

ACCUSED OF MANY CRIMES.

There, according to Pinkerton's men, was to deposit $1,000 in cash in the Tradesmen's National Bank to open an account and give the gang a standing. This was done, a bogus draft for $4,000 was to follow and then an effort made to draw $2,500. Stewart, alias Ward, it is alleged, was to do all the work. He is seventy-two years old, gray and venerable.

The bank officials were quietly "tipped off" by Pinkerton's men, and plans were made for the arrest of the entire lot when they came on Monday to draw the $2,500. The plans might have succeeded, if Stewart had not been held in Pittsburgh and Stewart alone was to be held in Pittsburgh.

White man came from Danville to New-York last Saturday and went to St. Marc's Hotel, Fifth-ave. and Thirty-ninth-st. He registered as C. H. Caldwell, of Philadelphia.

The hotel authorities said Caldwell had plenty of money. When his room was searched, nothing was found save a small valise and some linen and an open telegraph message inviting him to luncheon at the Down Town Club. The clerk said somebody had telephoned an invitation to White man on Sunday, to occupy their box at the Horse Show on Monday night.

Captain McCluskey declares that White man is a white man in Chicago. He was tried there a year ago for grand larceny, and sentenced to six months in the State Prison. He was again tried and sentenced to a half year on bail. He jumped his bail when he learned that the Illinois Court of Appeals had affirmed his sentence. He was on his way to the Chicago police, who are on their way to get him.

Thompson will be tried here on the charge of swindling the Central Trust Company of Brooklyn's money. The case will be sent to New York, while Edmunds and Knox will be sent to the Woonsocket, in the probability, to stand trial on the charge of the theft of the $3,000 spoken of.

White man is alleged to have swindled the following institutions with bad checks: Pacific Hotel, in May, 1898, $250; Grand Pacific Hotel, Chicago, in June, 1898, $200; Parker House, Boston, in June, 1898, $200; the Jelsworth Hotel, Atlantic City, in August, 1898, $100; the Thompson Hotel, in August, 1898, $100; the Holywood Hotel, Long Branch, August, 1898, $200; an attempt to victimize the Hoboken Trust and Savings Institution, Hoboken, New Jersey, in August, 1898, $100; the Providence, E. R. September of this year, $150; on July 19, 1898, he secured three steamship tickets worth $250 from David Torrence & Co., steamship agents of Montreal. The tickets were hypothecated in the payment of the $150. He was arrested at the Murray Hill Hotel here for a bill for $450, and finally seized by the Montreal concern, $150 from the Spaulding Hotel, Duluth, Minn., and $500 from the Spaulding Hotel, Duluth, Minn.

RECORDS OF THE MEN.

Frank Edmunds is No. 2,325 in the Rogues' Gallery; sentenced in 1870 to the Elmira Reformatory under the name of Walter Edwards for grand larceny, paroled after serving fifteen months; sentenced to Sing Sing for two years on May 3, 1887, for grand larceny under the name of George Roberts; got two years in Sing Sing in 1886 for stealing a watch on a car.

John Thompson, alias William Hartley, alias P. Lawton, alias Dr. George W. Johnson, No. 963 in the Rogues' Gallery; sentenced on January 27, 1887, to three years in Sing Sing for the theft of $1,000 worth of jewelry from the safe of the Compositian Hotel; only recently released. Said to have done time in Westchester County, and Moyamensing, Penn. prisons.

Charles E. Stewart, alias Charles Ward, is No. 1,476 in the Rogues' Gallery. He was sentenced in 1877 to serve five years in Sing Sing for forgery in the case of the Central Railroad Company's waiting room at Rochester, and served three months for that offense. In 1891 he stole the north of the case, and other papers from the late Waldorf. It was the property of John C. Calhoun. He got three years and three months for that offense, and only recently was released.

Robert J. Knox, alias McCluskey, is No. 1,324 in the Rogues' Gallery. He has been arrested a score of times, but only in the Chicago case was he sentenced to a term of imprisonment. He inherited $50,000 from his father in 1888 after leaving college.

