

READY FOR THE BATTLE.

N. J. J. REPUBLICANS NEVER BEFORE SO WELL ORGANIZED.

HOW THE SYSTEM WORKS IN ESSEX COUNTY—REPRESENTATIVE MEN FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS—THE SOUND-MONEY CAMPAIGN TO BE CARRIED INTO THE FACTORIES AND HOMES OF THE LABORING CLASSES.

In all previous Presidential campaigns in New-Jersey there was complaint of the lack of thoroughness and system of the work of the Republican State Committee, as also of the fact that the State Committee and the county committees did not co-operate as they should. There was much friction when the State and county committees happened to meet, and the campaigns were generally run on the "go as you please" plan.

This lack of system and co-operation was generally to the disadvantage of the Republican candidates. Such was the case as late as 1892, when John Keane ran for Governor against George T. Werts. It is believed that if the State Committee that year had been in the working condition it is to-day, and in harmonious collaboration with the local committee, John Keane would have been elected Governor.

In Essex County the party system is in perfect working order, and the utmost harmony exists not only in the committee, but in its relations with the State Committee and the minor committees. County Chairman Lentz is in constant communication with State Chairman Murphy at the headquarters in Newark, and the consultations are productive of excellent results. The effect of this organization is plainly perceptible in the county already. The primaries for the State convention will be held on August 24. Necessarily, there is no excitement over them, as the delegates to be chosen are only to select Presidential electors. The men spoken of in Essex are Robert Ballantine, for elector-at-large, and either John F. Dryden or Campbell Clark for district elector. The purpose is to place on the electoral ticket only men of the highest character. Robert Ballantine is the head of the great brewery firm of Peter Ballantine, Sons, and Ballantine & Co., Jersey City. He is president of the Prudential Insurance Company of America, and Campbell Clark is manager of the Clark Thread Works Company, of Newark and Kearny.

Father McNulty is attached to the selection of speakers in this campaign, and a committee of the County Committee is at work making up a list. The ordinary splash campaign talker will be in the campaign. It is understood that the free-silver men are to send men to Republican meetings to interrogate speakers, and try to confuse them with "fake" statistics. The campaign is also to carry the campaign into neighborhoods. They will hire trucks to be driven from point to point, from which the speakers will address the crowds. All the Democratic strongholds in Essex County are being visited, wherever there is a dozen men can be found together. Attention will be given also to the factories, and there will be missionaryaries of sound money at all the principal factory gates when the operatives quit work.

The Essex County Republican Committee is composed mostly of young men, and they are introducing vigorous methods in this campaign. They are first regarding the quality of the local speakers, and next planning a searching campaign that will reach all classes, and be addressed to every understanding. There never before was so much real zeal in the County Committee as there is this year.

DEMOCRATIC REVOLT IN RUTHERFORD. LEADING MEN REFUSE TO SUPPORT THE CHICAGO CANDIDATES AND PLATFORM.

Rutherford, Aug. 9 (Special).—The revolt of the known Democrats who refuse to adhere to the Populist candidates and platform named at Chicago has had its effect in the campaign. It is understood that the party men who feel that Bryan and Sewall should be voted for as the "regular Democratic" nominees are at their wits' end for some means of stopping the rapidly growing defection.

The meeting of the Democratic Society last night, although not largely attended, was interesting. President William H. Smith, who is in increasing unpopularity, was the only speaker. He is understood to be a member of the National bank and president of a club which has endorsed a platform opposing National banks, was not present, but other prominent members, including some of the single-tax men who are running the club, were. Rudolph Dammheim resigned from the society at a previous meeting, and last night the resignation of his brother, Carl Dammheim, a member of the insurance man, Carl Dammheim, and Anderson Price, a former president of the club, were received and accepted. The prominence of Mr. Price, the fact that he had been his party's candidate for Mayor, Freeholder and Assemblyman, and the insistence with which he had stated that he found "himself compelled to support the only opposition to anarchy and Populism, which is at present in the State," were the only points of interest in the meeting. It is understood that he suggested that charges be made against him and that he be expelled, but the suggestion was not adopted. There was some vigorous talk about "noisy" by Captain Addison Ely and ex-Assessor Charles Fisher, a Democrat and a member of the National bank, who is also a member of the society, did not wait to send in his resignation. On Friday night he was elected a member of the Lincoln League, the local Populist organization, and will do all he can for the cause of sound money.

