

GEN. MOLINEUX CHEERED.

REFERENCE TO HIS CAREER AROUSES THE LOYAL LEGION.

ADMIRAL DEWEY, A GUEST OF THE EVENING SPEAKERS BRIEFLY-VETERANS WHO WERE PRESENT.

Admiral Dewey was the guest of honor last night at the dinner given by the Loyal Legion at Delmonico's.

General King spoke of the work done in the Shenandoah Valley by General Molineux's brigade, and paid a stirring tribute to the General, who was wounded in battle there.

The score or more of women in the balconies added their plaudits, and General King, by unanimous request, repeated the paragraph in his paper just read.

The general was not present. He attended the previous dinner given by the Loyal Legion, which was the third in the series of six it holds annually.

Admiral Dewey entered the room escorted by Rear Admiral Stanton (retired). He was received with cheers and applause.

General Burnett said Admiral Dewey had to keep an engagement in Brooklyn, and he took his leave of the guests.

It is not often that the veteran officers of the Civil War, those who compose nine-tenths of the membership of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion, have an opportunity to "get together."

These old heroes had skirmished with resolutions and other things that came up at the meeting before the dinner, and some surrendered to their stronger opponents with better grace than they might if the hour for eating had not arrived.

In the party with Admiral Dewey was Rear Admiral Joseph N. Miller, who was Dewey's instructor at the Naval Academy when Dewey was a midshipman.

Admiral Dewey was a member of the Loyal Legion, and among those present were Rear Admirals Montgomery Sicard, F. M. Bunce, T. H. Stanton and Henry Erben.

Colonel J. W. Closs made an address on the Cuban campaign. He was one of the administrators of Cuba.

The following were elected to membership: General John Hendrickson, Surgeon Myron Johnson, Captain James G. Chamberlain, Fisher A. Baker, Thomas D. Mosscrop, Henry Parsons and Loren W. Tuller.

SELECTIONS FROM THE MAIL.

MR. COCHRAN AND THE PRICE OF CRAPE. AN ENERGETIC PROTEST AGAINST ONE OF HIS RECENT UTTERANCES.

To the Editor of the Tribune. Sir: On Monday evening there was held a large meeting in New-York to express sympathy with the Boers in the present unhappy struggle in South Africa.

Who the "Hon. Mr. Cochran" may be I confess I do not know, neither do I know from what part of the country he comes, nor to what political party he belongs.

Apparently this person's official position was the cause of his being asked to make a speech. While I suppose that he has no objection to making a speech, it is not my purpose to abuse his official position.

MR. COCHRAN'S EVIL WISH FOR ENGLAND. To the Editor of the Tribune. Sir: At the mass meeting held in the Grand Central Palace on Monday night, January 29, in favor of the Boers, Congressman Cochran, of Missouri, is reported by several newspapers as having said in his speech that "he had prayed in agony to God that the price of crape in the English market would rise."

Could anything more brutal emanate from a human heart? The language is not only vulgar, but blasphemous. God does not answer revengeful and agonizing prayers of that kind.

Orthographic Nonsense. To the Editor of the Tribune. Sir: Your preaching is first rate in your article this morning on "Words and Spellings."

"THE OLD MAN'S BURDEN."

REPUBLICAN DISTRICT LEADERS ANXIOUS TO GET RID OF QUIGG.

Abraham Gruber's latest filing at Senator Platt and President Quigg of the Republican County Committee has aroused the Republican politicians greatly.

The method by which Mr. Quigg is kept in office by Senator Platt's influence is too well known and too much feared by the district leaders to permit many of them to express their opposition openly.

Supporters of Abraham Gruber in the Republican organization of the XXII Assembly District were happy yesterday, and confident that there would be an overwhelming defeat for George C. Quigg at the primary in March.

Quigg yesterday sent for Frederick E. Wood, the district captain who offered the Gruber resignation at the meeting on Tuesday evening, and tried to make him believe that the opposition to Mr. Gruber in the XXII District had not been focused upon the office holders there by Senator Platt.