He led his class in the Columbia Law School, and after graduation he was admitted to the bar in New York. It is said that he made $1,000,000 there in the "boom" times. He served in both houses of the Minnesota Legislature, drafting the election laws under the name of Charles E. Stewart. He was defeated for Congress he began to lose money, and his downfall was fast. He lost his fortune on the Chicago Board of Trade within a year.

He then turned to the racetrack. As a book-maker he made money, met a bad streak of luck, and was ruled off the track for losing his money. He was sentenced to a term of nine months for forgery in San Francisco in 1895, appealed, got a reversal and was set free. In 1897 he was arrested, charged with swindling the Columbia Trust Co. for $100,000. He got out on bail for $100,000. He was next arrested, charged with passing a bad check for $907 to upon Martin Mahon, of the New-Amsterdam Hotel.

Magistrate Wood in the Jefferson Market Court sentenced Mahon to a term of six months for passing a bad check for $907 to upon Martin Mahon, of the New-Amsterdam Hotel. He was next arrested, charged with passing a bad check for $907 to upon Martin Mahon, of the New-Amsterdam Hotel.

White man is said to be a most attractive man. St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 14 (Special).—It is believed the Robert J. Knox who was arrested in New York with A. J. White man is the man who made a record in this city some ten years ago. He was a real estate speculator, and after getting into bad luck, he was sentenced to a term of six months on a bank in which he had no funds. He left St. Paul for Chicago two days. Afterward he was arrested, charged with passing a bad check for $907 to upon Martin Mahon, of the New-Amsterdam Hotel.

HIGH WAGES FOR STEEL WORKERS.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Beginning on January 1 steel rail workers in the South Chicago mills of the Illinois Steel Company will receive record breaking wages. Owing to increased price of the finished product, the men, some three hundred in number, will be able to earn from $150 to $200 a month. The unusual condition is due to the fact that the company failed to readjust the sliding scale of wages last June, and under the contracts a new scale cannot be arranged before June 1, 1900, and Dr. E. C. Curtis, chief surgeon of the New-York, Ontario and Western Railroad, the president; Dr. J. F. Valentine, of the Rock Island Railroad, the president; Dr. J. F. Valentine, of the Rock Island Railroad, the president.

TUNNEL BIDS ASKED FOR.

INVITATION FOR OFFERS TO BUILD THE RAPID TRANSIT ROAD.

RUMORS THAT THE THIRD AVENUE RAILROAD COMPANY, O'BRIEN & SHEEHAN AND M. EIFFEL, OF PARIS, MAY COMPETE FOR IT.

Alexander E. Orr, president of the Rapid Transit Commission, yesterday signed the stipulation required by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court on the order of the Court consenting to the reduction of the contractor's bond for the construction of the tunnel railroad from $14,000,000 to $5,000,000. The order of the Court was signed by Presiding Justice Van Brunt.

The form of contract for the construction of the underground rapid transit road having been fixed, the Rapid Transit Commission yesterday gave out the advertisement of the invitation to contractors to make bids. The invitation will be found in other columns of The Tribune to-day, and it contains details of the terms to be considered by the contractors. It is, in fact, a synopsis of the contract, which will be published twice a week for three weeks and bids for the construction and operation of the underground railroad will be opened at the new office of the Rapid Transit Commission, at No. 330 Broadway, on January 15.

Members of the Rapid Transit Commission said yesterday that they hoped and expected that there would be satisfactory bids, but they were not so sure as to the probability of bids being received from any corporation. It is not unlikely that bids may be submitted by the Third Avenue Railroad Company and the contracting firm of O'Brien & Sheehan, and it is interesting to note that the latter may be a bidder. Interests close to the Metropolitan Street Railway Company say that that corporation will not be a competitor for the contract.

BOATS CRASH IN MIDSTREAM.

THE HAMBURG STRUCK BY THE ST. LOUIS AND SERIOUSLY INJURED.

The ferryboats St. Louis, of the Pennsylvania line, and Hamburg, of the Barclay-st. line, were in collision in midstream in the North River at 11:45 o'clock last night. The latter boat, which is a modern double decker, was so badly damaged that it had to be laid up for repairs. The women's cabin was crushed in forward, but luckily no one was injured.