The growing list of Democrats who are to support the Chicago ticket includes Congressman Joseph N. Milnehan, the only Democratic member of the Borough Council, Edward J. Luce, of the law firm of Luce, Luce & Co., and George H. Hartz, president of the Union Club and former president of the Democratic Society, the Rev. George H. Hartz, president of the Church of Our Father, George Lancon, Andrew H. Brinkerhoff, cashier of the People's Bank, New-York, Joseph P. Cooper, of the lumber firm of J. P. Cooper & Co., and William W. Sturm, who headed the Democratic ticket for Mayor last year. Mr. Smith is unique among the directors of the Rutherford branch in being the only adviser of the Chicago ticket and platform.

Preparations for a big enrollment of all friends of sound money are being made for the place at Lincoln Hall, Depot Square, next Saturday night. A handsome American flag, with the names of McKinley and Hobart upon it, will be shown in connection with this part of the campaign stands upon the issues of the campaign. It is also to be shown in a similar flag in Park-ave., at the other end of the borough. A headquarters for the distribution of campaign literature throughout the county has been established at Hackensack.

LABOR MEN WANT HONEST MONEY. ONLY THREE LEADERS OF TRADE ORGANIZATIONS FAVOR FREE SILVER.

Trenton, Aug. 9 (Special).—The statement has been made by the advocates that the labor organizations of this city, particularly the potters, looked with favor upon Bryan and free silver. The few Democratic politicians who have determined to support the Populist Chicago platform and candidates have, in their effort to substantiate their contention, succeeded in forcing the passage of resolutions by certain labor organizations endorsing Bryan and Sewall. If such a sentiment did exist among the laboring men there is little evidence of it to be found now.

A call at the headquarters of the various labor unions proves that the workmen are overwhelmingly for McKinley and Hobart. At the home of the Pottery National Union of America, at Clinton and Second-aves., Thomas B. Dennis, vice-president of the union, was found. In reply to a question, he said that not only would he vote for McKinley and Hobart, but he believed that nearly every potter in Trenton was in favor of McKinley, because he represented protection. He thought that before long the National Union and other pottery clubs throughout the country would take official action in that direction by resolution.

The Throwers and Handlers' Association has its headquarters in the same building as the National Union, but none of the officers were present when The Tribune correspondent called. Some members of other clubs who were in the room said that the throwers and handlers were all supporters of McKinley and Hobart. This was said to be true also of the Jiggermen's Association, which meets in the same hall.

Joseph Clark, secretary of the Kilmen, Dippers and Siggermen's Union No. 6,528, said that he and his union favored McKinley and Hobart, pro and sound money, and a resolution favoring Teller's 16 to 1 plan had been engineered through some days ago.

Harry W. secretary of Trenton Lodge No. 33, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, is a Democrat, and said that he would vote for Bryan and Sewall, but he thought most of the sixty-five members of his brotherhood were out for McKinley and Hobart.

Maurice Hogan, of Washington A. Roebing Lodge No. 33, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is a Democrat, and voted for Grover Cleveland four years ago, but he cannot stand the silver plank in his Democracy. He was sorry, but as a Democrat, and voted for McKinley, and McKinley and Hobart. He was sure a majority of his association would do likewise. Benjamin Holland, secretary of the Trenton Co-operative Society, said that the members were out and out for the Republican ticket to a man.

John Warren, secretary of the Bricklayers and Plasterers' Association, is a Republican, and will vote for McKinley. On the twenty-seventh members present at the last meeting of his association, twenty-three were for the gold standard, and McKinley and Hobart. Only three men out of all the labor leaders spoken to declared for Bryan and silver.

DEAN McNULTY'S RAID.

HE STOPS A POKER GAME AND CAUSES CONSIDERABLE EXCITEMENT. PATerson, Aug. 9 (Special).—Dean McNulty made a raid on saloon patrons in the "Dublin" district last night. About 11 o'clock he entered a saloon in Slater-st. Several young men were playing cards in the summer garden and each had a stack of blue and red chips. The players were a young lawyer, a mill superintendent, an officer of a church society and three others who are members of the same society. One of the players looked around, and seeing the tall figure in black standing with a cane in his hand, he exclaimed: "Father Mac!"

