A WOMAN INVENTOR. FANNY GROTHAN MAKES A DEVICE TO DETACH RINAWAY HORSES FROM THE VEHICLE.

On Saturday, March 6, during an intermission of Messrs. Fassig & Co.'s trotting sale at Madison Square Garden, a second exhibition of a device which instantly detaches fractions of runaway horses from a carriage was given, and all the practicality of the same was thoroughly demonstrated.

The device was a simple one, and consisted of a small metal rod which was attached to the harness of the horse, and to the carriage. In case of an emergency, the rod could be turned, and the horse would be detached from the carriage.

THE DELANCEY-ST. TEA. TWO HUNDRED SOCIETY WOMEN CLIMB TO THE TOP FLOOR OF NO. 26.

GOSSIP OVER THE TEACUPS—WILLING WORKERS AND GENEROUS POCKETBOOKS—CHEERFUL MR. REYNOLDS AND HIS CHARITY WORK.

'Smells good, doesn't it?' said a small boy standing in the doorway of No. 26 Delancey-st., yesterday afternoon, and wistfully wrinkling his nose as he gazed after some ladies who were passing up the stairs to the regions whence those heavenly odors were wafted down.

The ladies who were passing up the stairs to the regions whence those heavenly odors were wafted down were the members of the Delancey-st. Tea Society, who were gathered for their regular meeting.