The St. Louis at the time of the smashup was on the way from Jersey City to West Twenty-third-st. and the Hamburg was on its way to this city from Hoboken. As soon as the boats got clear of each other, they proceeded on their way and landed their passengers on time.

There were about forty women in the cabin of the Hamburg when it was crushed in by the St. Louis. Some excitement followed, but the passengers were quickly quieted by the crew of the ferryboat and the men passengers. When the Hamburg reached Barclay-st., the women on the upper deck had to land by the men's stairs.

There was a fair crowd for a stormy night on board the St. Louis, but as the Pennsylvania boat struck the Barclay-st. liner almost on its way to the pier, it was raining, and it was not in much danger. It was raining, and it was not in much danger. It was raining, and it was not in much danger.

After the collision, the watchmen along the North River shore say they heard no whistling or signals for help. No information concerning the collision could be obtained at the ferryhouse, where the line on this river is busy with passengers, glad of their escape, at once hurried to their homes.

The injury to the Hamburg, which is above the water line, is described as extensive.

SENT BACK TO GRAND JURY.

ANOTHER INDICTMENT WANTED IN THE CASE OF PHILIP McDERMOTT.

After hearing part of the testimony offered in the trial against Philip McDermott, in Part IV of General Sessions, yesterday afternoon, Judge McMahon dismissed the jury and ordered the prisoner taken to the Tombs to await the action of the Grand Jury. The Court in taking the action said it appeared from the testimony that a crime higher than that for which McDermott was indicted had been committed. McDermott was on trial for assault.

On June 20 McDermott and George Waldvogel, who lived with a family named Cleefield, in Twentieth-st., between Second and Third aves., had a dispute. Both men had been paying attentions to Jennie Cleefield, the daughter of their boarding house mistress, and had become jealous of each other. Waldvogel got the better of the fight, and McDermott rushed into the house and, it is alleged, secured a large knife, with which he cut Waldvogel in the abdomen. The injured man was taken to Bellevue Hospital and died the next day.

McDermott was indicted by the Grand Jury for assault in the first degree. When the case was called before Judge McMahon yesterday, McDermott's counsel asked the Court to dismiss the indictment, on the ground that the complaining witness had died. The Assistant District Attorney concurred. Judge McMahon, however, suspended the proceedings and ordered the prisoner back to the Tombs.

REPLEVIN WRIT AGAINST A. POPKIN.

Deputy Sheriff Roberts received a writ of replevin late yesterday against Abraham Popkin, doing business as A. Popkin & Co., manufacturers of cloaks, at No. 762 to 766 Broadway, from Epstein Brothers, at No. 1,806 worth of goods said to him by Hoenighaus & Curtis. Mr. Popkin has been in business twenty years, and has had several partners. The firm was Popkin & Levy, then Popkin & Marks, and since 1892 has been A. Popkin & Co. Alfred Hahn, the "Co." retired in January. Rumors were circulated in the trade yesterday concerning Mr. Popkin's financial condition which caused considerable excitement among creditors. Epstein Brothers said they had heard these rumors, and demanded payment. He had paid as long as he was able. When the demands were for larger sums than he had simply said he could not pay them. Mr. Popkin intended to throw himself into the water, but he was deterred. He expects his creditors to get together and devise a means to adjust things and let him down. The nominal assets, he said, equalled or exceeded the liabilities.

Morris S. Wise, referee in bankruptcy, who has charge of the case of F. Tennyson Neely, book publisher, of No. 14 Fifth-ave., announced yesterday the result of the vote in favor of the estate. The creditors largely voted for trustees of George E. Green, ex-governor of Washington; Allen B. Conson and James M. Doremus, cashier of the Sprague National Bank of Brooklyn. The last named could not qualify as a trustee. The referee selected Peter Alexander, lawyer, of No. 11 Broadway, as the third trustee.

Petitions in bankruptcy were filed yesterday with the clerk of the United States District Court in Brooklyn by Louis L. Brown, of Green Cove, Long Island, doing business at No. 45 Cedar-st., Manhattan; Edward B. Thomas, of Flushing, N. Y., doing business at No. 227 East Twenty-second-st.; and Thomas M. Thomas, of Flushing, N. Y., doing business at No. 112, 116 1/2 St.

