not yet decided whether or not they will accept them. The matter is now being considered by the Board.

"The Daily News" to-morrow will also deny the report published in "The Standard." This statement is supported by other assertions to the effect that no communication has passed between the Colonial Secretary and Mr. Rhodes. The latter is now at Gwelo, where he is unlikely to be able to leave until he has been reinforced. None of the rumors current regarding the matter are to be trusted, and the story circulated to the effect that Sir Hercules Robinson, Governor of the Cape Colony, has been recalled by the Government is looked upon as improbable. The authorities ignore all the current rumors.

"The Daily Telegraph" to-morrow will publish a dispatch from Pretoria saying that President Kruger, of the South African Republic, in the course of a private conversation, expressed great gratification for Mr. Chamberlain in his dilemma. President Kruger declared that he was convinced that Mr. Chamberlain was unaware of the intrigues which were being carried on in the Cape Colony, and that he was not to be pitied for the gully persons when he made the speech on the subject at the end of the year.

INDICTED FOR MURDERING THE STONES.

Adrian, Ohio, May 6.—The Grand Jury last night returned three indictments against Romulus Cottell, alias John Smith, for murder in the first degree.

The indictment charge that he murdered Albert Cottell, alias John Smith, on the 24th of April, 1895, at Adrian, Ohio. He will be arraigned Thursday morning. He will plead not guilty.

A RUMOR OF WAR ON THE RUBBER TRUST.

ROBERT BANIGAN ITS ALLEGED RIVAL—THE REPORT GENERALLY DISCREDITED.

The report was revived yesterday that Joseph Banigan, until lately the president of the United States Rubber Company, would establish mills at Freetown, Sierra Leone, and enter into a keen competition with the United States Rubber Company. The report is generally discredited, however, by the trust or any of Mr. Banigan's friends. Mr. Banigan is in this city, staying at the Plaza Hotel. He could not be seen last night, but it is intended to begin a war against the rubber trust his determination must be of record. A few weeks ago, when Mr. Banigan retired from the presidency of the trust, the report that he was in a war with the trust, that he had been president of the trust, that he had been president of the trust, that he had been president of the trust.

DIED FROM AN ASSAULT, IT IS SAID.

John R. Armbruster, of No. 42 Sixth-ave., died in a hospital yesterday from injuries alleged to have been inflicted by several men with whom he was fighting at Sixth-ave. and Avenue B on Saturday night. He was found bleeding and unconscious by Jacob Fry, of No. 135 Sixth-ave., who took him to his home. On Sunday he was taken to the hospital by Jacob Fry and Jacob Fry.

SHE WILL NOT TURN BACK.

MISS BARTON HAS NO THOUGHT OF ABANDONING HER WORK.

SHE WRITES TO RED CROSS OFFICIALS EXPRESSING HER DETERMINATION TO CONTINUE HER NOBLE MISSION IN ARMENIA—AID RECEIVED FROM THE TURKS.

Washington, May 6.—Miss Clara Barton in a letter to Red Cross officials, received here to-day, and dated Constantinople, April 18, disposes of the fears expressed some time ago that her mission would fall on account of the opposition of Turkish authorities, and shows that she has no idea of abandoning the work now so successfully begun. Friends, misled by reports of the difficulties she was encountering, had urged her return, and in reply she writes:

I have a body of relief on these fields, hundreds of miles away in the mountains, a thousand miles from me, that I could not draw off in six weeks. The work is not a hand raised, save the hand of the poor, sick, suffering wretches to a fate that ought to shock the entire world. Dying, sick, and maimed, and falling to the fields of labor, among them; whole cities scourged and left to their fate, to die without a hand raised, save the hand of the poor, sick, suffering wretches to a fate that ought to shock the entire world.

And we must not fail to sustain them. Was this the aim of the Red Cross? No, it was to save the lives of the poor, sick, suffering wretches to a fate that ought to shock the entire world. Dying, sick, and maimed, and falling to the fields of labor, among them; whole cities scourged and left to their fate, to die without a hand raised, save the hand of the poor, sick, suffering wretches to a fate that ought to shock the entire world.

