

APPEAL FOR PARNELL FUND ENTHUSIASM AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC MEETING.

ADDRESS BY LORD MAYOR TALLON AND MR. REDMOND ELICIT A GENEROUS RESPONSE TO SAVE THE STATESMAN'S HOME-CHEERS FOR OOM PAUL.

The movement for a monument to Charles Stewart Parnell, in which the Lord Mayor of Dublin and John E. Redmond, M. P., have come from Ireland to interest Americans, received great impetus last night at a meeting which filled the Academy of Music.

The Lord Mayor and Mr. Redmond were escorted from their headquarters, in the Hoffman House, to the Academy at 8 o'clock by the New-York Committee and by the officers of the 1st and 2d regiments of Irish Volunteers.

On the right of the stage was a life size portrait of Parnell in oil. The Lord Mayor wore his official decorations. His great gold chain was conspicuous.

It is fitting that the heroes of all races should have their names and the spirit of their works perpetuated, so that wherever there is left a spark of the spirit it should be kindled and kept burning.

The audience received the names of the visitors by standing up and cheering for some moments. As the cheering began to subside a man mounted his seat and in stentorian tones called: "Hurrah for Oom Paul!"

The chairman then introduced Judge James A. O'Gorman. Judge O'Gorman said in part: As a member of the committee that invited our distinguished guests to visit this country I am proud to give expression to our profound appreciation.

I heartily thank the chairman for the cordial welcome he has extended to me as the unnamed "elect" who have received the spirit of the Irish people.

As the chairman of the committee that invited our distinguished guests to visit this country I am proud to give expression to our profound appreciation.

He was the friend of liberty and humanity in every clime and every land. He succeeded even in abolishing flogging in the English army.

OF humanity, the champion of human liberty. Though death cut short his career before he was through, he had earned a place side by side with Washington.

Mr. Redmond then spoke of the plans of the Dublin Monument Committee. He said that the committee in Ireland was composed of every section of the National party.

The home of Parnell, at Avondale, is about to be sold, he said. He said that the committee in Ireland was composed of every section of the National party.

Secretary Wauchope Lynn followed Mr. Redmond with the reading of dispatches and letters. While this was going on and during Mr. Redmond's speech the ushers had been circulating envelopes through the audience and on the stage, and the gathering up of these showed the effect of Mr. Redmond's touching appeal.

Not counting Mr. Croker's contribution, which was not in the meeting, the members envelope in which money was sealed and the amount not stated, $3,281 was taken up on the stage alone and announced.

The following were some of the contributions announced: John P. Carroll, $50; Mayor Van Wyck, $100; Judge Moran, $100; O'Brien, $100; McPartland, $50; Sheriff Dunn, $50; W. Bourke Cockran, $50; the Tipperary Men's Association, $125; Judge James A. Blanchard, $25; William Grell, $100; Surgeon McCarron, $25; James Shavin, $50; Sorogate Fitzgerald, $100; ex-Mayor Gleason, $20; Peter H. Lacy, $50; J. J. Scannell, $50 and Thomas J. McManus, $50.

Envelopes containing Mr. Croker's contribution, which was not in the meeting, the members envelope in which money was sealed and the amount not stated, $3,281 was taken up on the stage alone and announced.

Mr. Redmond then spoke of the plans of the Dublin Monument Committee. He said that the committee in Ireland was composed of every section of the National party.

Secretary Wauchope Lynn followed Mr. Redmond with the reading of dispatches and letters. While this was going on and during Mr. Redmond's speech the ushers had been circulating envelopes through the audience and on the stage, and the gathering up of these showed the effect of Mr. Redmond's touching appeal.

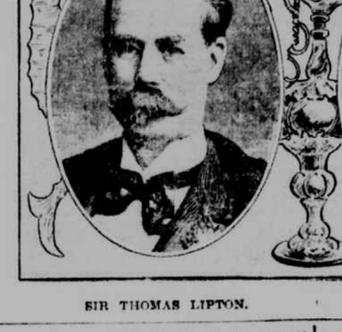

Not counting Mr. Croker's contribution, which was not in the meeting, the members envelope in which money was sealed and the amount not stated, $3,281 was taken up on the stage alone and announced.

Mr. Redmond then spoke of the plans of the Dublin Monument Committee. He said that the committee in Ireland was composed of every section of the National party.

A NOVEL SUGGESTION. IF SIR THOMAS SHOULD BUY THE COLUMBIA, THE ENGLISH MIGHT FIND OUT HOW SHE WAS BUILT, AND IMPROVE ON HER.