"Take the money!" shouted some one, as all the players rushed to the door except the mill superintendent, who made for the rear fence. His barber attachment tore his crash trousers, and as he fell in the next yard several frightened women yelled, "Police!" He ran down the alley, made the street, and by carelessly pursuing his way reached home in safety.

Father McNulty had meanwhile turned into Grand-st. He was about to enter the saloon of Peter McCabe, when the swinging door struck him on the nose. He was hurrying to the door, but he had attempted to throw a man out. The man struck against the screen door just as the clergyman was entering.

Several women saw the priest wiping the blood from his face and naturally thought that he had been hurt. He was hurrying to the door, but he had attempted to throw a man out. The man struck against the screen door just as the clergyman was entering.

Boyd, of New-York, occupied the chair at the business session, which included reading the reports of Chief Secretary Jesse Shallercos, of Pennsylvania, and of Chief Treasurer Jacob D. Brovsky, of New-York.

ITS HUNDRETH BIRTHDAY. CELEBRATION OF A CHURCH FOUNDED BY BISHOP ASBURY IN 1796.

Washington, Aug. 9 (Special).—The Methodist Episcopal Church, in Asbury, this county, celebrated its 100th anniversary to-day. It was just 100 years ago that Bishop Francis Asbury laid the corner-stone. The village was then known as Hall's Mills, but the name was changed in 1796 to Asbury in honor of the venerable bishop.

NEWARK. The heat drove thousands of people out of Newark yesterday. All the neighboring resorts were crowded with men, women and children, and the beer gardens in the outlying woods did a rushing business. The city saloons did business yesterday without any attempt at concealment.

He recently came from Germany. John Harrison, a laborer, employed in Hauck's brewery, in Harrison, was overcome while at work on Saturday, and died Saturday night.

A number of the large factories closed on Saturday morning in consequence of the heat, and the city authorities have adopted precautions for the protection of their employees. ELIZABETH. To-day William Wilkinson, a horseman, threw up his hands and fell from his horse, and was taken to his home. Prayers were offered at all the churches to-night for rain and cooler weather.

A SITE FOR NEWARK'S NEW LIBRARY.

The question of locating the proposed Newark public library building is under consideration by the library trustees. The proposal has been made to utilize for the purpose a small acre of land originally a part of Military Park, but separated from it when Trinity Episcopal Church was built upon the northern part of the park. The tract was cut through to Broad-st., between the church and the park, and is now the site of the library site.

Objection is made that the site is too small for future uses, and admits of no enlargement except in the air. The consent of the National Park, which is the legal custodian of the park, is also necessary, and it is by no means certain that it can be obtained.

HE SELECTS A CEMETERY PLOT BEFORE THE MAN FOR WHOSE BURIAL HE ENTERED EVERLASTING LIFE.

WHILE ON HIS WAY TO DRAG A CREEK HE SEES THE MAN FOR WHOSE BURIAL HE ENTERED EVERLASTING LIFE.

Trenton, Aug. 9 (Special).—Jonathan D. Camp, an employe of the Home Rubber Company, who was believed to have been drowned in Crosswick's Creek, is alive, and little the worse for a most remarkable experience. A coffin had been ordered for him, and a cemetery lot had been reserved for his body on Friday afternoon.

Camp, Nicholas Stults and Oliver Hutchinson, three employes of the Home Rubber Company, went to the creek to enjoy an outing in the woods. A swim was proposed, and before many moments Camp was missing. His companions searched for him in the creek and on the bank, but without success. At last they came home with the report that Camp had been drowned. His clothing had been found on the bank of the creek. Stults and Hutchinson informed the police and Princeton Ave. Mrs. Mary A. Miller, of No. 807 Princeton-ave., with whom Camp has boarded for many years, was also told.

The missing man's friends made preparations for the recovery of the body. Coroner Bower, after selecting a cemetery plot, obtained a coffin, grapping irons and a conveyance, and started for Crosswick's Creek. It was not until nearly dark that the body of the missing man was found. The coroner was surprised at finding Camp there. Camp said he had been swimming, and had crawled to the bank, where he had become insensible. It was not until nearly dark that the body of the missing man was found. The coroner was surprised at finding Camp there. Camp said he had been swimming, and had crawled to the bank, where he had become insensible.