Miss Barton reports Dr. Hubbell's party at Marash and Mr. Wister's at Orfa. She says it is impossible to describe the joy of the desolate people in welcoming the relief parties.

MR. KNAPP IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

Constantinople, May 6.—The Rev. George P. Knapp, one of the American missionaries stationed at Hittis, who was expelled from that place and ordered to depart from Iskanderiah, has arrived here.

THE SULTAN DECORATES M. CAMBON.

Constantinople, May 6.—M. Cambon, French Ambassador to Turkey, has been decorated by the Sultan with the insignia of the Imperial Order of Medjidieh.

HAS ADIGRAT BEEN ABANDONED?

ADVICES FROM GENERAL BALDISERA ARE THAT STRONG FORCES OF ITALIANS ARE STILL AROUND THE PLACE.

Rome, May 6.—The Government has received advices that the Italian forces have withdrawn from Adigrat.

Advices received from General Baldisera, commanding the Italian forces in Africa, say that the Italians in strong force are now occupying all the positions around Adigrat, from which place the Abyssinians were driven. The news has caused great rejoicing in Rome. The advices also say that the Abyssinians have been driven from Adigrat, and that the Italian forces are now occupying all the positions around Adigrat, from which place the Abyssinians were driven.

AUBREY BARTLEY MAY BE DYING.

THE ENGLISH ARTIST IS IN BRUSSELS, SUFFERING FROM A LUNG COMPLAINT.

Brussels, May 6.—Aubrey Bartley, the English artist, who is in this city, is suffering from a lung complaint, and his physicians fear may terminate fatally. Friends are constantly watching at his bedside.

COLONEL NORTH'S DEATH.

THE INQUEST SHOWS THAT THE "NITRATE KING" DIED DURING A PERIOD OF SYNCOPE.

London, May 6.—The inquest held over the body of Colonel North, the "Nitrate King," who died suddenly in the office of the Guano Syndicate yesterday, has shown that his death was caused by syncope.

HE FILLS DR. LUEGER'S PLACE.

HERR STROHBACH ELECTED BURGOMASTER OF VIENNA BY THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

Vienna, May 6.—The municipal crisis, which has been prolonged by the repeated election of Dr. Lueger, the anti-Semite leader, to the office of Burgomaster of Vienna, has been ended by the election of Herr Strohbach, a prominent Vienna merchant, to the office of Burgomaster of Vienna, which was held by Dr. Lueger.

Almost in the same words as those of the above dispatch, the ending of the long struggle between the Vienna municipal council and the Imperial Government of Austria had been predicted in The Tribune on April 19.

The municipal electors may choose for their Burgomaster, instead of their former favorite, "Handsome" Dr. Lueger, another doctor, who will be the straw man of Dr. Lueger, who might then be chosen for the office, but the municipal council has decided to elect Herr Strohbach.

So it has happened, and the municipal crisis has been ended, after more than a year's duration. The conflict may be renewed at any time, but Dr. Lueger has had out of his hands an embarrassing question at a time when he has already sufficient work in connection with the two divisions of the Hapsburg Empire, Austria proper, Cisleithania and the Transylvanian Kingdom, which will help also the conclusion of the renewal of the Austro-Hungarian empire, since the demagogues were constantly attacking the Magistrate who accused the Austrian Government of not suppressing those attacks or punishing the politician who preferred to remain silent.

THE CZAR AND THE NEW SHAH.

NO DOUBT OF AN ENTENTE CORDIALE BETWEEN THE TWO GOVERNMENTS.

St. Petersburg, May 6.—The most cordial communications have been exchanged between the Czar and Muzaffer ed-Dine, the recently proclaimed Shah of Persia. These communications are looked upon as auguring well for the future relations between the Government of the two countries.

CARDINAL BIANCHI STRICKEN.