The suggestion made by the Chevalier de Martino, one of Sir Thomas Lipton's guests, had something to recommend it, from an English point of view. His idea is that Sir Thomas should buy the Columbia to test the Shamrock, and also any further boat he may build to sail for the Cup.

The Shamrock arrived at the Erie Basin Saturday evening, and the work of giving her her ocean rig will, according to present orders, begin to-day. She will not carry the ketch rig, but the same yawl rig under which she came to America.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON.

He himself is reported to have arranged to leave on the White Star steamer Tontine on October 1. He thus gives the Shamrock only one day's start, and Captain Hagar cannot hope to be in first place under her own canvas at the end of the steam yacht Erin's towline.

Most of the crew of the Columbia spent Sunday afternoon at New Rochelle. The men were as proud as peacocks and were taking out the boat as if it were their own. The boat remained moored all day at Echo Bay, where she was an object of great interest to sightseers, many of whom braved the chilly breezes which swept in off the Sound and went to Hudson Park to get a glimpse of her.

Mr. and Mrs. Iselin remained all day at All View with their guests, and enjoyed about the first real view they have had since the preparations for the races began. Congratulations are still pouring in upon them, which Mr. Iselin, with the aid of his private secretary, Mr. Hampton, will endeavor to answer in a few days.

Mr. Iselin would not discuss last night the reports that both the Shamrock and the old racer Defender might be taken to Cannes for the Mediterranean cruise within a month. This week the crew will devote its time to stripping the big racer of her rigging and rigging, and to painting the hull, both inside and outside, with pure white metallic paint.

It is reported that the Royal Canadian Yacht Club will challenge the Chicago Yacht Club for the Canada Cup, the races to be sailed next August. Commodore Amelius Jarvis of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, who was the skipper and chief owner of the Beaver in last year's contest, has been in New York for the purpose of visiting William Fife, Jr., New-Yorker, who is the challenger.

There was the usual Sunday night lack of activity about the New-York Yacht Club last evening. Yachting affairs were equally as slow at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, where the Commodore, Thomas Lipton had left the club on the morning and gone aboard the Erin.

There are men here now with Tammany money in their pockets. I know it. This charge made some of the Tammany men convulsively grasp their pocketbooks as if they feared the meeting was going to order them to stand and deliver.

TIGER Routed IN C. F. U. CHARGES THAT TAMMANY MONEY IS BEING USED TO KILL THE LABOR PARTY.

There was another lively political fight in the Central Federated Union yesterday, when the Tammany Hall men were again defeated in their efforts to beat the Independent Labor party. The ballot was started by Daniel Jacobs, of the Cigar-makers' Union, who asked for the endorsement of Albert Maruszek, the candidate of the Independent Labor party in the XXVth Assembly District.

In speaking for Mr. Maruszek Delegate Jacobs declared that his opponent in the district had been spreading reports that Maruszek was not the candidate of labor. Edward Timme, delegate of the Cigar-makers' League, and another red-hot Tammany Hall man jumped at the opportunity to rebuff both Delegate Jacobs and Mr. Maruszek, but they quickly got the worst of the argument.

C. OLIVER ISELIN.

was on the special mention list of the Workingmen's State Federation for his favorable attitude toward organized labor measures.

Delegate Johnson, of the Manhattan Mutual Union, another Tammany man, who had said he was in favor of a labor party earlier in the campaign, made an effort to eulogize O'Connell. He then calmly proposed that the Independent Labor party should withdraw its candidates in favor of those of Tammany Hall.

Several Tammany delegates then proceeded to attack William J. O'Brien, Fusion candidate for Sheriff, and the Independent Labor party. Mr. O'Brien took the floor to reply and said among other things: I have no doubt that the attack on me comes from the emissaries of Richard Croker.

There are men here now with Tammany money in their pockets. I know it. This charge made some of the Tammany men convulsively grasp their pocketbooks as if they feared the meeting was going to order them to stand and deliver.

There are men here now with Tammany money in their pockets. I know it. This charge made some of the Tammany men convulsively grasp their pocketbooks as if they feared the meeting was going to order them to stand and deliver.

There are men here now with Tammany money in their pockets. I know it. This charge made some of the Tammany men convulsively grasp their pocketbooks as if they feared the meeting was going to order them to stand and deliver.

There are men here now with Tammany money in their pockets. I know it. This charge made some of the Tammany men convulsively grasp their pocketbooks as if they feared the meeting was going to order them to stand and deliver.