At daylight he came to Trenton, and was taken to the City Hospital. The coroner returned the coffin and the grapping irons, and cancelled the order for the cemetery plot. FUNERAL OF A FIRE VICTIM. OTHER MEN HURT IN THURSDAY'S FIRE IN TRENTON ARE RECOVERING.

THE SANITARY CORPS. NEARLY 3,000 PEOPLE LISTEN TO APPEALS FOR THE SANITARY CORPS. ASbury Park, Aug. 9 (Special).—The National service in the beach auditorium this afternoon was held in the interest of the Cuban Army Sanitary Corps. From the large flagpole outside the auditorium the flags of Cuba Libre and the United States were flying. There were about 2,000 present. Dr. George P. Wilbur, of Asbury Park, presided.

The first speaker was Señor F. G. Plerera, of New-York, chairman of the Press Committee of the Cuban delegation, who said that Spain had violated every contract made with Cuba in the last seven years. He said that Spain had violated every contract made with Cuba in the last seven years. He said that Spain had violated every contract made with Cuba in the last seven years.

THE LOSER GOES TO THE SEASHORE. HACKENSACK, AUG. 9.—Emil Schabert and John Guthrie, both leather carriers, are both expert bicyclists, and for some time there has been a rivalry between them. The two of them are the fastest rider. They decided the question by having a race for Hackensack. A small purse was put up for the winner. Guthrie went the distance in a little over four hours. On the return trip from Bayonne Point he met his competitor two miles from the shore. Guthrie did not slacken his pace, however. Schabert on reaching Bergen Point telephoned to his home, and was told that his wife and child would not return until late as he was going to the seashore.

JENKINS'S REMARKABLE DOG. From The New-Orleans Times-Democrat. "Yes," said Jenkins, "my dog Rover was an unusual specimen of his kind. He was not only a dog, but a reasoning power, of a human and at times excelled in sagacity which to say the least, was remarkable. He was a dog of a different breed, and I raised him from a pup, and he hardly ever left my side. He seemed to realize what was passing in my mind, and he would tell me of it. He was a dog of a different breed, and I raised him from a pup, and he hardly ever left my side.

THE PASSING OF AN OLD LONDON CLUB. From The Saturday Review. Another old landmark is about to disappear. Hoodie is one of the historical clubs of London, and is one of the oldest and most distinguished fox-hunting clubs. More than half a century ago Hoodie was founded by a man named Hoodie.

UNIVERSITY HOODS. From Woman. With so many colors and shades of color to choose from, one would imagine it to be quite with the hoodies, and it is not only of amber, but of the various universities to select hues that are academical hoods that would, at least, be distinguishable from one another. Such, however, is not always the case, and it becomes no easy matter to tell a man's university and degree by the hood he wears.

THE HOUSE BURNED TO DEATH. A TOWN HORSE BY THOMAS DAILY, AT BERGENLEAVE AND LIBERTY-ST., UNION HILL, WAS DESTROYED BY FIRE YESTERDAY AND TWO HORSES WERE BURIED.

A NEW TROLLEY LINE IN OPERATION.

THREE GUNS, WHEEL RECAPTURED.

Chester sold the wheel for $10. To-day Mr. Davidson regained possession of the bicycle, but Chester is still missing.

SHIP'S OFFICERS WERE VIGILANT. AN UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO SEND PAUPERS AND LUNATICS TO ITALY ON THE STEAMSHIP WERRA. Acting Chief of Police Hayes of Hoboken told an interesting story yesterday concerning the manner in which two unsuccessful attempts were made to ship paupers and lunatics to Genoa in the steamship Werra, which sailed on Saturday morning.

On Friday afternoon, according to Captain Hayes, a transfer was made, owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was driven up to the Bremen Line pier and two Italians, Francesco De Vitte and Leone Strabio, alighted. De Vitte was a cripple and unable to take care of himself. While Strabio was apparently strong and healthy, both men had strange notions for their passage on the Werra, but Dr. Paul Oertel, the ship's surgeon, refused to allow De Vitte to go on board, owing to his physical condition.