MISS GOULD HEARD AGAIN.

SHE ADDRESSES A MEETING AT IRVINGTON AGAINST POLYGAMY.

A public meeting to discuss the expulsion of Congressman Roberts of Utah, was held last evening at the Irvington Church in Irvington-on-the-Hudson. The meeting was called by a committee of the different churches of the village, and was partly due to the active interest which Miss Helen M. Gould has manifested in the subject.

Despite the snow and cold weather the church was filled with people from Irvington, Tarrytown, Dobbs Ferry, Ardsley and other places. The meeting was called to order by Rev. Carroll Dunham, who introduced Eugene Young, a grandson of Brigham Young, who is not and never has been a member of the Mormon Church. Mr. Young read a long speech, which he had prepared, in which he traced the history of Mormonism, and dwelt upon the methods of its disciples. He cited many instances of Mormon despotism which he condemned in strong terms, and he was equally harsh in his denunciation of the Mormon Church. He said that he would present his credentials, and he hardly doubted but that he would be seated. Congress should eject him, and afterward amend the Constitution, forbidding the Mormons to exercise the right of citizenship. A woman who served as a missionary polygamist. A woman who served as a missionary polygamist. A woman who served as a missionary polygamist.

"I want to prophesy that he will be seated because God wants it." If such was the case, he said, the Mormons would consider that the Government had sanctioned their creed and legitimized polygamy. A woman who served as a missionary polygamist. A woman who served as a missionary polygamist. A woman who served as a missionary polygamist.

Helen Gould, who occupied a seat in the center of the church, then arose and stated that she had had a wide correspondence on the Roberts subject. She then proceeded to read a paper which she had prepared quoting from a letter to a friend. She spoke softly, and her voice was only audible to those near her. In part she said:

Since the statement has been often made of late that the Mormons have given up the practice of polygamy, I thought it well to quote from a letter written by Dr. William Bennett, and which shows the attitude of the Mormons in Utah toward this important question of the present time. Dr. Campbell, who is in Salt Lake City and which is devoted especially to the task of spreading information in the United States, in a letter dated September 12, 1899, and in it Dr. Campbell gives a description of a day he spent at the September convention held over by President Snow, the head of the Mormon Church.

LOUIS F. PAYS HAS HOPES.

There have been persistent reports among the politicians of late that Louis F. Payn, the State Superintendent of Insurance, had made a lasting peace with Senator Platt and other leaders of the Republican organization who were hostile to him a year ago, and that he had obtained so many promises of support from members of the State Senate that he would be able to hold on to his present office for at least another year. Governor Roosevelt is supposed to be inclined to name another person for Superintendent of Insurance at the expiration of Mr. Payn's term, and it is believed that the Senator will not continue in office unless he is re-elected. It is believed that the Senator will not continue in office unless he is re-elected. It is believed that the Senator will not continue in office unless he is re-elected.

AN ASTOR FAMILY TO BE EVICTED.

The marshal of the Fourth District Municipal Court has papers empowering him to put into the street the household furniture of Carl Frederick Astor, who alleges that he is a tenant of the premises at No. 41 East Twenty-second-st. Astor and his family, consisting of his wife and three children, occupy the rear rooms on the third floor of the tenement house at No. 41 East Fourteenth-st. Yesterday afternoon William Waldorf Astor, the oldest child, was in charge of the household. He is nine years old, and explained that his mother was out searching for other rooms, while his father was temporarily at work. The twenty-year-old son was caring for the two other children. The youngest, a baby, was asleep on a pile of bedding. William Waldorf is a cripple, one of his legs having been amputated above the knee as a result of blood poisoning.

He finally was allowed to remain in the house last night, but it was said that they would be evicted this morning.

JUDICIARY APPOINTMENTS.

MANY CANDIDATES FOR TRANSFER TO THE COURT OF APPEALS.

Albany, Nov. 14 (Special).—Politicians are already beginning to speculate as to the probable appointments of Governor Roosevelt under the constitutional amendment, which has probably been adopted, authorizing him to transfer four Supreme Court Judges to the Court of Appeals.