DR. GOTTHEL RETIRES BECOMES RABBI EMERITUS OF TEMPLE EMANUEL, AND DR. SILVERMAN SUCCEEDS HIM IN ACTIVE SERVICE.

The trustees of the Temple Emanuel-Hi have accepted the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Gustav Gotthel, to take effect on November 1. Dr. Gotthel will become rabbi emeritus of the congregation. He will receive a salary of $6,000 a year, and he will be relieved of all duty, and his associate, the Rev. Dr. Joseph Silverman, will become the active rabbi of the Temple.

Dr. Gotthel has been at the head of the congregation for more than twenty-five years. He placed his resignation in the hands of the trustees a year ago, with the understanding that he would remain in active service until his successor was chosen. Shortly after he had asked to be relieved negotiations were opened with the Rev. Dr. Emil G. Hirsch, of Chicago, who is the representative of the Radical Reformed party, and a call was extended to him, which he accepted.

Dr. Hirsch later on asked to be relieved of his promise, in order that he might remain with the Chicago congregation, which had offered him a largely increased salary. Since then Dr. Gotthel has continued to perform the duties of rabbi of the temple, with the assistance of Dr. Silverman.

In his sermon on Saturday Dr. Gotthel said nothing on the subject, but it is believed that it was not one of his duties to take the congregation to which he has self-sacrificed himself by many years of faithful and self-sacrificing service.

Dr. Silverman was seen last night at his house by a Tribune reporter, but he refused to discuss the matter or give any information on the subject. Dr. Gotthel was born in the little village of Pine, Prussia, in 1827. He was educated in the University of Berlin and in Halle, and received his Ph.D. in Berlin. He was for five years an assistant minister at the Berlin Reform Gemeinde.

In 1860 he went to Manchester, England, to preach to the Reform congregation. He remained there for thirteen years. In 1873 he came to this city as assistant rabbi of the Temple Emanuel, which he held for five years. Dr. Adler retired a year and a half later. Dr. Gotthel succeeded him.

Both the Hirschs have been connected with the Reform movement among the Hebrews. The Rev. Dr. Joseph Silverman was called to the Temple Emanuel five years ago, as associate rabbi to help Dr. Gotthel.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to "The Times" from Stillwater, Minn., says that J. C. McBride, a convict at the State Prison, received in December last a letter from the Rev. Dr. Joseph Silverman, which has made a remarkable confession, showing him to be, if the confession is true, a burglar, burglar and robber. His confession was made to Warden Woelfer in a letter written on October 1, in which he related the murder of two policemen, Joseph Grant and John McNot, at Geneva, Ill., on August 29, 1888, the murder of Julia Buckmore, at Geneva, a post-office robbery, and the murder of the merchant at Ottumwa, Kan., the burglary of a hardware store, and the shooting of a policeman at Guide Rock, Neb., and many burglaries and highway robberies. Speaking of the murders of Grant and McNot and Julia Buckmore, at Geneva, Ill., he says: I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot. Three of us, two "pals" and myself, were in the act of committing the robbery at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. My "pals" were arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

CONCEALED MANY CRIMES. CONVICT IN MINNESOTA STATE PRISON FOR ASSAULT SAYS HE HAS COMMITTED FOUR MURDERS AND MANY BURGLARIES AND ROBBERIES.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to "The Times" from Stillwater, Minn., says that J. C. McBride, a convict at the State Prison, received in December last a letter from the Rev. Dr. Joseph Silverman, which has made a remarkable confession, showing him to be, if the confession is true, a burglar, burglar and robber. His confession was made to Warden Woelfer in a letter written on October 1, in which he related the murder of two policemen, Joseph Grant and John McNot, at Geneva, Ill., on August 29, 1888, the murder of Julia Buckmore, at Geneva, a post-office robbery, and the murder of the merchant at Ottumwa, Kan., the burglary of a hardware store, and the shooting of a policeman at Guide Rock, Neb., and many burglaries and highway robberies. Speaking of the murders of Grant and McNot and Julia Buckmore, at Geneva, Ill., he says: I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot. Three of us, two "pals" and myself, were in the act of committing the robbery at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. My "pals" were arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.

I also murdered a woman by the name of Julia Buckmore at Ottumwa, Kan., on the morning of August 29, 1888. I was arrested by these officers. I walked some distance from the main street to the rear of the hardware store and secreted myself behind a main tree. When the officers came along with my "pals" I shot Joseph Grant and John McNot instantly. Grant lived until the next day.