Strabio was questioned by the ship's officers and Acting Chief of Police Hayes. He said that De Vitte came from Ravenna, Ohio, where he had been a charge upon the county for two years. Strabio told the Ravenna authorities that he had been a charge upon the county for two years. Strabio told the Ravenna authorities that he had been a charge upon the county for two years.

A coach containing four women, two lunatics and two nurses, was driven to the Werra, just before the ship's departure. The woman whose case seemed to be the more hopeless managed to get on board in the crowd. She was taken to the hospital, where she was treated. The ship's doctor refused to take Philadelphia. De Vitte and Strabio were taken to the office of the North German Lloyd Steamship Company, in Bowling Green, New-York, where the amount paid for their tickets was refunded. Policeman Louis Wierke, of Hoboken, then escorted the men to the Pennsylvania Railroad station and explained the situation. The men were shipped to Ohio on Friday evening.

THE HOUSE FOR COURTING.

A LOVER USES A CLUB TO EMPHASIZE HIS KNOWLEDGE OF ETIQUETTE. Port Lee, Aug. 9 (Special).—Anthony Beyer, resident of William Street, of Englewood, insisted so strenuously on his alleged knowledge of all the rules of etiquette that Miss Beyer did not object. Mr. Beyer appeared before Justice of the Peace Tracey with his head bound up, and charged Martin with inflicting the injury. He asserted that Martin had called upon Miss Beyer, and that the old folk had returned, leaving the two in possession of the parlor. When the family arose in the morning Martin was still there, and showed no signs of regret. He was taken to the hospital, where he was treated.

ORANGES NEW ELECTRIC STATION.

THE COST OF THE STRUCTURE WILL BE ABOUT $100,000. Orange, Aug. 9 (Special).—Ground was broken last week for the new electric light station at the People's Light and Power Company, which has just secured the street-lighting contract for the city of Orange. The new station will be built on the lot recently purchased by the company in Lakeside-ave. The material used will be finished brick, and the structure will be fireproof throughout, one story in height, with a concrete floor and a metal roof. The main floor will be divided into several sections.

The station will be in three sections—the largest one being for the boilers and trestle. This coal trestle will run in from the tracks of the Watchung Railroad on a rising grade, so that it will be fifteen feet above the floor. Beneath it will be bins with iron bottoms for coal, and beneath these there will be a series of narrow gauge tracks, on which will run small cars to convey the coal to the boilers. There will be four boilers of 90-horse-power each, although only two will be set at present. These are to be of the "Climax" type, non-explosive and with return flue and water tube, and will carry 120 pounds of steam. There will be two 80-horse-power Corliss compound condensing engines, driving line shafts. On these the generators will be belted. The generators will be of three types. One will be for the arc lamp work, developing a current of 5,000 volts and ten amperes. The other two will be for the incandescent work, at low voltage, transformed at the consumption points to each of the lights. The third type will be for the power motors, which will be of a variety of sizes. The cost of these kinds, the number being dependent on the growth of the business. The plant will be ready for operation in the middle of November, and will cost about $100,000.

WILL NOT PAY UNDER PRESSURE.

AN ATTEMPT TO COLLECT SUBSCRIPTIONS TO AN ENTERPRISE WOMBLES TRENTON MERCHANTS. Trenton, Aug. 9 (Special).—About two years ago the Board of Trade of Trenton decided to raise $50,000 by public subscription and build a big shirt factory for V. Henry Rouse and Co. The people promptly subscribed, according to the amount set forth in their names in five equal payments. The big factory has been built and 140 of the 80 women and girls are at work, but there is a deficit of some $10,000.

HIS INJURIES PROVE FATAL. New-Brunswick, Aug. 9 (Special).—William Donnelly, thirty-two years old, of Easton-ave., this city, died last night from injuries received near Elizabeth. The ceremony was quickly performed. The bride gave her name as Miss Ella Mulligan, twenty-seven years old, of No. 25 Congress-st., New-Haven, Conn., and the groom's name as John J. Gregory, of No. 117 West Twenty-fourth-st., New-York.

SUNDAY BALL PLAYING STOPPED.

The order issued by Chief of Police Murphy of Jersey City prohibiting Sunday ball playing at Clinton and Liberty-sts. was obeyed yesterday. Trouble was expected, but none occurred. Three policemen were on the grounds and warned several players that they would be arrested if they started to play. The boys seemed disappointed, but created no disorder.