London, May 6.—"The Daily Chronicle" to-morrow will publish a dispatch from Rome saying that Cardinal Angelo Bianchi, Bishop of Palestrina, Primate of the Holy See, is suffering from an attack of apoplexy, and that his condition is serious.

GEN. HARRISON WILL SPEAK.

HE ACCEPTS AN INVITATION TO ATTEND THE INDIANA CONVENTION.

MCKINLEY INSTRUCTIONS LIKELY TO BE VOTED—THE PLATFORM WILL DECLARE FLATLY AGAINST FREE SILVER—A BIG MASS-MEETING.

Indianapolis, May 6.—Ex-President Harrison was to-night invited by the Committee on Rules to attend the Republican State Convention, and has accepted. He will probably speak early to-morrow morning. At the district meetings to-night eight of the thirteen districts instructed their members of the Resolution Committee to see that instructions were inserted in the platform.

The resolution instructing for McKinley was therefore put in the platform and will doubtless go through the convention. If the delegates were left to themselves there would be no doubt of it, but a good many of the leading politicians are warmly opposing them. They put forth the argument that McKinley is safe, anyhow, and that to force through instructions would accomplish nothing for him, while it would stir up a good deal of bad feeling in the party throughout the State. They admit that the sentiment of the State is overwhelmingly for McKinley and declare that the Indiana delegation will vote for him as a unit, but plead that the delegation ought to be left to do this upon the honor of its members of their own accord.

The leaders of the movement for instructions, on the other hand, point out the fact that Indiana has almost invariably instructed the delegation to National conventions, and at the last fact that the people of the State, or at least 50 per cent of them, will be sorely disappointed if the convention does not instruct.

The cause for instruction received a big boost this evening, when an anonymous McKinley mass-meeting was held in the convention hall, which was crowded. Speeches were made by ex-Congressman Mason, of Chicago; General Law Wallace, of Indiana; Congressman Watson, of Indiana, and H. B. Landis. The enthusiasm was great, and the sentiment for instructions was all one way.

The platform for the convention was agreed upon to-night. Only two planks deal with National issues. One of these declares for protection and reciprocity; the other is a straight, solid-money plank, more emphatic than that adopted in Illinois. It declares for sound money without any talk of bimetalism or international agreement, and pronounces flatly against the free coinage of silver.

Sentiment has crystallized to such an extent that it is practically certain that R. W. Thompson, General Law Wallace, C. C. Fairbank, and Hiram Brown, will be the delegates-at-large. Harrison by Chairman Gowdy ten days ago, asking the delegates to-day that the invitation sent to him to attend and address the State Convention, was pursuant to a resolution adopted by the State Convention at its meeting in this city on April 21. The resolution was offered in the State Convention by J. M. Caskey, member from the 14th District, and was seconded by Mr. Holman, of the 13th, and passed unanimously.

TWO NOBLE MONUMENTS.

INCIDENTS OF THE LAST DAY OF NEW-LONDON'S CELEBRATION.

New-London, Conn., May 6.—This city has had a fine day of observing its 25th anniversary. It has received the handsomest soldiers and sailors' monument, a granite shaft fifty feet high, to be found in New-England. New-London to-day also honored the memory of Connecticut's first Governor, John Winthrop, who came here from Groton, England, with a little band of Puritans and founded the town. The Winthrop monument is near the spot where Winthrop lived and where, with the first settlers, he worshipped in the little meeting-house.

Nearly 40 schoolboys, drilled for the occasion, under the lead of Charles Bennings, formed in Hempstead-st. The introduction was by President Chappell, of the Board of Trade. The Rev. Dr. S. Leroy Blake, of the First Church, delivered the address of the occasion, which gave in detail the biography and history of John Winthrop. Dr. Blake concluded the address with the words: "Our Flag is the flag of our fathers. The flag of our fathers is the flag of our country. The flag of our country is the flag of our God. The flag of our God is the flag of our hope. The flag of our hope is the flag of our life. The flag of our life is the flag of our death. The flag of our death is the flag of our resurrection.
