REFORMS IN THE ARMY.

SECRETARY ROOT'S SCHEME MODIFIED AND PRACTICALLY COMPLETED.

Washington, April 19.—Secretary Root's Army reorganization scheme, as modified by the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, was practically completed to-day, and will probably be reported the first of next week.

The important reform of temporary tenure on staff duty, instead of permanent transfers, remains, with slight alterations which do not affect the principle.

What is deemed the greatest gain for the Army is the sweeping increase in the artillery for coast defence. This arm of the service is not only provided with corps formation, but is more than doubled in strength, without any reduction in the enlisted force of cavalry and infantry.

The increase herein provided shall be in addition to the enlisted strength now authorized in the Regular Army.

Another important amendment exempts from the temporary staff provisions officers now holding permanent appointments in the Adjutant-General's, Inspector-General's, Quartermaster's, Subsistence and Ordnance departments and Signal Corps.

One of the provisions of the Root bill which caused much criticism was that for selecting chiefs of staff, opening these positions to any officer of any grade, the President to have authority to retire chiefs of staff at pleasure.

The last two sections of the bill provide for the new grade of lieutenant-general, and for the rank of major-general for the adjutant-general.

Among the features retained in the amended bill which are obnoxious to large elements of the service is that providing for the increase of artillery officers above the rank of captain to the artillery arm.

THE CENSUS OF CUBA.

FIGURES REGARDED AS JUSTIFYING THE DECISION TO ALLOW MUNICIPAL PAL SUFFRAGE—ELECT.

Washington, April 19.—General Sanger to-day made public the results of the Cuban census taken under his direction. The figures are instructive, and, in the opinion of the War Department officials, fully justify the decision of the Administration to allow municipal suffrage in Cuba at this early stage.

The total population of Cuba is 1,372,797, including 815,235 males and 557,562 females. There are 67,721 white males and 42,926 white females of native birth. The foreign whites number 115,769 males and 24,548 females.

The total population of the island 1,108,719 persons are set down as single and 246,361 as married, while 13,787 live together by mutual consent. There are 5,112 widowed persons.

Of the total population, according to citizenship, 20,478 are Spanish, 1,296,367 are Cuban, 176,811 are in suspense, 79,285 are of other citizenship, and 63 are unknown. The Spaniards by birth numbered 129,240.

The table on citizenship, literacy and education is regarded as especially important, as forming the basis of suffrage about to be conferred. Because so many citizenships are still in suspense and for other reasons the returns are not complete, but the conclusion is drawn that there will be at least 100,000 qualified native Cuban voters under the proposed basis of suffrage, and as against this there will be 55,112 widowed persons.
