AN ORDERLY GREAT BRAVERY. WASHINGTON, AUG. 8.—Major George F. Shields, surgeon of the Third Brigade at Manila, has made report to Surgeon General Sternberg, under date of June 1, of his duties during April and May. In it he especially commends Private Paul Gompertz, of the hospital corps, who was killed in action April 25, Major Shields writes:

"On April 25, during the advance at the River Bagbag, my orderly, Private Paul Gompertz, was fatally wounded while on duty. He was a remarkably brave and gallant soldier, completely severing the carotid artery and jugular vein on both sides. I beg here to call the attention of the Surgeon General to the services of this man. He was constantly with me from February 5 until the day of his death, and during that time he performed his duty so bravely, so faithfully and so unflinchingly for an instance of his bravery, but I cannot do justice to his services in a few lines. He was a man of unusual merit."
