

Industrial and manufacturing interests are going in at a rapid rate in every quarter of the United Kingdom. If they pass without observation here and do not excite indiscriminate raving and partisan declamation against trusts and monopolies, it is not because they differ in any essential respect from analogous industrial consolidations in America.

POPULAR OBSERVATIONS.

ROUGH RIDERS APPOINTED.

GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT'S MEN GETTING SOME OF THE PLUMS. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Governor Roosevelt is not "getting left."

THE PASSING THROUG.

John W. Bookwalter is in the city, having just returned from a visit to his home in Springfield, Ohio. When seen yesterday at the Holland House, Mr. Bookwalter, PROSPEROUS said that he was forcibly impressed with the improvement in Ohio generally and Clark County particularly since he was last there.

TOO MANY STUDIES FOR COLLEGE.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS IN ENGLISH AND THEIR RELATION TO OTHER SUBJECTS.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I read your editorial in The Sunday Tribune on "English for College Entrance" with much interest, and wish the writer thereof would continue his investigations into college examinations.
