

VIADUCTS IN THE BRONX.

IMPORTANT PUBLIC WORKS RAPIDLY NEARING COMPLETION. IMMENSE GAINS IN CONVENIENCE TO PEOPLE OF THE DISTRICT-OPENING UP NEW PARTS OF THE CITY.

Within the last few months there has been unusual activity in the Borough of the Bronx in the matter of building viaducts, especially over the tracks of the New-York and Harlem and other roads. It is hardly necessary to say how important public works of this description are to the growth of this section of the city, and to the comfort of its inhabitants.

VIADUCTS NEARLY COMPLETED. An official of the Department of the Borough of the Bronx furnished to a Tribune reporter yesterday the particulars of the viaducts now nearing completion, and those on which it is hoped work will be begun within a few weeks.

William J. Holland, of No. 245 West Houston-st., pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Newburger in the Court of General Sessions of breaking into the house of Josephine Beal, at No. 54 Macdougall-st., and stealing $50 worth of wearing apparel. He was sentenced to three months in the penitentiary.

AN ARTIST'S ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE. MARRIED A SERVANT AND WAS DISHERITED—THEN FOUGHT IN VAIN AGAINST ILL-LUCK.

John Charles Collins, an artist, sixty-three years old, tried to kill himself by taking poison in the morning at No. 172 Riverside-st. yesterday. The house is a five-story tenement building. Collins and his wife lived on the top floor. When Mrs. Collins returned home from her work on Friday evening she found her husband unconscious. She had not enough money to pay for a doctor, and not knowing what was the matter with her husband, tried to restore him to consciousness herself.

JEWELRY IN A HALLBOY'S COAT. THE LAMBS, WHO EMPLOYED HIM, DO NOT CLAIM IT, AND THE POLICE WANT AN OWNER FOR IT.

Charles Sapro, twenty-three years old, a hall-boy employed by the Lambs, at No. 75 West Thirty-fifth-st., was arraigned in the West Side Police Court yesterday, charged with the larceny of a diamond pin, valued at $50, the property of T. G. Clark, a guest of the club. Sapro was suspected when the pin was missed and detectives watched him. They searched his room at his lodgings, but found nothing of value. In the cellar, however, they found his coat, in which he had hidden the pin.