Democrats are calling attention to the fact that the Governor will appoint three Democrats and four Republicans as members of the second division of the Court of Appeals, and they argue that Governor Roosevelt ought to appoint two Democrats and two Republicans when he comes to select the Supreme Court Judges for service in the Court of Appeals.

Among the eminent judges of the Supreme Court who may now be named for work in the Court of Appeals, some of whom are already mentioned for the place, are Judges Leslie W. Russell, of Canton; St. Lawrence County; William E. Verper, of Rochester; Pardon C. Williams, of Watertown; William Rumsey, of Bath; Henry C. Oswego, all Republican, and Judge Edgar M. Cullen and Judge Willard Bartlett, of Kings County, and Judge D. Cady Herrick, of Albany, all Democrats.

Governor Roosevelt said to-day that Assemblyman Merton E. Lewis, of Rochester, was a candidate for appointment as Special Judge of Monroe County, to succeed Judge Carnahan, who has been elected Mayor of Rochester. The Governor intimated, however, that the Constitution might forbid the appointment of Mr. Lewis, he being an Assemblyman.

Senator C. E. Ellsworth, of Lockport, called on Governor Roosevelt, in company with Judge Potter, of Lockport, to-day, to urge the appointment of the latter to the vacancy caused by the retirement of the Supreme Court bench of Justice White, for which position several candidates are conducting a wide canvass. Judge Potter is Senator Ellsworth's law partner.

The Senator also conferred with the Governor in reference to the appointment to a new Board of Managers for the Albany House of Refuge, the members of the old board having resigned. The Governor, who in communication with the State Board of Charities, will name the new board within a few days.

AIR POWER CARS IN THIRTY-FOUR-ST.

President Vreeland, of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, said yesterday that air power

The Wanamaker Store Silks--In the Fifth Floor Bargain Store Silks--and velvets, too. One to read of these lots would almost forget that silk prices are higher. We know it, though--and in the face of higher prices these bargains are the more real and interesting.

There are colored taffetas--green, pink, mahogany, plum, cherry, old rose, drab and salmon, at 35c instead of 75c. Quite rich silk Velvets in odd colorings but splendid qualities--their full values being $1 to $5 a yard; to-day's price, 50c. And velvets can be dyed. Rich Corded Silks--crinkly cords--ten good solid colorings, 65c instead of $1.10. It is a feast with all truffles and sweets.

Women's $20 Jackets at $14

And brand new--which makes the saving very real. They are of pebble chevot (an attractive overcoating) in black, royal blue, brown and tan. Made double-breasted; inlaid velvet collar and rich satin linings. And fortunately for those who prefer smooth goods, we've jackets in the same style (without velvet collar), made from fine black kersey. A hundred and ten, all told--a mere tid-bit of good fortune.

Men's Winter Overcoats

It is your turn to prophesy--is winter here? The overcoats are ready. Men have been more forehanded than usual--the selling has been unusually big for the early days. But, then, this whole clothing business has found its true level--and is so large as to surprise our critics and to put us on a still higher plane of helpfulness.

Shoe News--And Two Bargains

Thank the Wanamaker shoe store for growing big--big enough to justify a double business--the first floor store for the splendid regular lines; the fifth floor store for the selling of lots that for any reason can go at less than their every-day worth. To-day in the Fifth-Floor Store--530 pairs of Women's $3 to $4 black kidskin shoes at $1.75. The last clearance we made of such fine shoes was at $2.50. Some of the styles will be almost exactly duplicated in our fall prices in our shoe store shortly--but these are broken lots. All the usual sizes to begin with.

French Table China

Did you read yesterday's china news? Fine--pay you to read it now, if you can find the papers. But it wasn't all told--we simply spoke of dinner sets. Here is the rest of the story--"open stocks," as we store folks say, china from which you can buy single pieces or dozens as you please. And it is all French and beautiful-- Dinner Plates, $2.50 instead of $5 a doz. Breakfast Plates, $2 instead of $4 a doz. Tea Plates, $1.85 instead of $3.75 a doz. Bread and Butter Plates, $1.50 instead of $3 a doz. Soup Plates, $2.35 instead of $4.75 a doz. Individual Biscuits, 75c instead of $1.50 a doz.
